Editor's notes...

JULY 2022

Nik Allen, Editor

Hello and welcome to this month's edition of VISION BillericayShenfield.

I write this after the pomp and pageantry of the Queen's Platinum Jubilee, and still with the sounds of regal fanfare, tradition and celebration ringing in my ears.

For all the conjecture about the Royal Family and their relevance to our lives in 2022, a four-day weekend of celebrations I felt was a fitting tribute to a wonderful lady, Queen Elizabeth II.

And yet, what inspired and delighted me most weren't the big events at Buckingham Palace and St Paul's Cathedral. I was instead charmed by the plethora of street parties held in every corner of the country.

It dawned on me how much I had missed these community get-togethers, where streets were cordoned off, children played until sunset and neighbours took real time to catch up.

We'd seen this indomitable spirit in those days of lockdown, where people rallied together, but the Jubilee weekend saw that notion played out in celebration rather than fear.

Finally, after missing out for two years, we could revel in what really matters - the people around us and the streets on which we live. It's proof, if it was ever needed, that big things come from small actions.

Nik Allen

A RACE for the TAPE

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF THE LEGENDARY JOCKEY, LESTER PIGGOTT

We are used to identifying icons in popular culture – stars who have committed decades to their pursuit, taken home countless honours and, in the process, inspired a generation to try to emulate their achievements.

As far as the sporting world goes, from Muhammad Ali to Serena Williams, Freddie Flintoff to David Beckham, we can reel off the names of defining stars with relative ease, though despite their intense and varied achievements, the question of whether they can rival those of the late Lester Piggott is an interesting one.

Certainly in terms of longevity of a professional career, none comes close. Piggott, who passed away in May, rode his first winner at the age of just 12, way back in 1948, at Haydock Park. And five decades later, he was still taking the plaudits – his last winner also came at the Merseyside track, at the age of 59.

In total, Piggott rode a colossal 4,493 winners – a sporting legacy fuelled by half a glass of champagne each day, a few coffees and a handful of cigars.

Nicknamed the Long Fellow, given that at 5ft 8in he was tall for a jockey, his pedigree in the saddle never faded, and to back up the admiration he gleaned as the UK's favourite jockey, he had a rogue-like edge that, while courting admiration from contemporaries – and the opposite sex – also landed him in hot water from time to time.

This was never more the case than when the champion jockey was arrested and found guilty of tax evasion in 1986. He was subsequently given a three-year prison sentence (later reduced to one year) and stripped of his OBE, as it transpired he hadn't declared £1.3million of income received from riding, plus a further £1million from bloodstock operations.

It seemed peculiar that a multimillionaire would feel the need to defraud the public purse, but Piggott was very much a man in his own creation, and abiding by the rulebook wasn't part of his plan.

"If I was to toe the line, I would never have got to where I was in my career; I would never have ridden my first horse when I was 12," he said in an interview with the BBC. "I always wanted to take things one step further, to push the narrative, to challenge boundaries.

"I think if you want to get somewhere and if you want to be someone, this is the route you need to take... even if sometimes it may not work out the way you planned."

In 2021, Piggott was one of the first two entrants in the British Champions Series Hall of Fame – alongside the horse Frankel.

Although a private man, in later years Piggott remained active in the horse racing world, and was a close friend of the Queen. He had two daughters and a son, and passed away in hospital in Geneva, Switzerland, on May 29, aged 86.

Full of PRIDE

CELEBRATING THE PROGRESS OF PRIDE IN THE UK AND ELSEWHERE

It's perhaps surprising to note that Pride, a collection of events that celebrate the progress and popularity of the LGBTQ+ movement, actually comes from a place of conflict.

Certainly, our modern interpretation of Pride and, by association, LGBTQ+ Pride Month, which took place in June, is one where people can express their sexuality in a way that brings it into mainstream conversation.

It wasn't always like this. Back in 1969, and under the moniker Stonewall, a series of riots around Manhattan provided a watershed moment. The name referenced the Stonewall Inn, a gay bar in Greenwich Village where transgender people rioted following a raid by police.

Looking now at the way Pride is encouraged in all its forms, it's clear we have come a long way since then.

In the UK, parades in London and Brighton are some of the most popular of any live events held to celebrate Pride. Across the pond, various US presidents have committed to referencing and promoting Pride Month, while corporations the world over throw their collective marketing might behind that familiar multicoloured flag.

What's more, last year the United Arab Emirates supported the LGBTQ+ community in a way they had never before by raising the rainbow flag to celebrate Pride Month; and with the World Cup due to be held in Qatar at the end of the year, the Middle East remains under significant pressure to uphold its renewed pledge for dignity and equality.

These days, Pride is more than a dress code, a parade or a festival. It is a 24/7 lifestyle that encompasses people of all different persuasions, in pursuit of respect, tolerance and understanding. And it's a battle that's being won.

ART THERAPY

with Rebecca Sicardi

WHY REBECCA SICARDI'S DESIGN VISION IS GOOD FOR THE HOME AND THE MIND

We can all relate to a piece of furniture, or a space, or an entire house transporting us to a place of mindful calm, but designer Rebecca Sicardi took the concept one step further when launching her interior design business in 2017.

Despite studying History of Modern Art at Manchester University, it was only when she began decorating her duplex apartment in Hackney that the concept of satisfaction and gratification really came to the fore for the designer, who prioritises subtlety, restfulness, neutral shades and stripped-back finishes in order to promote a place of sanctity, harmony and calm.

She explains: "I don't think it's a secret that most of us will respond well to relaxed, subtle shades and tones, and they really are at the heart of what I create as a template for thought.

"On top of that, I will add context, detail and stimulation in the form of statement pieces or effects that really stand out."

By the designer's own admission, it's not a revolutionary way of thinking; however, in an era where we are impacted by so many modes and messages, reconnecting with sanity, clarity and a sense of clearness could be the ultimate antidote to the world's ills.

The words 'sensitivity' and 'sanctuary' permeate so much of what Sicardi styles, with pastels, wood, stone and rattan offering a base on which everything else can be constructed.

As for Sicardi's recommendations for others looking to follow her design style, she suggests always checking colours carefully, especially 'off-whites', valuing texture and materiality over almost anything else, and using a pared-back palette as a starting point before adding on top, while always telling a story through the art and furniture you select.

She adds: "Don't expect it to work first time. Persist with what feels as if it might work, because with persistence, it will."

abstract cushion

Could your cushions do with a makeover? High street cushion covers can be expensive and a little generic, so why not design your own? We love this simple yet bold abstract cushion design that anyone can create at home with just a few craft essentials and a little artistic flair.

artistic, you could draw your own abstract face design and use this instead.

- YOU WILL NEED:
- One cotton cushion cover | An abstract face template (you can find these online) | A pencil
  - A piece of cardboard the same size as your cushion cover | Black fabric paint
  - Thin paintbrush | Iron-on foil in your choice of colour | An iron | A tea towel

HOW TO MAKE:

STEP 1: Print out the face template
Print out your chosen face template onto a piece of plain white paper and carefully cut out the different parts of the face. Alternatively, if you are feeling

STEP 2: Draw around the template
Position the template pieces onto the front of your cushion cover and draw around each one using a pencil. Take your time with this step as accuracy is key.

STEP 3: Paint the face design
Place the piece of cardboard inside your cushion cover – this will stop your paint bleeding through to the back of the cushion. Using a thin paintbrush and the black fabric paint, carefully paint the face design and then allow to dry fully.

STEP 4: Create the lip design
Use the template to cut out a pair of lips from the iron-on foil. Set your iron to a cool setting with the steam off and then place the lips onto the cushion cover. Lay a tea towel on top of the lips and then gently iron until the foil has bonded with the fabric. Remove the tea towel and allow to cool before peeling off the top carrier layer of foil.

DESIGNING A small bathroom

Your bathroom is an essential room in your home – you'll use it multiple times a day. But many people think that a small bathroom has limited potential, making it difficult to create a modern and stylish space.

The good news is that even a modest bathroom can be beautiful with the right design. Take a look at our tips for creating a stylish, functional bathroom, even when you're working with a small space.

CREATE ZONES: You can make a space look larger by creating defined bathroom zones. Tiling or panelling your sink area, a block colour above the toilet and a contrasting floor can create the illusion of space. It will also make your bathroom look slick and modern.

FREE UP YOUR FLOOR SPACE: A freestanding bath, towel rail and wall-hung vanity units can leave you with more visible flooring, making your bathroom look much bigger. Get clever with shelving instead of opting for storage units. You can build shelving into your shower, or make the most of some wall space to store all of your essentials.

LET THERE BE LIGHT: Keep your space light to help it look bigger. Light shades on the walls, glass shower doors and a large mirror will help keep your room nice and bright.

USE THE LITTLE TOUCHES TO ADD STYLE: There are a lot of stylish touches you can add to a small bathroom to help it ooze style and class. Matte black or brushed gold hardware looks beautiful, while plants and wall art can also make your bathroom feel more inviting.

A small bathroom can still be mighty. Consider the options above to make the most of the space you have and ensure your bathroom is lovable and livable.

THE CHERISHED KITCHEN IMPLEMENTS OF THE COUNTRY'S BEST CHEFS

While a good workman doesn't blame his tools, for those who specialise in the wonder of food, the perfect kitchen implement can transport an everyday dish into a work of culinary completeness.

We have collated the must-have cooking utensils and items for a selection of the UK's leading chefs, and in some cases, the results were surprising.

JAMIE OLIVER: Globally famous chef and restaurateur. "An empty jam jar: super cheap and super useful, for anything from salad dressings and salsas to storing pulses and spices."

YOTAM OTTOLENGHI: Respected food columnist and chef. "For years I struggled with all sorts of mashers, then I found the Masterclass potato ricer. It fits in a drawer, it's easy to handle and clean, and creates a mega-smooth mash. I now use it for mashing all my root veg."

CLARE SMYTH: Michelin-decorated female chef and previous winner of the Chef of the Year award. "My Big Green Egg barbecue. You can put whatever you like on it, pull down the lid and leave it for hours without having to do anything at all. Good food made with ease and no stress."

TOM KERRIDGE: Owner of award-winning The Hand and Flowers pub. "My Homer Simpson bottle opener, a present from my personal assistant, Zabrina. Each time I open a bottle, it goes, 'Mmmmmm, beer'."

JAMES COCHRAN: Winner of Great British Menu 2018. "It has to be my Braun J300 Juicer. I've been making amazing juices every morning to ensure I'm full of energy for the day."

MARWA ALKHALAF: Co-owner of Michelin restaurant, Nutshell. "Rubber spatulas of all shapes and sizes. They don't scratch and ensure that every last bit is scraped up. When you are working with precise recipes, especially with pastries, it's crucial every gram is accounted for."

ISLAND HOPPING

BY DESIGN

Greece's design aesthetics have typically been regarded in the sense of the ancients – the coming together of the Doric, Ionic and Corinthian orders in an appreciation of the classical architecture found in towering columns, stone temples and buildings.

While the template was set by others many thousands of years ago, the classic but cool elements of design from modern style contemporaries is leading a whole new generation of fans to flock to the Greek islands.

Take Milos, for instance – an island whose fishing heritage has led to the creation of a proliferation of single-storey lodges made of stone and decorated with local materials with, typically, a white or grey palette.

Then there is the Athens Riviera, a more populous and money-motivated area, where nearby forests have provoked a string of seaside spaces that rely more on timber and versatile fabrics, such as woven leather, particularly those with weather-resistant capabilities.

In Syros, the island vibe leads to artistic flair dressed in a veil of sustainability and self-preservation. A two-hour ferry ride from Athens transports people to a neoclassical paradise that offers echoes of Capri, without the unnecessary excess.

And what about Antiparos? Although a stylish idyll first made popular by the English poet Lord Byron, there remains a rustic, simple charm to the architecture on show, with stone walls, wicker frames, rattan furnishings and a mass of driftwood.

In Santorini, this volcanic isle does everything at sharp angles. Like much of the Amalfi Coast, buildings overlap and overhang, yet the dazzling white brightness of apartments disguises very well their angular elements. Medieval hilltop towns feel a world away from the seaside cafés and restaurants, but there is a cleanness to both that makes the island so special.

Finally Mykonos, which has discovered a recent surge in popularity, enveloping everyone from entrepreneurs to indie bands. The vibe is totally relaxed, however, on an island inspired by cubic architecture, and with a mood that combines sharp lines with stylish poolside pads.

Baby don't cry

COME OVER TO THE DARK SIDE

While black might not be the first colour that comes to mind for a baby's room, this gender-neutral shade is becoming increasingly popular in the nurseries of the rich and famous. Here are some suggestions for decorating with black.

GO FOR GOLD: If you are looking to create a glamorous room for you and your baby to spend time in together, then a black and white nursery room with a few touches of gold is the way to go. Opt for black walls, a combination of black and white furniture, and some well-placed gold accessories.

ADD WARMTH WITH WOOD: To design an earthy, natural-looking nursery, paint a dominating wall in black to give the space a sense of drama and definition and then add warm woods and rich textures to create feelings of comfort.

USE BLACK AS AN ACCENT: If you are not ready to paint an entire wall black, then why not try adding some black accents to your nursery? You could add a black toy storage box, a black wicker basket, or mix and match black accessories with animal print.

MIX AND MATCH PATTERNS: Stick to just black and white as your colour scheme of choice and then add depth and visual interest by mixing and matching whimsical graphic patterns. Think a black and white stripey rug, black and white spotty blankets, and black and white patterned wallpaper.

PAINT THE CEILING BLACK: For an ultra-modern nursery, set black against white by painting all the walls white and the ceiling black. Providing stark contrast, you can then add your choice of accessories either in a pop of colour, such as yellow or orange, or continue the monochrome theme.

Resident celebrated in Queen's Birthday Honours

Avnish Goyal CBE (pictured above), who is chair of Care England and Hallmark Care Homes, was named in the Honours list on June 1.

He received the national award for his work during the pandemic with Care England, The Care Workers' Charity and volunteer-led initiative, Championing Social Care.

Avnish started his career in care in 1997 and became chair of Care England, the leading representative for care providers in England, in 2015. Since his appointment, he has supported the sector in various initiatives, such as campaigning for better funding for social care and appointing a commissioner for older people.

He helped found The Care Workers' Charity nearly 12 years ago to provide financial care and professional support to care workers, and is now a patron of the charity.

He also helped set up and is chair of Championing Social Care, which seeks to celebrate the great work of the social care workforce through a series of annual events.

In 2018, he established the Care Sector Fundraising Ball, which is the only dedicated fundraising event for the industry. The sell-out event has raised £348,000 to date.

Avnish said: "I'm deeply humbled to be recognised by Her Majesty The Queen in her special Platinum Jubilee year for my work in social care and philanthropy.

"I joined the sector because I wanted to make a difference and I knew I had something to offer.

"Over that time, I've worked hard with my brothers to establish a care company we can be proud of.

"I know that this honour will act as a further catalyst to take my work in social care and philanthropy to the next level."

Police tackle issue after 'numerous complaints'

Police have been carrying out patrols outside a Billericay school in a bid to tackle problem parking. Quilters Junior School, in Laindon Road, has teamed up with the Billericay and Wickford Community Policing Team to tackle the illegal and dangerous parking which has plagued the area for more than a year. The school has previously written to parents in a plea for more sensible parking, but following "numerous complaints", police visited the school on May 19. Headteacher Michael Wade said: "Where people are parking on the kerb, it is affecting visibility for other drivers and for children and parents. "If someone is on the kerb outside the school, you haven't got line of sight down the road, so a driver would have no reaction time should a child, God forbid, step out into the road. "Occasionally, parents have bumped up the kerb onto the pavement, and other parents have reported to me near-misses where drivers have not seen children whizzing along on a scooter or even just walking on the pavement." Since their visit to the school, the police have been carrying out patrols during drop-off and pick-up times. A spokesperson for Essex Police said: "On May 19, officers from the Billericay and Wickford Community Policing Team attended Quilters School following numerous reports of illegal and dangerous parking. "These measures are put in place for your and your children's safety. Please park responsibly."

Residents given priority to purchase homes

New homes in Billericay are now complete – and local residents are being given priority to buy them. A total of 30 new homes have been built at Monarch Place by Sempra Homes, the council's house-building company. The new one- and two-bed apartments are all available on a shared-ownership basis. The development provides parking for residents and visitors, and all the homes exceed national space standards and have achieved Secured by Design Gold Standard. Councillor Jeff Henry, non-executive director of Sempra Homes, visited the development alongside Sempra and Basildon Council officers on May 31 for a tour to mark its completion. Cllr Henry said: "We are committed to providing more much-needed homes for local people. These stunning new homes make use of what was previously a derelict site, to deliver 30 one- and two-bed homes all available for shared ownership with priority to borough residents."

Super League giants West Ham to visit New Lodge

Billericay Town FC Women will welcome Super League side, West Ham United, to New Lodge in July.

return to New Lodge, having previously been assistant manager of the men's team in 2020.

Ahead of the new season, Town have already signed Sophie McClean (pictured right with team manager, Scott Chickelday), who has previously played for Spurs, London Bees and Crystal Palace.

Delighted to make the move, Sophie said: "I'm really excited for the challenge, and when the opportunity came up, I knew that I wanted to join straight away."

"As well as my experience, I hope to bring lots of energy so hopefully I can get some goals and assists."

Bank announces closure of High Street location

Another bank in Billericay is set to close after Barclays announced plans to shut its High Street branch.

It has cited a "change in the way people do their banking", with 86 per cent of customers in Billericay now using different ways to bank.

The branch, which is among several to shut across the country, will close on August 24.

It is a further blow for Billericay, after HSBC and NatWest both announced plans to close their branches in the town later this year.

A spokesperson for Barclays said: "The decision to close a branch is never an easy one. However, customers are increasingly using alternatives to branches to do their banking."

"As a result, we are seeing a sustained fall in branch visits across the UK. This is reflected at the Billericay branch; there has been a 29 per cent reduction in counter transactions in the two years to March 2020."

"In addition, 86 per cent of our customers at the branch are also using different ways to bank."

"We will work with customers and provide alternative options to ensure they can continue to manage their money and receive financial expertise."

Carers complete 26-mile charity challenge

Carers workers from Billericay completed a 26-mile walk to raise funds for the Alzheimer's Society.

A total of 39 team members, including many from Billericay care provider Hallmark Care Homes, took part in the walk on May 28, which started and finished at Larkhall Park in London.

The participants, including Hallmark's managing director Aneurin Brown (pictured back row fourth from right), took on the Trek26 walk to raise money for the dementia charity, and have raised more than £11,000.

Aneurin said: "We are absolutely delighted to have raised this tremendous amount.

"Dementia affects the people we care for every day in our roles, and it feels amazing to give back to a charity that does so much to support people both living with and caring for someone with dementia during our 25th year.

"I'm proud of my team for completing this challenge and for all of their fundraising efforts."

Nick O'Donohue, Alzheimer's Society area manager, said: "We would like to thank all the Hallmark Care Homes employees who took part in Trek26 for us.

"We are in awe of the resilience of supporters like the Hallmark Care Homes team, whose dedication to fundraising for Alzheimer's Society ensures that we are able to support those who need it most."

Gymnastics club celebrates anniversary

A gymnastics club in Billericay is celebrating its first anniversary in its new home. Celebrate Gymnastics Club, based in Barleylands Farm Park, was founded in 2020 and, thanks to investment from British Gymnastics' Club Capital scheme, it is continuing to go from strength to strength.

The funding enabled the club to open its new facility in a former 7,600 sq ft barn on June 1, 2021.

Club director Angela Gratzke said: "It was extremely important to us that we didn't lose sight of what we wanted to achieve for our gymnasts, staff and parents.

"Our approach is focused on ensuring all of the children can enjoy a positive environment where gymnastics makes them feel amazing.

"Since opening for the first time, we have been lucky enough to see so many new faces taking part in our amazing sport."

Dave Marshall, British Gymnastics participation director, said: "It is wonderful to see a club like Celebrate Gymnastics thriving following the pandemic, delivering fantastic gymnastics sessions and supporting its local community."

Football tournament raises £20,000 for charity

A seven-a-side tournament at Billericay FC has managed to raise more than £20,000 for a children's charity.

With more than 200 amateur footballers participating, the teams were made up of staff from multiple businesses across Essex. The tournament was organised by LMAC Group and DNA Insurance.

The funds will be donated to children's charity Spread a Smile, which provides entertainers for seriously ill children in hospital.

An auction was also held on the day, where such rare items as a boxing glove which belonged to Floyd Mayweather, trunks signed by Tyson Fury, luxury hotel stays and much more were on offer. The fundraiser and auction raised a total of £20,224.

"Collectively they raised an incredible amount of money for us, which will help fund our work locally and across the UK, supporting seriously ill children in hospital.

"We can't thank Lee, Danny and everyone involved enough. It's only with the help of our supporters organising events, introducing us to their peers and helping spread the word of our work that we can continue to spread smiles far and wide."

Town bank branch to change opening hours

The Billericay Santander branch will see reduced opening hours from this month.

From July 18, Santander will be making changes to its branch opening hours and providing increased telephone support for customers in response to long-term trends in customer behaviour.

This means that the High Street branch, which was previously open until 4.30pm, will be open between 9.30am and 3pm Monday to Friday.

The branch will also now close at 12.30pm on Saturdays, where before it was open until 4pm.

Richard Owen, head of branches for Santander, said: "These changes will enable us to maintain our existing branch network while providing significant additional capacity to help customers who want to talk to us by phone.

"We have seen a continuing reduction in branch usage over several years, both before and since the peak of the pandemic, with many customers preferring to transact digitally or contact us by phone. We want to make sure we have the right mix of channels to help our customers however they choose to bank with us."

Water company fined after sewage flow

A water company that allowed untreated sewage to flow into a river from a treatment works in Shenfield has been fined £300,000.

Anglian Water appeared at Chelmsford Magistrates' Court on May 26 following an investigation into the incident, which took place in June 2016.

The Environment Agency (EA) was called to Shenfield and Hutton Water Recycling Centre, a sewage treatment works, and it was found that all three pumps had failed following a fire.

As a result, untreated sewage was flowing out of an emergency overflow into the River Wid.

In the following days, investigators found 5,431 dead fish and invertebrates at many different sites along five kilometres of the river.

Further investigations found that the pumps being used by Anglian Water were almost 40 years old. The bearings on another pump had failed in 2013 and, as a result, Anglian Water sought funding to replace the bearings on the other two pumps. However, only two of the three pumps were refurbished.

Anglian Water pleaded guilty to causing an unpermitted pollution discharge.

Environment manager at the EA, Andrew Raine, said: "The fine handed to Anglian Water shows polluters are made to pay for damaging the environment. Anyone caught breaching environmental laws faces enforcement action, up to and including prosecution."

Mayor appointed for second year running

Councillor Olivia Sanders (pictured above), who represents the Hutton East ward, has been appointed as the town's mayor for the second year running.

Her appointment for 2022/23 was made at the recent annual council meeting.

Mayor Sanders is Brentwood's 29th mayor and has been the ward member for Hutton East for eight years. She was raised in Brentwood and attended Brentwood Ursuline Convent High School and Brentwood School.

During the last year, Mayor Sanders has been involved in many duties, including flag-raising events, the Remembrance Sunday parade, charity fundraising and many other engagements with local schools, churches, charity groups and voluntary organisations.

Mayor Sanders said: "It's an honour to be selected once more and I'm excited about promoting Brentwood further and taking part in the variety of exciting events planned this year.

"As our communities collectively emerge from the challenges of the pandemic, I am proud of the resilience of local people – it inspires me to see how we are moving forward in Brentwood, which is a vibrant and diverse place to live and work in.

"I'm really looking forward to working alongside partner organisations, community groups, residents and council officers in 2022 and I would like to thank everyone for their ongoing support."

Mayor Sanders has chosen four charities for her fundraising: Parkinson's UK, Cardiomyopathy UK, St Francis Hospice and the Hopefield Animal Sanctuary.

The new Deputy Mayor was announced as councillor Gareth Barrett, who is the Leader of the Labour group and represents the Brentwood South ward.

Community fund open and bigger than before

Individuals and not-for-profit organisations across Shenfield are being invited to bid for money from the Brentwood Community Fund by the end of July.

The scheme, which has run for a number of years, has been given a boost and is now offering grants of up to £5,000 for causes and projects that will improve residents' quality of life and tackle important issues.

The fund is a collaboration between Brentwood Borough Council; Axis, the repair and maintenance service for the council; and Seven Arches Investments Limited.

To apply for funding, projects must benefit Brentwood communities and be delivered in the borough.

Councillor Will Russell, chair of the council's Community, Environment and Enforcement Committee, said: "This is a great boost to the Brentwood Community Fund, which will ensure funding is more accessible to our community and can be distributed more quickly to those who need it."

Applications must be submitted by July 31.

BURGHART for BRENTWOOD

Alex Burghart MP for Brentwood and Ongar

Congratulations and thanks to all those involved in the Platinum Jubilee festivities across the borough of Brentwood over the long June bank holiday weekend, from fireworks at Ingatestone to a party for residents and businesses in Shenfield – with Crown Street in Brentwood a hotspot of celebration and entertainment for local shoppers.

The parish councils pulled out all the stops to make sure bunting and funding were available in abundance. Herongate and Ingrave Parish Council arranged a massive party over several days, and my thanks to all those involved who spent much of their bank holiday putting up tents and taking them down, and making sure everything was in place for the greatest fun to be had.

Kelvedon Hatch Parish Council oversaw floral tributes in the church, as well as a display of knitting depicting Her Majesty The Queen and her corgis.

I made my way around as many of the events as possible, and was delighted to meet so many people celebrating The Queen's service over the last 70 years. Thanks again to everyone who made it possible.

Residents enjoy a special visit

A local primary school and residents at a Shenfield care home recently enjoyed a visit from animal therapy company, Performing Pets.

Residents at Leonard Lodge, in Roxwell Gardens, were joined by pupils from St Joseph the Worker Catholic School for the chance to feed a pair of lambs.

The visit was part of a series of activities at Leonard Lodge to celebrate the Platinum Jubilee last month.

The pupils, care home residents and staff were invited to feed the lambs, while Performing Pets owner, Des, also provided a lesson on hand-raising lambs.

The residents then took part in a host of fun-filled activities and entertainment alongside family, friends and members of the local community.

Fiona Crickmore, general manager of Leonard Lodge, said: "We love working with St Joseph and we also love having Performing Pets visit with their animals, so it seemed natural to get the two together."

Julie Dube, activities coordinator, added: "The children wanted to know if it was easy to look after them, the residents want a pair to live in the gardens, and the staff were taking every opportunity to get up close with them."

AN APPLE A DAY

THE CHILD PROTECTION SYSTEMS RELEASED BY APPLE

Apple's advancements designed to protect the welfare of children using its hardware are coming into play, although the tech giant has held off activating a third iCloud-based system until next year.

In the meantime, content on devices being used by children will be screened in two ways, should parents choose to turn on the notifications function.

If activated, when an attempt is made to load a page that contains an inappropriate image, a warning note will appear, asking the user if they wish to proceed and view the photo. The note will suggest they consult a responsible adult for advice. This set up effectively eliminates the risk of children accidentally viewing content they would rather not.

A similar message will also appear if the child is apparently attempting to intentionally search for and view a topic or image that it is imagined might cause offence to minors. The system will then direct the user to expert public services for help and advice. Both systems are currently in use in the US, and they are significant innovations, because they represent the fact that rather than employing a Big Brother approach, Apple recognises that most families would rather police themselves and their own actions, given the opportunity.

A further system, originally announced in 2021 and now put on hold until 2023 at least, involves the scanning of photos uploaded to iCloud, with the aim of finding 'known' child abuse photos.

While the corporation is keen to move forward with this third innovation, it has agreed to take further advice on the feature before proceeding.

Lady THRILLER

THE LEGEND OF THE DARING LADY GODIVA

If you thought public displays of nudity were a risky manoeuvre in 2022, then consider the furore kicked up way back in 1040 when Lady Godiva went parading through the streets of Coventry wearing nothing but her birthday suit.

Not only was this plucky nude undertaking the bold move on horseback, but the subject also turned out, no less, to be the wife of the Earl of Mercia, the man responsible for putting in place an oppressive taxation policy in the city.

In fairness, Lady Godiva had given her husband fair warning of the brazen task she was about to undertake. Legend states that she made repeated pleas to the Earl, though they fell on deaf ears.

In preparation for her jaunt through the cobbled streets, Godiva did issue a proclamation that all persons should stay indoors and shut their windows.

There is said to have been just one person who disobeyed the lady's wishes, a tailor ever afterwards known as Peeping Tom, whose legend is arguably now even greater than her own.

The people of Coventry still, to this day, celebrate Lady Godiva's attempt to create a better life for residents – the Lady Godiva Clock, in the main shopping thoroughfare, displays her ride through the town, and also features Tom's voyeuristic actions from an upper window.

She is also featured in a permanent exhibition at the city's Herbert Art Gallery & Museum.

It's unclear as to whether this brave lady's efforts were successful, with different versions of the story passed down over the course of the past millennium.

What is accepted, however, is that Lady Godiva died in September 1067... fully clothed.

Calling all SHOPPING ADDICTS

In a recent study, London has been named the second best city for shopping in the world, with an overall shopping score of 8/10. The results come just days after the capital was crowned the third most popular city on the planet.

HOW DID THE STUDY SCORE EACH CITY?

The study analysed cities all around the world based on the number of shopping locations, number of fashion shops within one mile, number of shopping malls within one mile, number of boutiques within one mile, and number of designer boutiques in the city.

HOW DID LONDON FARE?

London ranked in second place due to gaining the second highest number of shopping locations (1,221) and its number of boutique stores within one mile (102). The researchers were particularly impressed by London's variety, saying: "London is one of the fashion capitals of the world, and its place as one of the world's most ideal cities for shopping is well established."

The study also revealed that London has a whopping 19 Rolex retailers.

WHO TOOK THE TOP SPOT?

Tokyo was crowned the number one shopping city in the world, with an overall shopping score of 9/10, boasting an impressive 1,970 shopping locations and 240 shopping malls and fashion shops within one mile. Paris took the third spot, with Sydney, New York and Boston also ranking strongly.

WHO CAME OUT WORST?

Vienna was named the worst city to shop in the world, with just 267 locations. Munich scored nearly as badly, with only 15 shopping malls and six boutique stores within a one-mile radius of the city centre.

BEST SHOPPING DESTINATIONS IN LONDON:

SUE BARKER CBE CALLS TIME ON WIMBLEDON AFTER THREE DECADES OF IMPECCABLE SERVICE

Sue Barker's decision to step away from presenting duties after this year's Wimbledon championships has perhaps sounded another death knell for the BBC, whose pursuit of relevance in an ever-changing media landscape continues to take away more from the organisation than it gives. As far as the 66 year old is concerned, Barker appears to have reached this endgame herself, rather than having the rug pulled from under her, as she did last year when, after 24 years of A Question of Sport, the Beeb's drive for diversity and representation saw her ousted from the show.

And of course, there is an argument to say that freshening things up is a necessity. After all, the BBC's Wimbledon coverage seems to largely feature stars of a very bygone era, the 1970s and 80s, with the likes of John McEnroe, Björn Borg, Billie Jean King and Martina Navratilova representing a generation of expert summarisers that few young tennis fans can relate to.

That said, the A Question of Sport experiment, now fronted by Paddy McGuinness, has failed as far as viewing figures go, and BBC executives will no doubt be wary of that as they begin to search for a replacement for someone who many feel is irreplaceable.

The BBC will have some faith that possible new presenter Annabel Croft, or perhaps Clare Balding CBE, or Andrew Castle, can go a long way towards filling the void, even if Barker's contribution and presence has always been huge. Not only does she convey events with brightness, humour and warmth, but she makes her guests feel reassured and comfortable too.

That mum-like demeanour feels increasingly rare in an era of television where high-octane, maximum impact entertainment is the norm, and her ability to play that out across other projects, including Sports Personality of the Year, plus athletics and Olympics coverage, sees her regarded as one of the very best of a generation.

Of course, the presenter was a brilliant tennis player herself back in the 1970s. She turned pro at the age of 17, and captured the hearts of the nation three years later when she won the French Open, defeating Renáta Tomanová in the final. On home soil, Barker reached the Wimbledon semi-finals in 1977, but was surprisingly beaten by Betty Stöve.

She retired aged 28 after a series of injuries, having claimed 15 singles and 12 doubles titles across her career, and seamlessly made her way into the media world, initially with Australia's Channel 7. After three years at BskyB, she joined the BBC in 1993.

In 2021, Barker was presented with a CBE for services to broadcasting and charity, having previously been given an MBE in the year 2000 and an OBE six years ago.

What lies in wait next for the broadcaster, who is married to landscape gardener Lance Tankard and lives in the Cotswolds, is unknown, but what is certain is the fact she will be in high demand.

BEGINNER'S GUIDE TO COOKING WITH banana leaves

We are literally going bananas for banana leaves. Beautiful to look at, fun to use and easy to cook with, once you've finished reading the below, you'll wonder why you didn't take advantage of these cheap and plentiful cooking aids before.

HOW TO PREPARE BANANA LEAVES FOR COOKING

- > Gently wash the leaves and then cut off the thick spine.
- > Pass over an open flame quickly until the leaf turns bright green and glossy. This will soften the leaves for folding. Make sure to wear heat-resistant gloves when doing this and keep any flammable items out the way.
- > Place on a chopping board and cut to the desired size.

TO STEAM FISH

A banana leaf makes a fragrant and convenient steaming packet that will ensure your preferred fish is both succulent and tasty. Wrap the leaf around any kind of firm-fleshed fish, such as halibut or snapper, and then simply add your favourite herbs and spices as well as some form of moisture, such as broth, wine or lemon juice. Secure with toothpicks. You can also use banana leaves to steam rice and meat.

TO GRILL VEGGIES

If your vegetables always stick to the grill, then a banana leaf provides the perfect solution. Just place the leaf on the grill first and then arrange your vegetables on top of it. This method will also add a mellow, smoky-sweet flavour to your vegetables. Also great for grilling prawns and other shellfish.

TO SERVE SUSTAINABLY

Banana leaves aren't just for cooking with; they also make great biodegradable serving platters, place settings and even linens for formal tables. Banana leaf boats make pretty bowls for rice, salads and desserts.

TOP TIPS

- > Although not toxic, banana leaves are hard to digest, so you should not eat them.
- > Banana leaves are porous, so if you are baking, place the leaf packets in a pan to catch leaking juices.
- > Banana leaves freeze really well. Blanch first and then wrap in greaseproof paper and place in freezer bags.

Bubble BONANZA

Bubble tea has been trending on social media for a while now, with this Insta-perfect colourful beverage being every bit as tasty as it looks.

WHAT IS BUBBLE TEA?

Bubble tea is a Taiwanese recipe that is made by blending tea with milk, fruit and fruit juices and then adding tapioca pearls. While it is now all the rage in the UK, it has been enjoyed in countries such as China since the 1980s.

WHY IS IT CALLED BUBBLE TEA?

It is the tasty tapioca pearls that sit at the bottom of bubble tea and the floating bubbles that are created by vigorous shaking that give this increasingly popular drink its name.

Bubble tea can be served hot or cold, but always in a transparent cup and with a thick straw so that the pearls can be seen and sucked up with ease.

WHAT DOES BUBBLE TEA TASTE LIKE?

There are lots of different flavours of bubble tea that you can try, and you can even get various flavours of tapioca pearls. These pearls have a chewy consistency that is somewhere between jelly and chewing gum.

HOW TO MAKE BUBBLE TEA

You will need:

Tea | Milk | Tapioca pearls | Honey or agave

How to make:

- Bring 3 cups of water to the boil and add 1 cup of tapioca pearls.
- Simmer until the pearls float to the top.
- Brew your chosen tea and allow to steep for 5 minutes.
- Chill the tea in the fridge or pour over ice to cool.
- Place the cooked pearls in a tall glass.
- Add honey or agave to sweeten if desired
- Pour your chilled tea two-thirds of the way up the glass.
- Add a splash of milk if you want a creamier drink.
- Stir and enjoy with a thick straw.

POPULAR BUBBLE TEA FLAVOURS

Taro milk tea | Matcha green tea | Mango tea | Brown sugar milk tea.

DID YOU KNOW?

- ▶ Every planet in the solar system could fit in the space between the Earth and the moon.
- ▶ On Venus, one day (one rotation) is equal to approximately 243 days on Earth, but its year (a trip around the sun) is approximately 224 days on Earth. This means one day on Venus is longer than one year.
- ▶ Lightning can occur in space. It's caused by black holes.
- ▶ As a gas giant, Saturn is less dense than water. It would be able to float on water.
- ▶ The sun rises and sets on the International Space Station around 15 times a day.
- ▶ In space, no one can hear you scream. Sound is vibration travelling through molecules in the air, but as space is a vacuum, there are no molecules to vibrate.

CRAZY COMPANIONS

PETS

FROM GIANT SPIDERS TO PYGMY HEDGEHOGS, HERE ARE SOME OF THE THE CRAZY PETS KEPT IN BRITAIN

TARANTULA

The very notion of having a pet tarantula crawling about the place as you sit down for your evening meal seems totally perplexing, yet while many of us view these incredible arachnids as dangerous, many tarantulas offer a bite that's little worse than a bee sting.

Naturally, you'd rather avoid that if possible, but that shouldn't rule out having a Chilean Rose, Mexican Redleg or Costa Rican tarantula as a pet.

SUGAR GLIDER

This possum offers affection (once it gets to know you), inquisitiveness, a tail that's as long as its body and an ability to glide through the air with almost Tarzan-like abandon.

One slight downside is it's strictly nocturnal, meaning if you really want to bond with one, you'll be staying up late.

GIANT AFRICAN LAND SNAIL

Who would have thought owning a snail implied you were living on the edge? It is indeed the case, though, given that the giant African land snail is illegal in many parts of the US for the destruction it can cause to agriculture.

We're a bit more relaxed in the UK, though it is against the law to release them into the wild; and contrary to the marketing, they're not really so 'giant' after all, coming in at around 15cm long (which is still impressive as molluscs go).

CHINCHILLA

A bit like a squirrel on steroids, the chinchilla is an adorable member of the rodent family and rarely puts a paw out of place, though does require a fair bit of maintenance.

AFRICAN PYGMY HEDGEHOG

Anyone who has spotted a hedgehog going about its nightly duties will know that – horrific waistcoat of lethal-looking spikes aside – they are one of our cutest garden visitors. The pygmy (or four-toed) hedgehog is a smaller version more suited to life as a pet, and their popularity in the UK is soaring.

BACK IN THE DRIVING SEAT

Many people have used the last couple of years to make positive life changes. Three in five people have questioned what is important in life, while half feel their priorities have changed<sup>1</sup>. Two in five credit the pandemic with encouraging them to build more long-term savings. However, one in four now feel less comfortable about coping with unforeseen events than they did before the pandemic. Likewise, one in five feel less secure about their financial future, rising to one in four among the 35 to 44 age group.

THIRTIES AND FORTIES

Although 35 to 44 year-olds are the largest cohort to face disruption to their retirement plans, they are also the most likely to feel compelled to save more as a result of the pandemic (54 per cent). While 14 per cent of the same age group fear they may have to push back their retirement date, one in 10 have been able to put extra money towards their retirement because of lockdown.

suspended or cancelled a planned life event during the pandemic. Of those affected, 16 per cent put off starting a new job, 13 per cent postponed a house purchase, 12 per cent reconsidered plans to start a new business, 10 per cent stopped trying for a baby and 10 per cent delayed a wedding.

TAKE CONTROL

With 2022 hailed the 'year of the squeeze,' with outgoings increasing due to a higher energy price cap and National Insurance contributions, and real pay stagnating because of the effects of inflation, the number of households 'just about managing' is set to grow. We can help you make informed choices about your money and build your financial confidence and resilience. # How to deal with...

The average total debt for an adult in the UK is a whopping £32,053. If you are one of the many people struggling with debt, it can feel all-consuming. Fortunately, there is light at the end of the tunnel.

Step 1: Make a list

If you have been burying your head in the sand about your debt, then now is the time to make a list of everything you owe. Although it can be scary to see this on paper, this is an essential task in becoming debt-free.

Step 2: Prioritise your debts

The next step is to put your debts in order of importance; these are known as priority debts. These may include:

- Mortgage repayments
- Rent
- Secured loans
- Utility bills
- Taxes

- Court fines

These debts need to be paid back first as they could result in you losing your home or being disconnected from a service.

Step 3: Work out a budget

A weekly or monthly budget helps you to see what your monthly income and expenses are and allows you to find out how much you can realistically pay your creditors. If you need help working out a budget, the MoneyHelper offers a free budget planner at www.moneyhelper.org.uk/en

Step 4: Communicate with your creditors

Once you know what you can afford to pay back, you should contact your priority creditors to talk them through your situation. Make sure you are realistic about what you can afford to pay and don't assume you will be able to pay more in the future.

Step 5: Get independent advice

You can get free advice on dealing with debt from charities such as Step Change. Visit their website at www.stepchange.org to find out more.

HIRE CAR high-fives

CLEVER TRICKS TO CONSIDER WHEN HIRING A CAR

Being taken for a ride when hiring a car is probably one irony too many, but it's possible to steer clear of hire car horror and save some additional money by following a few clever tricks.

INSURANCE INSANITY: Car hire companies profit from every level of insurance they sell, and as with most policies, you'll not need it 99.9 per cent of the time. Beware convoluted offerings, including a super collision damage waiver which, despite the name, still won't save you having to pay your excess. Others can take the excess down to zero but will cost you more than arranging private insurance. Alternatively, see what's covered on your credit card benefits.

THE POWER OF THE HOUR: Beware returning your hire car after hours – bringing it back late may well cost you an extra day's hire. Alternatively, think about the free trick on car hire when it comes to having a car on a day when the rental centre isn't open. You'll find the cost for hiring Friday to Sunday is the same as Friday to Monday – in other words, you're getting a free day.

THE FUEL RULE: It always pays to return the car with the same fuel level in the tank. Returning it having not refilled will incur additional fees.

BOOK IN ADVANCE: As is usually the case, booking in advance will save you money. And in the COVID-19 era, many rental centres are insisting on pre-uploading your driver's licence and other ID documents, meaning you can save time on collection.

THE AIRPORT AGGRO: As we get back into the mindset of holidaying abroad, try to avoid airport rentals. They are notorious for expensive add-ons at a time when people are in a tense state of mind. The better solution is to get a taxi to a nearby town to pick up a prearranged rental.

SHADE seekers

Is your garden more shady than sunny? While it can be a struggle to create a blooming outdoor space with limited sunlight, it can be done. Discover below five pretty plants that thrive in the shade.

STINKING IRIS: Although this may not be the most pleasant-sounding plant, stinking iris can actually make a very beautiful addition to a shady garden, especially in autumn, when its large seedpods split open to reveal orange-red seeds. Plant in full shade for best results.

WOOD SPURGE: There are many different varieties of spurge, but our favourite has to be Euphorbia amygdaloides var. robbiae. From late spring, this pretty plant bears lime-green flowers above dark green leaves. Plant in dry, shady spots such as underneath trees or along woodland borders.

SNOWDROPS: Snowdrops appear at the end of winter and bloom beautifully for weeks until your spring bulbs start to flourish. Delicate and dainty, snowdrops thrive in full shade and particularly in heavy, moist soils.

BELLFLOWER: If you are looking for a plant that will attract bees and other pollinators to your garden, then bellflower is a great choice. Ideal for growing at the back of a border, this attractive plant displays clusters of purple-blue bell-shaped flowers from summer through until autumn.

FOXGLOVE: As a woodland plant, foxgloves thrive in dappled or partial shade, so they do require a little bit of sun. There are many different varieties to choose from, with colours including bright pink, purple and peach.

OUR TOP TIPS FOR GROWING IN THE SHADE:

- > Improve the soil with lots of organic matter before planting
- > When planting under trees, remove any dry, impoverished soil between the large roots
- > Apply weathered wood ash from a bonfire or log burner to increase the potash in the soil
- > Mulch the whole area after planting with garden compost or composted bark chippings.

TOM MASSEY

HORTICULTURAL HERO

THE CONTEMPORARY GARDENER WHOSE PATH IS WELL DEFINED

In a post-COVID era where we appreciate the benefit of outside space in ways we have probably never done before, the appeal of young, energetic, stylish gardeners has never been so great. With that in mind, it's easy to see why Tom Massey has found himself riding a wave of popularity.

The London College of Garden Design graduate is best known as presenter of Your Garden Made Perfect, a show that uses virtual reality and the ideas of rival garden gurus to shape horticultural solutions for frustrated homeowners.

The success of the show has led Massey into fronting a variety of other projects, from hosting parts of the Royal Horticultural Show to being asked to design and install a moveable orchard near the Olympic Park. He also works privately for a number of clients.

"I think people are really starting to appreciate the flexibility of their gardens in a way they have never done before," he says. "There is so much technology that we can bring into our outside spaces, from lighting to entertainment systems to eco-friendly heating solutions, meaning longer nights outdoors rather than always having to migrate inside.

"Gardens have always been peaceful, restorative places, but making them social spaces too is a new trend that is great to see."

When designing gardens for private clients, Massey likes to combine lawned areas with statement architecture, often guiding the eye through the space, as if going on a journey. From wildflowers to wrought iron, his contemporary ideas are striking a chord with a new generation of homeowner.

He explains: "In the past, gardens had to be soft, flowing, purely natural spaces. While that's great for nature, it's not so practical for people.

"In my opinion, we should give ourselves the freedom to live in our gardens, using materials and ideas that are attractive and offer us the opportunity to relax."

To bee OR NOT TO BEE

THAT IS THE QUESTION – AS IN, ‘WHAT’S ACTUALLY THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A BUMBLEBEE AND A HONEYBEE?’

When it comes to buzzing beauties in our gardens, most of us would be none the wiser as to exactly what we’re looking at – we’ll simply exercise caution to prevent getting too close to them.

The truth, though, is that bumblebees and honeybees look and live very differently.

APPEARANCE

Bumblebees are bigger, have a puffier, more decorated exterior and subsequently buzz at a slower rate and lower frequency.

Honeybees are more streamlined and can often be mistaken for wasps.

NESTS

Honeybees will nest whenever they can find a decent space. A tree, a cave, a roof space, even under your car bonnet – they’re happy as long as they believe it’s a safe and secure space.

Bumblebees will create homes underground.

They have less of a need to build high as they’re not protecting a mass of honey, so will typically use abandoned burrows or holes underground.

JOB

Honeybees, as the name suggests, produce honey. Bumblebees, on the other hand, are responsible for transferring nectar from flowers.

STING

We all know the peril of a bee sting, though it’s only a honeybee sting that’s terminal... for the bee. Bumblebees have the ability to sting many times – you’ve been warned.

HIBERNATION

While bumblebees will see out the cold of winter in a safe, warm space, honeybees do not hibernate and will keep going throughout the cold months. They will rely on pre-stored food to last them through to the spring.

WHY IT'S IMPORTANT TO UNDERSTAND OUR KIDS' PERCEPTION OF MONEY

There's no parent who hasn't encountered the incessant pleading or hopeful yearning of a child who, while being commended for his or her persistence, has desperately failed to appreciate the value of something we all need perspective on – money.

While in the past the subject of finances was one largely kept clear of kids, experts now believe it's of real value to educate our youngsters as far as the daily cut and thrust of cash goes.

To do so, it is key to understand what our kids perceive as the value of money. It follows, then, that we can better manage expectations if we pinpoint their perspective. For instance, children under the age of seven will understand the concept of money and its function, but only later do they gather the sense of exchange, the idea of borrowing and the fact it comes in various forms.

Past the age of 10, kids glean how work interacts with money and the fact it can be preserved with good habits (or lost easily with bad ones). With that in mind, having a jar where kids can save money, see it accumulate and then spend it on a reward is one of the best introductions.

Parents or guardians should also use a scheme of rewarding tasks (or commissions) rather than the typical pocket money format where, effectively, a child is rewarded no matter what they do.

The importance of giving should also be emphasised, as well as opportunity cost – "If you buy this, you won't be able to buy that."

Early money management offers great practice for later life where, as we will all testify, temptations become much greater.

NATURAL SUNBURN REMEDIES

HEALTH & FITNESS

According to a poll by the British Association of Dermatologists, 35 per cent of Brits have been sunburnt in the last year. Although we all know the dangerous effects of the sun's powerful UV rays, we can all be guilty of being a bit lax when it comes to applying sunscreen, so here's what to do if you start feeling the burn.

BAKING SODA AND OATMEAL

If your skin is feeling sore after too long in the sun, an oatmeal and baking soda bath is just what you need. Adding a few tablespoons of baking soda to a cool bath can help to minimise sun damage, and adding a cup of oats can soothe any irritation and help the skin to retain moisture.

COCONUT OIL

Once your initial sunburn has calmed down, coconut oil can be applied to the skin to moisturise and hydrate it. Coconut oil is also good for dry or peeling skin, as it helps to lock in moisture and keep the skin soft.

ALOE VERA

One of the most common ingredients in after-sun products, aloe vera is known for its cooling and soothing properties. If you have your own aloe vera plant, simply break off a chunk of the plant and apply the gel directly to the affected area. Alternatively, pick up some aloe vera gel at your nearest pharmacy or supermarket.

CHAMOMILE TEA

Did you know chamomile tea can soothe not only your mind but also your skin? To use chamomile as a sunburn remedy, brew a cup of tea as you usually would and then allow to fully cool. Soak a clean cloth in the tea and apply to the skin. Do not use this treatment if you are allergic to pollen.

WHAT NOT TO PUT ON SUNBURNT SKIN:

Petroleum jelly (Vaseline) | Ice or ice packs | Fragranced moisturisers.

Talking therapies are becoming increasingly popular in the UK as people seek out alternatives to mental health medication. There are several different types of talking therapies available, most of which are covered by the NHS.

Who can benefit from talking therapies? While anyone who feels like they need someone to speak to can benefit from talking therapies, some specific issues that can be dealt with are: Mental health problems | Low self-esteem | Traumatic past events | Bereavement | Redundancy | Relationship problems.

What are the different types of talking therapies?
Cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT) CBT involves looking at how your thoughts and beliefs affect your feelings and behaviours. This type of therapy tends to be short term, between six and 12 sessions, and often involves tasks or practising the skills you have learnt.
Good for: Depression | Anxiety | Obsessive compulsive disorder | Eating disorders | Post-traumatic stress | Schizophrenia

Dialectical behavioural therapy (DBT) DBT is an adapted form of CBT that is designed to help people who experience intense emotions by helping you to cope with stress.

Good for: Borderline personality disorder | Addiction | Depression | Self-harm/suicidal thoughts | Eating disorders

Psychodynamic therapy Psychodynamic therapy explores how your childhood and unconscious mind influence your current feelings and behaviours. This therapy involves talking freely about what is on your mind and understanding your past relationships.
Good for: Depression | Anxiety | Post-traumatic stress | Eating disorders | Long-term physical health problems | Addictions

Humanistic therapy Humanistic therapy involves exploring your entire self rather than just a specific problem. It is designed to help people grow and become their true self.
Good for: Obsessive compulsive disorder | Post-traumatic stress | Personality disorders | Anxiety | depression

How to find a therapist Your GP or another health professional may be able to refer you to a qualified therapist or you can self-refer if you live in England. It is worth noting that there are often long waiting lists for NHS therapists.

STINKY F<sup>OOT</sup>IT!

Do you struggle with sweaty and smelly feet in the summer? Most commonly caused by bacteria and moisture, stinky feet can make you feel self-conscious and uncomfortable.

Discover the best natural remedies for stinky, sweaty feet below.

SALT FOOT SOAK: Epsom salts are antibacterial, which means they can stop the growth of bacteria on your feet. They are also great at banishing bad odours. To use, simply prepare a foot bath of warm water and then add ½ cup of Epsom salts. Soak your feet for 15-20 minutes and then rub dry.

VINEGAR FOOT SOAK: Both apple cider vinegar and white vinegar can be used to disinfect the feet and kill any bacteria which could be responsible for bad smells. Fill a bowl or tub with two parts warm water and one part vinegar and then soak your feet for 15-20 minutes. Do not use this remedy if you have any cuts or sores on your feet.

BLACK TEA FOOT BATH: If you suffer with very sweaty feet, then soaking your feet in black tea can help to dry them out. The tannic acids in black tea will also kill any odour-causing bacteria. To make a black tea foot bath, boil two teabags in a pint of water for 15 minutes. Remove the bag and then dilute the tea with eight cups of water. Allow to cool and then soak your feet for 15-20 minutes.

LAVENDER OIL FOOT RUB: Lavender oil has the ability to kill bacteria, and it smells lovely, making it the perfect remedy for smelly and sweaty feet. Simply rub a few drops onto your feet before bed and gently massage into the skin. Cover your feet with socks for best results.

ZINC SUPPLEMENT: Zinc has shown promising signs of eliminating foot odour and can be taken as a daily supplement. Alternatively, you can eat foods that are high in zinc, including seafood, beef, spinach and strawberries.

Strawberry LEGS: SYMPTOMS, CAUSES AND TREATMENTS

While this may be one of the more cute-sounding skin conditions, strawberry legs can be more than a little annoying, especially when you are getting ready to bare your pins for summer.

WHAT ARE THE SYMPTOMS OF STRAWBERRY LEGS?

- ◆ A dotted or pitted appearance on the skin of your legs
- ◆ The darkening of open pores on your legs
- ◆ The appearance of brown or black spots after shaving

WHAT CAUSES STRAWBERRY LEGS?

- ◆ Shaving: If you shave with an old or dull razor or you fail to use shaving cream, this can sometimes result in ingrown hairs which can lead to strawberry legs. Razor burn can also cause this condition.
- ◆ Clogged pores: The skin on your legs contains thousands of pores and these can become clogged with bacteria, dead skin and other debris. Known as open comedones, when the oil inside the pores is exposed to air, it oxidises and turns black.
- ◆ Folliculitis: Caused by shaving, waxing or other hair removal techniques, folliculitis occurs when a hair follicle becomes inflamed. This leaves the follicle open and more at risk of exposure to bacteria.
- ◆ Very dry skin: Although dry skin does not directly cause strawberry legs, it can make you more susceptible to irritation after shaving, which can cause razor burn or folliculitis.

HOW TO TREAT STRAWBERRY LEGS

Depending on the cause and the severity, you can choose to treat strawberry legs at home or you can seek professional help.

Home remedies: Shave in the direction of hair growth with a moisturising shaving cream | Use an epilator to avoid traumatising the skin | Moisturise the skin on your legs daily | Dry brush the skin daily | Use a body wash that contains salicylic or glycolic acid

Professional treatments: Electrolysis | Laser therapy.

Are you suffering from painful nails?

Ingrowing nails, thickened nails and damaged nails can stop you from doing the things you love but can also affect your day to day lives and limit what you can wear. You do not need to suffer the pain in silence!

We are a Podiatry clinic and we are experts in treating nail issues especially painful ones. In many cases they are very sensitive as toes have a very high concentration of nerve endings. We can make the treatment painless by providing a local anaesthetic. Treatment will therefore be more effective and lasting. You also have the option of resolving the issue with a surgical procedure which will ensure a permanent solution and will leave you pain free.

We will be there from the surgery through to healing to ensure you have the best possible result and are pain free.

HOW TO REMOVE SUN CREAM FROM CLOTHES

Sun cream is a summer essential, helping to protect your skin from the harmful rays. However, do you know how to protect your clothes from sun cream stains? Find out how below.

other similar items and add your usual laundry detergent to the drum.

STEP 1: REMOVE ANY EXCESS CREAM

Start by scraping off any excess sun cream from the item of clothing. This can be done with a dry cloth or your fingers if you do not have anything else to hand.

STEP 5: WASH YOUR GARMENT

Wash your items on the usual cycle but use the hottest wash temperature indicated by the instructions on the garment's fabric care label.

STEP 2: RINSE UNDER WARM WATER

Rinse the garment under warm water to remove further residue from the stain. Do this for between 10 and 15 seconds.

STEP 6: DRY YOUR GARMENT

Remove the garment from the washing machine and allow to air dry outside for optimal results.

STEP 3: POUR WASHING LIQUID DIRECTLY ONTO THE STAIN

Look for a washing liquid that specifically offers stain removal aimed at these types of stains, such as Persil Small and Mighty Bio, which is designed to tackle grease and oil stains.

TOP TIPS FOR GETTING SUN CREAM STAINS OUT OF WHITE CLOTHING:

- > After washing, hang your item out to dry in the sun, which can naturally bleach your clothing and banish sun cream stains.
- > For stubborn stains, squirt a little lemon juice onto the affected area before drying on the washing line.
- > Apply a chemical bleaching agent that is diluted with water to the stain. Always make sure you do this in a well-ventilated area and ensure pets and children are kept out of the way.

STEP 4: LOAD INTO YOUR MACHINE

Place your garment in your washing machine with

SPORT

BRITAIN'S GREATEST SPORTING MOMENTS...

Andy Murray WINS WIMBLEDON

Each month, we look at one of the most significant events in British sporting history. This month, we go back to the day when Andy Murray fulfilled a life's ambition at Centre Court.

In the modern era, men's British tennis failed to live up to expectations for a long time. Players such as Tim Henman and Greg Rusedski teased and toiled, but in all honesty were some way short of mounting real and repeated Grand Slam challenges.

When Andy Murray turned pro in 2005, immediately there was something different about this sparky, confident, sometimes arrogant Scot. Buoyed on by a fiercely supportive mum and partner, he had an all-round game that, on the right day, and on the right surface, could challenge anyone.

That day came on July 7, 2013, as the then 26 year old strode out onto Centre Court in the Wimbledon men's final. Only Novak Djokovic stood between Murray arresting a 77-year wait for a men's British champion, and the opening exchanges proved the ride wasn't going to be easy.

Even so, Murray broke his opponent to take the first set 6-4, then recovered from 4-1 down to win the second 7-5. Victory was soon one game away, and as BBC commentator Jonathan Overend said, the arena represented "a cacophony of support, elation and fear. That noise, in those 90 seconds, will never, ever be heard again. So loud, so impassioned, it was like Murray was about to play the final game of his life."

Murray held his serve, and his nerve, to take the final set 6-4. Victory was his.

Of course, Murray repeated his feat three years later, and in a rich spell of success – which saw him rise to the top of the world men's rankings – also took the US Open title and made it to six further Grand Slam finals.

Just JAKE

JAKE DANIELS BECOMES THE UK'S FIRST OPENLY GAY FOOTBALLER IN THREE DECADES

They say young footballers go about their craft with a sense of fearlessness, and that's certainly the case where Blackpool forward Jake Daniels is concerned.

The 17-year-old, who signed pro terms with the Championship club in 2022, is yet to make a league appearance for the Seaside, though he has singlehandedly cultivated more column inches than any of his vastly more experienced teammates by coming out as the English Football League's only gay footballer.

For many years, conjecture over the possible treatment of gay footballers – in an environment where terrace banter very often crosses the line between acceptable and not – has clearly led to a huge number of gay footballers afraid to fly their true colours.

That's what makes Jake's revelation all the more brave – namely that someone right at the start of his football career has the confidence and honesty to nail his LGBT colours to the mast and declare, as would Gloria Gaynor, "I am what I am".

He said: "I can't really put a date on it, but I was probably five or six years old when I knew I was gay, so it's been a long time that I have been living with the lie.

"Now is the right time to speak. I feel like I am ready to tell people my story. I want people to know the real me.

"I have been thinking for a long time about how I want to do it, when I want to do it. I know now is the time. I am ready to be myself, be free and be confident with it all."

The UK's first openly gay footballer since Justin Fashanu way back in 1990, Jake is correct in his assertion that attitudes and values have changed. And while the late Fashanu was derided for his honesty and bravery, the fact Jake Daniels has been roundly praised shows just how far society has come since then.

FUELLING THE DIVIDE

A HISTORY OF PETROL AND DIESEL PRICES OVER THE YEARS, AND WHERE THEY MAY GO FROM HERE

The devastation caused by the conflict in Ukraine has affected no one more than those immediately impacted by the war; and while it feels churlish perhaps to complain about the price of fuel at the pumps, it's not unreasonable to highlight the extraordinary increase in the price of filling up, and the very real impact it's having on home shores.

The current cost-of-living crisis is about much more than fuel, but the extent to which we rely on the ability to transport both ourselves and our goods around the UK means that even small fluctuations in petrol and diesel can have an onward effect across all retail and service sectors.

It's not just the war either – there is a multitude of other global factors contributing to an increase in logistics and refining costs.

Going forward, the threat of a full EU ban on Russian energy imports could see the cost of fuel climb even higher above the record prices we've seen – around £1.83/litre for petrol and £1.88/litre for diesel.

Even as recently as 2017, filling up at the pump was more than 30 per cent cheaper, and back in 2005, the amount we spend today would have got us twice as far down the road.
