Editor's notes...

JUNE 2023

Brett Shohet, Editor

Hello and welcome to this month's edition of VISION Bishop's Stortford. Last month, we celebrated an occasion most of us will never have experienced before - the coronation of a monarch. I visited London the week before King Charles III's coronation and the atmosphere was electric.

During my visit, I went to Carnaby Street, where my dad used to own a shop. I stood in the same shop doorway I would have stood in at age seven, and took in all the changes that have taken place in the intervening years.

While it can feel as though we live in a world of constant change, the coronation reminded us that we are all united in a country steeped in long-standing tradition and history.

I recently had an interesting conversation about DFS. It's become a running joke that the furniture retailer always has a sale on. For most of us, the adverts have become background noise, so frequently do we hear about the DFS sale. But when people are ready to buy a sofa, guess who they think of first? All this is to say how important it is to put your name out there and ensure as many people as possible are aware of your brand. This way, when the customer is ready, they'll know how to find you.

If you are interested to see how we can do this for your business locally, then please get in touch.

King Charles' Vision

They claim that patience is rewarded with the finest treasures, and His Majesty King Charles III's lengthy 70-year wait as the heir apparent undoubtedly demonstrates his worthiness for the throne.

Now, after being confirmed in the eyes of God during his coronation in May, His Majesty will finally implement his grand vision, aiming to propel the Windsors into the modern era.

So, what will this mean for the King, those closest to him, and us, his loyal subjects?

A key principle of King Charles III's plan is to streamline the royal family. In recent years, this process has unfolded somewhat naturally, with Prince Harry voluntarily stepping back from his official duties and Prince Andrew being removed from his responsibilities.

However, under the provisions of the Regency Act 1937, in the event of the monarch's incapacity, their spouse and the four eligible adults next in line to the throne can act as substitutes. This means that the Duke of Sussex, Duke of York and Princess Beatrice are authorised to fulfil these roles – yet there is a problem, in that they are not working royals.

King Charles III has already amended this law in Parliament to allow his siblings Prince Edward and the Princess Royal Anne to act as additional councillors, but perhaps he will go further and make it so that such duties and privileges are only fulfilled by working royals.

Having experienced numerous turbulent periods in the monarchy's history, King Charles III possesses a keen awareness of the Republican sentiment prevailing among certain sections of the British population. While the late Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II enjoyed immense popularity, there are those who firmly believe that the time has come to dissolve the monarchy and forge ahead into a fully modern and democratic Britain. However, when we consider the substantial contributions of the monarchy to our economy and the profound cultural value of our traditions and illustrious history, it becomes evident that the potential losses outweigh the gains.

According to Forbes, the House of Windsor is estimated to hold a value of £19billion. Moreover, although the annual cost of royal upkeep for UK taxpayers amounts to approximately £500million, Brand Finance estimates that the monarchy's brand contributes £2.5billion to the British economy over the same period.

In essence, His Majesty understands his significance, but he also recognises the importance of connecting more deeply with the everyday people in his kingdom. Addressing challenges such as the recent cost-of-living crisis, and its prevalence in people's minds over the King's own passions, such as the environment, are essential for him to ensure a peaceful reign.

An additional challenge that His Majesty may encounter is the requirement to refrain from taking a stance on partisan matters, including the pressing issue of climate change. He has long been an advocate for a greener planet, having converted his cherished Aston Martin DB6 so that it can run on cheese waste and surplus wine, adopted biomass boilers for heating Birkhall estate, and installed solar panels at Clarence House. Laura Tobin recently stated on Good Morning Britain that changes have also been implemented at Buckingham Palace, where the lights have been turned off at night as an energy-saving measure.

As a man who has skirted both sides of the popularity divide over the decades, the opportunity to cement himself as an exemplar for a modern royal family is surely one he won't pass up.

A FINAL FAREWELL TO

SOCCER AM

SOCCER AM'S SATURDAY FUN IS OVER, BUT THE LEGACY REMAINS

While the popularity of football is seemingly unending, not all survive the sport's continued evolution, with Soccer AM becoming the latest entity to be consigned to glorious retirement.

For a long while, the Saturday morning Sky show was a ground-breaking, perfectly unrefined piece of footballing irreverence. It set up the weekend's action with a laddish, lager-tinged layabout appeal that original presenters Tim Lovejoy and Helen Chamberlain lapped up.

A show that bolstered the careers of the likes of Andy Goldstein, Max Rushden, John Fendley, Tubes, Rocket and countless 'Soccerettes', its comedic approach saw many of its features permeate modern culture. From 'tekkers' to the Crossbar Challenge, Taxi! to the Save Chip campaign, not to mention the 'easy' chant and associated arm action, and getting the word 'bouncebackability' entered into the Oxford English Dictionary, Soccer AM finished up just a year shy of the 30-year mark, with the final show broadcast on May 27, 2023.

The death knell had sounded loudly in the past, though glorious reinvention saved Soccer AM from its demise. Yet with ratings continuing to fall, the final whistle has now been blown.

Despite a stellar cast of guests over the years, including Noel Gallagher, Tyson Fury, James Dean Bradfield, Richard E. Grant and Gordon Ramsay OBE, critics have, in the past, pointed to the show's politically incorrect content. Former producer Rocket recently said: "I don't know if that show can exist now because if there's a reason to complain about something, generally someone will."

While the show was always destined to ride the thin line between entertainment and controversy, its cessation became as much to do with the fact that even the biggest and best become tired and staid.

Regardless, Soccer AM ran a course longer than a generation of footballers, and for that reason, it will be remembered as one of the sport's greatest cultural success stories.

flower POWER

Spotted at Dior, Dries Van Noten, Prada and Lela Rose, florals have dominated the catwalk and are set to be everywhere this summer. Perfect for anyone who loves stand-out fashion, this is one trend that promises to lift your mood and make you smile.

HOW TO WEAR FLORALS THIS SUMMER

Wear with a plain solid colour

Mixing floral prints is very hard to do, so if you are new to wearing florals, it can be a good idea to wear your chosen print with a plain solid colour, preferably in a complementary or matching tone.

Add an edgy twist

If you find florals a bit too girly, then you might want to toughen up your look with something edgy such as a leather jacket or a pair of biker boots. Alternatively, you could add a masculine element with a tailored jacket or boyfriend jeans.

Experiment with accessories

For those who don't want to go full on with the floral trend, why not invest in a few floral accessories, such as a floral handbag, jewellery, scarf or hat?

Rock a floral shirt

A floral shirt is the way to go for style as appropriate for the office as it is for time with friends. Team with a pair of smart jeans for a casual day look, or wear a floral t-shirt with a tailored suit for a more playful take on your standard office attire. Or to test the water, why not invest in a floral tie?

HOW TO PICK THE RIGHT FLORALS FOR YOUR BODY SHAPE

- * If you have a fuller figure, avoid oversized prints as these can make you appear wider than you actually are
- * If you have a slim build, then a medium floral print works best
- * Smaller prints work for most body shapes, including pear-shaped and hourglass
- * Use a large floral print on any areas of your body that you want to make look larger
- * Use a small floral print on any areas of your body that you want to make look smaller
- * Play with different proportions to see what works best for you.

Goodbye GREASE

If you struggle with greasy hair, then these hairstyles are just what you need to skip a hair wash and still look and feel great.

BABY BRAIDS: If the front of your hair is prone to oil, then baby braids offer the perfect way to conceal this. Start by working a little bit of dry shampoo through your hair and then section out the front strands. Braid them as tightly or loosely as you like and secure with a clear hair band.

A SNATCHED PONY: Delivering a super sleek look, a snagged pony is bang on trend and perfect for days when you don't have time to wash your hair. Separate your hair into two sections (top and bottom half) and apply a smoothing serum. Then brush from roots to ends, making sure that the front is smooth and tight. Join the sections at the crown and secure with a hair band.

WET-LOOK WAVES: Rather than try to hide the natural oils in your hair, embrace them with wet-look waves. To start, dampen your hair and add a liberal amount of heat protectant spray. Then gently blow dry your hair and add waves using a curling iron. Apply hair oil to complete the look.

A ZIGZAG PARTING: Add a playful touch to a low ponytail with a zigzag parting. Perfect for distracting from greasy roots, you need to invest in a tail comb to get a zigzag parting right. Start at the centre of your parting and then use the comb to form a zigzag along the parting line. For best results, keep all the zigzags within the same one-inch margin.

A SILK SCARF: If your curls are looking a little oily, then pile them high on your head and add a silky scarf for added visual interest and to conceal grease at the roots.

Stroll YOURSELF SLIM

HEALTH & FITNESS

Finding the time, not to mention the inclination, to exercise after having a baby can be hard. However, what if you could combine taking your baby for a walk with getting fit? Welcome to the world of stroller fitness.

WHAT IS STROLLER FITNESS?

As the name suggests, stroller fitness is a workout where you use your baby's buggy or stroller to get fit. Perfect for parents of all fitness abilities, a stroller workout can be as intense or as gentle as you make it. Plus, no babysitter is needed, as your baby will be with you every step of the way.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF STROLLER FITNESS?

One of the best things about stroller fitness is that it allows you to get back into exercise without having to leave your baby. Depending on the exercises that you choose to carry out, stroller fitness can provide a full body workout, or it can be used to target specific muscle groups or problem areas.

FOUR STROLLER EXERCISES TO GET YOU STARTED

Walking lunges: If you want to tone and strengthen your lower body, then walking lunges are a great choice. Take long strides as you push your buggy and lower your body until your front thigh is almost parallel to the ground. Continue for one minute, rest for 30 seconds, and repeat.

Jump squats: These burn more calories than standard squats. Use your buggy for balance, engage your core, push up through your heels as you jump up, focusing on soft knees as you land. Continue for 30 seconds, rest for 30 seconds, and repeat.

Pram chest press: Work your chest, arms and core with the pram chest press. Push through your shoulders, tensing your core as you push your buggy away from you and then pull it back towards you. Do 15 reps, rest, and do a further 15.

Pram chest press with lunge: To increase the intensity of your workout and up your heart rate even more, alternate walking lunges with the pram chest press. This exercise will work your whole body. Continue for 30 seconds, rest for 30 seconds, and repeat.

Enchanting ELDERFLOWER

Elder trees are very common in the UK and, come late May, start to develop masses of tiny white flowers which eventually turn into purple elderberries. The elderflower is known for its light and floral taste and makes a great addition to cordials, cakes and more.

ELDERFLOWER CORDIAL

YOU WILL NEED: 2 ½kg granulated or caster sugar | The zest of 2 unwaxed lemons | 20 fresh elderflower heads | 85g citric acid – you can buy this online or at your local pharmacist

HOW TO MAKE:

- > Gently heat the sugar and 2 ¾ pints of water in a pan until the sugar has dissolved.
- > Bring to the boil and turn off the heat.
- > Add the elderflower heads, the lemon zest and the citric acid to the pan and stir well.
- > Cover the pan and leave to infuse for 24 hours.
- > Line a colander with a clean tea towel and set it over a large pan.
- > Ladle in the syrup and let it slowly drip through.
- > Pour the leftover liquid into a sterilised jar. You can sterilise a glass jar either on a hot rinse cycle in the dishwasher or in the oven for 15 minutes at 160°C/140°C fan/gas mark 3.

> The cordial is ready to drink and can be kept in the fridge for up to six weeks.

ELDERFLOWER DRIZZLE CAKE

YOU WILL NEED: 175g softened butter | 175g golden caster sugar | 3 eggs | 140g self-raising flour | 85g ground almonds | ½ tsp baking powder | 100ml milk | 4 tbsps elderflower cordial | 4 tbsps white or golden granulated sugar

- > Grease and line a 900g cake tin.
- > Beat the butter and 175g sugar until light and fluffy.
- > Add the eggs, flour, almonds, baking powder and milk, then whisk until smooth.
- > Pour into the tin and bake for 45-50 minutes until risen and golden.
- > Prick the cake all over with a skewer.
- > Mix the cordial and extra sugar and pour all over the cake.
- > Leave to cool in the tin and drizzle with icing if you wish.

King Charles' CORONATION QUICHE

With the coronation still fresh in everyone's minds, why not have a go at making your very own King Charles coronation quiche? This dish was chosen to celebrate British seasonal produce – and also because the King loves eggs and cheese.

YOU WILL NEED: (serves 6)

FOR THE PASTRY: 125g plain flour | 25g cold butter, diced | 25g lard | 2 tbsp milk | Pinch of salt. Or 250g block of readymade shortcrust pastry

FOR THE FILLING: 125ml milk | 175ml double cream | 2 medium eggs | 1 tbsp chopped fresh tarragon | 100g cheese | 180g cooked spinach, lightly chopped | 60g cooked broad beans | Salt and pepper | Pine nuts for garnish, if desired | You will also need a 20cm flat tin and baking beans

HOW TO MAKE:

1. To make the pastry, sieve the flour and salt into a bowl. Add the butter and lard and rub the mixture together using your fingertips until you have a breadcrumb-like texture.
2. Add the milk a little at a time and bring the ingredients together to form a dough.

3. Cover and leave to rest in the fridge for 30-45 minutes.
4. Lightly flour your work surface and roll out the dough into a circle approximately 5mm thick.
5. Lightly grease the tin with butter and line with the pastry, being careful not to make any holes. Cover and rest for a further 30 minutes in the fridge.
6. Preheat your oven to 190°C/170°C fan/gas mark 5.
7. Line the pastry case with greaseproof paper, add baking beans and bake for 15 minutes.
8. Take the case out of the oven, remove the paper and beans, and leave the pastry case to one side.
9. Reduce the oven temperature to 160°C/140°C fan/gas mark 3.
10. To make the filling, beat together the milk, cream and eggs.
11. Scatter half of the cheese into the blind-baked base and then top with spinach, broad beans, tarragon and seasoning.
12. Season and pour over your liquid mixture of milk, eggs and cream.
13. Sprinkle over the remaining cheese.
14. Place in the oven and bake for 20-25 minutes until set and lightly golden.
15. Garnish with pine nuts if desired.

BEACH SAFETY TIPS FOR DOGS

Most dogs love the beach. They can run around, play in the sand and cool their paws in the sea. However, if you are planning to take your four-legged friend to the seaside this summer, you need to make sure you know how to keep them safe.

sun cream that is specially formulated for pets. This is especially important for dogs with light skin and short fur.

CHECK LOCAL RULES

There are lots of dog-friendly beaches all over the UK, so be sure to check the local rules of your chosen spot before you head out to avoid disappointment. You can find this information at www.thebeachguide.co.uk/dog-friendly

BE VIGILANT OF DANGEROUS ITEMS

Dangerous items such as broken glass and rocks can easily become buried in the sand and, if trodden on, can injure your dog's paws.

TEACH YOUR DOG TO SWIM

Most dogs are not natural-born swimmers, so it can be a good idea to teach them how to swim before you take them to the beach. There are many guides online on how to teach your dog to swim, such as this one: www.purina.co.uk/articles/dogs/behaviour/training/teach-dog-to-swim

RINSE YOUR DOG

Once you have finished your day at the beach, be sure to rinse off your dog's coat to remove any sand, salt and germs before you head home.

PROVIDE FRESH WATER AND SHADE

If you are planning to spend a long time at the beach with your dog, then you will need to provide fresh water and shade to prevent overheating and dehydration. Also, watch your dog to ensure they don't drink too much seawater.

APPLY SUN CREAM FOR DOGS

Dogs can get sunburn in the same way that you can, so you need to make sure you apply

LOVING THE ECHLIN LOOK AND LOOKING FOR INSPIRATION?

Recreate this incredible design style in your home using the following tips:

- Keep spaces LIGHT to make them feel open and airy. Choose lighter neutral shades for walls and floors, like creams and greys, and add darker contrasts through furniture and accessories.
Look for UNIQUE items that will stand out as a focal point for the space. A statement headboard or large piece of art can draw the eye, without taking away from the rest of the room.
Add a refreshing touch with pops of COLOUR using cushions, curtains and occasional chairs.
Keep your interior UNCLUTTERED and make the most of available storage for a clean space that will promote serenity.

DIRTIEST

CORNERS OF THE KITCHEN

Although the kitchen may be the heart of the home, that doesn't mean it doesn't harbour a whole host of hidden germs and bacteria. Discover the dirtiest areas of your kitchen below.

KNOB AND HANDLES

Every appliance in your kitchen has some sort of handle or control panel that is often touched with dirty hands or after handling raw food, which can leave bacteria such as salmonella, listeria and E. coli behind. Clean daily using a disinfectant wipe or disinfectant cleaner and a clean cloth.

THE KITCHEN SINK

Even though water frequently runs down your kitchen sink, there are still lots of microbes lurking on the surface and around the drain. Disinfect your sink daily using a sink cleaner, and don't forget the taps and the counter areas surrounding it.

THE FRIDGE

Despite the cold temperature, harmful bacteria can still grow in your fridge. If you store unwashed fruit and vegetables in this appliance, these can be covered in bacteria and pesticides. Raw meat can also leak out of its packaging and fluid can accumulate. Remove fridge drawers and shelves at least once a month and wash all the surfaces with hot water and a mild dish soap.

CUTTING BOARDS

Cutting boards, especially wooden ones, can harbour bacteria in the tiny nooks and crannies that appear after each use. To avoid cross-contamination, you should have one board for fruit and veg and a different one for meat. Wash each board after use with hot, soapy water and dry with a clean tea towel.

COUNTERTOPS

Every time you place something on your kitchen countertops, such as your purse or shopping bag, you are potentially leaving dirt and bacteria where you will later prepare food. Clean with a disinfectant wipe or disinfectant spray and a clean cloth at least once a day.

YOU WILL NEED:

- > A selection of shelves, containers and hanging baskets. Although you can buy specially designed containers for your plants, recycled items usually look more interesting and are also kinder to the environment. Wooden boxes, wire baskets, tins and even cut-down plastic drinks bottles all work well. Just remember to add drainage holes to containers if necessary.
- > A selection of plants and herbs. Rubber plants, dragon trees and the good old spider plant are excellent choices – they help remove formaldehyde, one of the main toxins in indoor air. Tarragon, thyme, rosemary, basil and mint all grow well indoors. If you're feeling adventurous, try growing cherry or plum tomatoes. But remember, they'll need somewhere warm and sunny.
- > Suitable compost.
- > DIY tools and materials to fix your containers firmly in place, and a sturdy stepladder.

HOW TO MAKE:

- STEP 1: Work out how you're going to arrange your plants and containers. You could make a sketch, or lay out the items on the floor. You don't need to be exact and can change things as you go, but a plan is always handy.
- STEP 2: Fix all the containers and shelves in place, ensuring they're secure.
- STEP 3: Fill all your containers with compost, then add the plants.
- STEP 4: Water your plants and work out a routine to take care of them.
- STEP 5: Sit back and watch your garden grow.

The coronation of
KING CHARLES III
and his wife Queen Camilla

SATURDAY 6 MAY, 2023

GOD SAVE THE KING

Princes, princesses, presidents and pop stars alike crowded into Westminster Abbey to witness the historic coronation of His Majesty King Charles III, and what a marvellous day it turned out to be.

On Saturday, May 6, 2023, the world's gaze turned to Westminster Abbey in London. More than seven months had passed since we said a final farewell to our beloved Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, and what bittersweet joy it was to witness King Charles III's official ascent to the throne.

Naturally, comparisons were not drawn between this event and the Queen's funeral, but instead to her coronation 70 years previously. This was the first televised coronation, broadcast on radio and television around the world. Both ceremonies were watched by millions, though the King's was the first British coronation to be televised in glorious, high-definition technicolour.

Regardless of your feelings about the monarchy, it can't be denied that when it comes to pomp, ceremony and splendour, no one does it like Great Britain.

The journey from Buckingham Palace to Westminster Abbey alone was a thing of wonder, with joyous fans lining the streets as more than 4,000 members of the Army, RAF, Royal Navy and Commonwealth forces in immaculate dress uniforms accompanied the Diamond Jubilee State Coach.

One BBC commentator remarked how the coach – drawn by eight Windsor Grey horses – looked like something from a fairy tale, before admitting that so ancient are ceremonies such as these, that the fairy tales are more likely based on them.

Inside the abbey, proceedings took on an even more timeless quality, with the two-hour ceremony effortlessly fusing the old and the new. One poignant example of this was during the presentation of the orb, sceptre and other regalia – pieces from the Crown Jewels that hold “incalculable cultural, historical, and symbolic value” and date back to the 17th century – by various faith leaders, and the carrying of the Sword of State by a resplendent Penny Mordaunt MP.

Another poignant moment was when the King was screened from the public as he was anointed with holy oils by the Archbishop of Canterbury, because this is an event historically regarded as taking place between the sovereign and God. The anointing was carried out using an ampulla and coronation spoon, which is believed to date back to the 12th century.

Finally came the moment all had been waiting for as His Majesty sat resplendent in the Robe Royal – made for King George IV's coronation in 1821 and one of four robes worn during the service – and was adorned with St Edward's crown. After crowning Charles, the Archbishop boomed, “God Save the King”, a sentiment that was then echoed by all in attendance.

Shortly after, Her Majesty Queen Camilla was also crowned, with Queen Mary's Crown placed on her head. Interestingly, she was granted the title of Queen on the late Queen Elizabeth II's request.

The late His Majesty Prince Philip, on the other hand, was never given the title of king. This is because a ruling queen's husband is called a Prince Consort, as the title of king is only given to a monarch who inherits the throne. If King Charles passes away before Queen Camilla, Prince William, who is the heir to the throne, will become king. Queen Camilla will not become a reigning queen; her title will change to queen dowager, the official term for the widow of a king.

Following the ceremony, the King and Queen were joined by the other senior royals and their children on the balcony at Buckingham Palace for the traditional Royal Air Force flypast which, despite the rain and subsequent need to simplify the air show, drew to a close to a most historic and memorable day for all.

A new King, a new set of values, and a new era for all.

Police launch appeal after woman assaulted

Last month police launched an appeal for witnesses and information following an assault in Bishop's Stortford.

The woman was physically assaulted while sitting in her parked car at The Causeway car park at around 6.20pm on Friday, April 7. She sustained a split to her eye socket.

The suspect, who is believed to be known by the victim, reportedly left the scene in a grey or white van, possibly a Citroën or Peugeot model.

A 33-year-old man from Chelmsford has since been arrested in connection with the incident. He has been released on police bail while enquiries continue.

Detective Sergeant Rich Baker said: "I appreciate that this incident happened quite a while ago now. We have conducted extensive enquiries behind the scenes, including a review of the CCTV and automatic number plate recognition systems, and it is now necessary for us to release this appeal to identify any further witnesses to ensure that we can progress all lines of enquiry."

Anyone with information is asked to contact rich.baker@herts.police.uk quoting crime reference number 41/28131/23.

The club has announced their intention to appeal the decision.

A BSFC spokesperson said: "While the board fully respects the Football Association's rules and regulations, it feels that it has a responsibility to the club's shareholders, players, officials, volunteers and supporters to fully explore the allocation process and has sought professional advice as part of this review.

"The Football Association was notified of our intention to appeal and the board will now prepare for our case to be heard at a yet to be determined date."

Residents welcome new activity space to the area

East Herts Council (EHC) opened a new activity space at Thorley Wedge in Bishop's Stortford on Friday, May 12.

The area features ninja trail activities such as a warrior ramp, aerial crossing and stepping pads, as well as fitness equipment.

A new footpath and a 'chatter bench' have also been installed, and a planting scheme will brighten up the space with wildflowers.

The space was formerly a youth shelter, which was removed last year owing to concerns about its condition and some misuse.

Jess Khanom-Metaman, head of operations at EHC, said: "It makes fantastic use of a space previously not enjoyed to its full potential. I encourage the younger generation and adults to take full advantage and see which of the new fitness activities is their favourite."

JULIE MARSON MP

Conservative MP for Hertford and Stortford

LOCAL NEWS

I have visited some really interesting people and businesses in Bishop's Stortford recently. A metal spinning business, Sapphire Spinning Ltd, is one example. Its products are in space, ventilators which saved lives during COVID-19, James Bond helicopters and even R2D2's head. Managing director James does an incredible job and is truly passionate about continuing to teach the specialised skills metal spinning requires. I absolutely agree and have raised this with ministerial colleagues.

I popped into the new Pret A Manger on Potter Street to meet the team there. The franchise is run by local businessman James, who grew up in the town. The shop now employs 15 people from the surrounding area and donates to a local charity. It really is a great new addition to the high street and I wish James and the team every success.

I also visited a Bishop's Stortford resident who has installed a solar battery and thermal system. I invited Councillor Graham McAndrew, executive member for environmental sustainability at Herts County Council, to join me. Solar and thermal technology has so much potential and we learned a lot about its practical application. Ensuring local people benefit from renewable energy projects is really important.

I was delighted to speak again at a Bishop's Stortford Chamber of Commerce lunch. It is always a fantastic event and an important forum for our wonderful local businesses to network with one another. It is also a great way for me to catch up with them and offer my help and support with their latest ventures. I am a keen advocate for local business, industry and innovation in Parliament and remain firmly in their corner.

If you would like to show your support for these issues or anything else, please get in touch at julie.marson.mp@parliament.uk.

A place of solitude in the heart of Ware

LOCAL FEATURE

In this hectic, unrelenting, intense world, there can sometimes seem scarce opportunity to sit back, reflect, relax and immerse ourselves in calm surroundings.

While we see the need for such meditative practices as a modern-day requirement, deep thinkers through the ages have sought out ways to shield themselves from the noise of civilisation.

A great example of this can be found at Scott's Grotto in Ware, which was created by the 18th century cultural icon John Scott.

A man well respected for his poetry and dedication to helping those less fortunate, Scott built Amwell House, his family residence, and began work on an accompanying grotto in the 1760s. The idea was to create a tranquil haven where he could find solace and inspiration, and escape from the hustle and bustle of daily life.

Sure enough, over the years that followed, he transformed the grotto into a beautiful and mysterious space that attracted the attention of the local community and, eventually, visitors from all over the country.

Extending more than 67 feet into the chalk hillside, the grotto is composed of six interconnected chambers, each with its own unique design and purpose. The central Council Chamber features an impressive domed ceiling, and is where Scott, a Quaker and philanthropist, would entertain guests and hold meetings. Another space, the Dome Chamber, is adorned with stalactites made from shells, while the other chambers are decorated with a fascinating array of minerals, flints and fossils.

It is estimated that more than 20,000 shells from around the world were used to create the array of elaborate patterns that depict various scenes from nature, mythology and religious iconography, in a reflection of its creator's fascination with the natural world.

Visitors can explore the grotto's enchanting chambers and marvel at the intricate shellwork, which offer a glimpse not just into the life and passions of John Scott, but also into the artistic and cultural values of the 18th century.

STAYING ALIVE!

Unless you have someone looking after your garden while you are on holiday, you may be wondering how you are going to keep your plants alive and well until you return. Discover our top tips below.

WATER BEFORE YOU GO:

Before you leave for your holiday, make sure you give all the plants in your garden a thorough watering. Soak any pots, containers and hanging baskets at the plant base until the water rises above the soil. Allow this water to soak in and then repeat.

MOVE POTTED PLANTS:

Move potted plants into shady areas of your garden to slow the rate at which they dry out and to help them stay hydrated. Avoid using shade cast by the eaves of your home as this can prevent any natural rainwater from reaching them.

MAKE SOME MULCH:

A thick mulch can help to reduce the evaporation of water and lock moisture into the ground. You can make mulch from woodchips, gravel and decorative stones or even with just a few handfuls of good quality compost. Place around the base of your plants in a doughnut shape.

INVEST IN AN IRRIGATION SYSTEM:

If your budget allows it, an irrigation system will deliver a controlled amount of water to reach your plants at set times during the day. This is a good choice if you are away for a longer period of time, or you go away frequently.

TOP TIPS FOR HOUSEPLANTS:

- > Move any houseplants away from direct sunlight to cooler, darker areas of your home
- > Give them a good, deep soak for around 10 seconds but make sure to drain any excess water
- > Place one end of a damp cloth into a glass of water and the other end in the soil. When the plant becomes thirsty, it will absorb moisture from the cloth
- > Gather your houseplants together to create a humid microclimate.

GARDENING

Belladonna is one plant that you do not want growing in your garden. Belladonna, sometimes referred to as deadly nightshade, is extremely toxic to humans, dogs and cats, and needs to be quickly identified and removed.

WHICH PARTS ARE TOXIC?

All parts of the belladonna plant are toxic to humans and domesticated animals, including the leaves, flowers, fruits and roots. It is not toxic to birds and wildlife, although when honeybees feed on belladonna, the honey they produce can also be toxic.

HOW TO IDENTIFY BELLADONNA

Belladonna is a tall and bushy perennial that grows three to four feet high and wide. It boasts dark green leaves that are oval and unevenly sized. On the bottom part of the plant, the leaves are solitary but on the upper parts, they grow in pairs. Belladonna blooms from June through to early September, with dull purple or lavender flowers that are slightly scented.

The fruit ripens between late August and September and is black and shiny like a cherry.

HOW DOES BELLADONNA SPREAD?

Belladonna spreads very quickly, just like a weed. This plant dies back in winter and then regrows in spring from its thick, fleshy roots. Birds that eat the seeds can spread the plant to other areas via their droppings.

HOW TO REMOVE BELLADONNA FROM YOUR GARDEN

You must protect your skin when handling belladonna, so make sure you wear long sleeves, long trousers, boots and gloves. If the plant is particularly tall and there is a risk of it coming into contact with your face, then you should wear goggles.

- > Dig out the plant with all its roots
- > Dispose of the plant in your garden waste bin
- > Disinfect any tools you have used
- > Wash your work clothes immediately and separately from your other clothing.

Ride ELECTRIC

We see these casual speedsters effortlessly and gracefully gliding their way along the roads, and the realisation is that the days of pumping pedals may be on its way out.

It appears the electric bike revolution is here to stay; yet with the price of these magnificent machines is considerably more than their manual counterparts, handlebar aficionados are instead exploring ways to convert their existing rides into battery-powered versions.

It turns out it's not actually that difficult. Conversion devices can suddenly transform our humble bikes into rapid, resplendent electric vehicles.

These devices work by replacing a normal bike's rear disc-brake rotor with its own drive, which looks and works just like a traditional disc-brake rotor.

A weighty unit housing the battery and a 250-watt-hour motor clips onto the bike frame, with the rotor slotting into the clip-on unit and engaging with the gearing inside. Internal gearing turns the special brake rotor, spinning the rear wheel and, hey presto, you're away.

You should be able to achieve almost 40 miles of assisted cycling, and be able to propel the vehicle at speeds of almost 20mph.

Recharging takes around two-and-a-half hours, and the unit can be easily unclipped and charged inside.

Pedal bikes have long been an incredibly green way to travel – it's the reason there are 20 million on Britain's roads. While those who use them as part of their job – think food delivery driver or parcel courier – may like the added speed and energy conservation of an e-bike, the stronger target market for this product is those keen to ditch the car for short trips, but who need some kind of propulsion when it comes to embarking on two-wheeled adventures.

Whatever the reason, users choosing an e-bike look certain to light the path... or road!

PLANE sailing

Love family holidays but dread flying with young children? Discover five ways to keep your kids occupied on a plane, with options for all ages.

BOOK A WINDOW SEAT

If your budget allows for it, booking a window seat is a great way to keep your children entertained during take-off and landing. Whether they just gaze at the views below or look for animals in the cloud shapes, children of all ages can enjoy looking out of the window during a flight.

ACTIVITIES TO KEEP THEM OCCUPIED

Remember to pack colouring and puzzle books in your hand luggage to help keep boredom at bay. Alternatively, bring blank paper and pens and ask your children to draw what they can see out of the window, or what they imagine your destination will look like.

You can also bring travel games or even a pack of playing cards; simple games like snap are perfect for little ones, while older children can enjoy more advanced games like solitaire.

DOWNLOAD AN AUDIO BOOK

If you want a bit of peace and quiet but you don't want your kids glued to a screen the entire time, then an audio book is a great alternative. There are so many books to choose from – just make sure you remember to pack headphones.

PACK PLENTY OF SNACKS

Do not underestimate how distracting snacks can be for kids during a flight, especially younger ones. Rather than buying them on the plane, bring a selection of your children's favourite snacks with you in your hand luggage and then give them out sporadically throughout the flight.

TALK ABOUT YOUR TRIP

Chatting about what you are planning to do when you get to your destination and what you are excited about, can be a great way to pass the time and engage with your children. You can also take the opportunity to teach them about the different places you are flying over.

SLEEP

like a baby?

Are you thinking of co-sleeping but not sure if this is the right choice for you and your baby? Discover five benefits of co-sleeping below. Plus, five factors that mean you should NOT co-sleep.

1 You can meet your baby's immediate needs
Most babies require feeding, changing and soothing throughout the night. If you are close to your baby, then you can meet their needs without having to get out of bed. You can also do this with minimal disruption, which means your baby is more likely to fall quickly back to sleep.

2 You can build up your milk supply
For breastfeeding mums, co-sleeping can help you to maintain a good milk supply for your baby. As breastmilk production works on a supply-and-demand basis, if you are sleeping with your baby, you are in the ideal position for frequent night-time feeds.

3 Your baby can practise self-rousing
Although sending your baby into a deep sleep may sound appealing, babies are not actually meant to sleep in this way. Babies who co-sleep are frequently roused when close to their mothers, which can help them to learn how to use their self-preservation instinct to rouse when there is any danger.

4 Your baby can develop stronger bonds
Research suggests that infants who co-sleep develop stronger emotional relationships both with their parents and with other people. It may also help children to grow up with higher self-esteem and less anxiety, and to become more independent.

- When you should NOT co-sleep:
- > You have been drinking alcohol
  - > You are a smoker or use e-cigarettes
  - > You have taken any drugs that may cause drowsiness
  - > Your baby was premature (born earlier than 37 weeks)
  - > Your baby had a low birth rate (less than 2.5kg or 5.5lbs).

THE SUCCESS OF CHARISMATIC EASYJET FOUNDER, SIR STELIOS HAJI-IOANNOU

When launching a brand, it pays to make sure you have people rooting for you. And easyJet founder Sir Stelios Haji-Ioannou has one big thing on his side – charisma.

The now 55 year old, whose success as the founder of a revolutionary airline concept soon led to him being instantly recognisable by first name only, caused a major stir in the airline business in the mid-1990s when he started running a cheap shuttle air service between Luton and Scotland.

At the time, the concept of cheap air travel was one that had never taken off – literally. However, by putting on a ‘no frills’ service that did away with complementary food, refreshments and even seat reservations, Stelios found a gap in the market that short-haul travellers loved.

Soon, the airline was servicing destinations across Europe. With fares starting at just £1, the marketing took care of itself.

It wasn't Stelios's first venture into transport.

He had previously owned a shipping business, Stelmar Shipping, and had learned the ropes from his father, who was hugely successful in the same space.

Yet nothing quite rivals the serial entrepreneur's achievements with easyJet. He and his family still own one-third of the business, which values his stake at more than £4billion. This is despite the fact that, as a group floated on the stock exchange, he has repeatedly fallen out with the company's senior managers, declaring that shareholders have had no notable return in more than a decade.

Stelios's battles with Ryanair founder Michael O'Leary are also legendary – Stelios was once portrayed as Pinocchio on a Ryanair advert.

He now lives in Monaco, and received a knighthood from Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II for services to entrepreneurship in 2006.

HOW TO PROTECT YOUR CAR IN HOT WEATHER

When temperatures soar, your vehicle requires a little bit of additional TLC. Unless, of course, you don't mind having to fork out for expensive repairs.

PARK IN THE SHADE: Although this may seem obvious, it is really important that you try to park your car in the shade when the sun is at its hottest. This will help to prevent your dashboard from drying out and cracking.

USE A WINDSHIELD PROTECTOR: A windshield protector can help to keep your car cool and prevent sun damage. These are low-cost and easy to use; simply unfold and slide into place on your dashboard.

WAX YOUR CAR: If a heatwave is on its way, it can be a good idea to wax your car as this provides a layer of protection between your car and the sun's powerful ultraviolet rays.

CHECK THE TYRE PRESSURE: Hot pavements and low tyre pressure are a dangerous combination and can lead to a blowout. Therefore, you should make sure that you regularly test your tyre pressure when the warm weather hits.

USE SEAT COVERS: As well as protecting both leather and fabric seats from spillages and stains, seat covers can also help to keep them cool and prevent sun damage.

CHECK YOUR COOLING SYSTEM: To prevent your engine from overheating, you need to make sure that the cooling system is in good working order. Have the belts checked and the antifreeze drained. Also, make sure that you change the belts and fluids on a regular basis.

WASH AND DRY OFTEN: Both sun and heat can cause your car's exterior to crack and fade. However, frequent washing and hand drying can help to remove dirt and dust particles that can cause scratches and dull your car's finish.

BSMB – The Next Chapter

VISION editor Brett Shohet has taken over the reins of a prestigious business exhibition in Bishop's Stortford.

Brett, owner of the B7 Media Group, is the new organiser of the Bishop's Stortford Means Business (BSMB) exhibition, which attracts more than 350 participants every year and has the slogan 'Be a part of it'.

Sponsored by London Stanstead Airport, BSMB dates back to 2001 and was founded to provide an opportunity for businesses large and small to present their goods and services to the community.

Speaking about why he decided to take over the exhibition, Brett said he will be continuing the ethos of the exhibition, bringing creative ideas to support both new and loyal exhibitors and encourage even more visitors to attend.

He said: "I am consistently looking for ways to invest in our communities and promote local businesses.

"This exhibition is the next step in expanding and growing the Vision brand and we are hoping to roll out the exhibition to more areas in the future.

"In turn, this will help give local businesses the chance to promote and showcase their products and services."

Brett also wanted to express his gratitude to former organiser Robert Lee, who has been championing businesses across the community for more than 20 years.

A Very BRITISH RACKET

Nothing conjures up a British summer better than Wimbledon, the oldest tennis championship in the world. In true British fashion, it's not all about who wins – or even the lovely sound as the racket whacks the ball. Think strawberries and cream, bizarre tennis outfits, celebrity spotting, and an endless obsession with the weather.

• Yellow tennis balls were introduced in 1986 because they were more visible on TV than the white ones.

• At the last Wimbledon tournament, spectators consumed almost 2,000 servings of strawberries and cream, along with a staggering 250,000 glasses of Pimm's.

To mark this year's contest, which takes place from July 3 to 16, let's look at a few fun facts.

• The tournament employs around 250 ball boys and girls, selected from 27 nearby schools, who must pass a test to ensure they can stand still for at least three minutes.

• The first Wimbledon took place in 1877, but only involved men's singles. Ladies weren't allowed to compete until 1884.

• The longest tennis match in history was held at Wimbledon in 2010. It lasted for 11 hours and five minutes over three days between Frenchman Nicolas Mahut and the eventual winner of that year's championship, American John Isner.

• Wimbledon attracts around 500,000 spectators, and millions more from around the globe catch up on TV.

• During an average tournament, players go through around 55,000 balls.

• This year's tournament marks Rufus the Harris's Hawk's 16th year as chief pigeon scarer, making sure matches aren't interrupted by unwanted avian guests. Follow him on Twitter or Instagram.

• The grass on the Wimbledon lawns has to be precisely 8mm high.

• There's a strict rule that Wimbledon players must wear white clothes – though a small dash of colour is now allowed. The tradition started in the 1800s to avoid sweaty patches showing up on dark clothing.

So whether you're lucky enough to attend in person or will be watching the competition from the comfort of your own home, sit back, relax and enjoy this prestigious display of sporting prowess – Pimm's optional.
