Editor's notes...

JULY 2021

Brett Shohet, Editor

Hello and welcome to this month's edition of VISIONEppingTheydon.

I hope everyone has been out and about, enjoying some of the freedoms that we sorely missed for so long. I for one have been, and it's been a pleasure. Not just in terms of being able to have a pint down the pub, or to see clients in the flesh, but to be casually interacting with strangers.

I can't tell if it's because we've been deprived of it for so long or if I had simply forgotten what it was like to have a polite chat with someone, but people are just so engaged and welcoming at the moment when it comes to conversation.

I think the 2020 Euros are playing a big part in morale and engagement. Of course, I'm writing this well before the conclusion of the tournament, so from an England perspective... please take everything I say with a pinch of salt! But the tournament is certainly having a positive impact - it's great to see everyone enjoying the games down at their locals and to hear real fans roaring at the stadiums.

My dog has also been enjoying his freedoms - perhaps a little too much. He recently ran out of the house and went exploring. We found him playing with other dogs down the road. If he keeps this up, we may have to impose Tier 1 doggy restrictions!

BRIDGE

TOO FAR?

IT HAS BEEN JUST 50 YEARS SINCE LONDON BRIDGE WAS SOLD AND MOVED TO LAKE HAVASU CITY, ARIZONA. BUT HOW AND WHY DID THIS COME ABOUT?

As far as the architecture of London goes, 50 years seems like only a very short period of time. For context, other recognisable landmarks in the capital built at the start of the same decade, the 1970s, include Euston Tower and the Barbican Estate, with the likes of the Lloyds Building and NatWest Tower built only a few years later.

So it's astounding to consider that the London Bridge that we know, love and recognise – the elegant five-line concrete box girder bridge that connects Monument on the north bank to London Bridge station on the south – has only been in place for five decades. It's even more astonishing that its forerunner now spans a small conurbation in the desert of western Arizona.

That a London landmark which had been in place since its construction 130 years previously ended up being dismantled, one brick at a time, shipped 4,000 miles around the world and reassembled, is one of those eccentric curiosities we would most likely expect of the Victorians. But this happened just eight years before Margaret Thatcher came into power. London would never look the same again.

In fairness, the old London Bridge had seen better days. Although it had survived the Luftwaffe's rain of bombs during Second World War, structural issues caused by ageing, combined with the increased weight and frequency of traffic, meant the bridge was sinking into the Thames at a rate of one inch every eight years. Surveyors were left querying the affordability of renovations.

At first, it seemed the bridge might have to be broken up and scrapped. But a city councillor by the name of Ivan Luckin decided he would capitalise on London's historical reputation by heading abroad to market the 1,000ft construction.

While the peculiar proposal largely fell on deaf ears, it did pique the interest of eccentric American businessman, Robert McCulloch. An industrialist who had made millions through oil and motorisation, he was keen to market Lake Havasu City, which sits equidistant between Phoenix and Las Vegas, as a global tourist destination. In need of a talking point and a centrepiece that would define both his and the city's ambition, he agreed to purchase London Bridge for the not inconsiderable sum of $2.4million.

The bridge was subsequently dismantled, with workers numbering each individual granite brick and carefully marking its position on the huge structure. It travelled to North America via the Panama Canal, before landing in Long Beach, California. It was then transported in trucks to its final destination.

The bridge, which originally spanned a section of desert before the growth of the city, was reinforced with a steel shell in order to circumnavigate the same issues over weight of traffic that had brought about its demise in the first place. On October 10, 1971, it was finally opened to a flurry of fanfare. London's Lord Mayor attended and a banquet comprising the meal that had been served when the bridge was first constructed back in 1831 was prepared.

While McCulloch died in 1977, his bridge over the desert lives on, with the attraction bringing an estimated two million visitors to Lake Havasu City each year.

THE LEGENDARY RADIO 1 DJ ANNIE MAC MOVES ON TO PASTURES NEW AFTER 17 YEARS

There can be little disputing the impact Annie Mac has had on our understanding and appreciation of dance music over the past two decades.

Having joined Radio 1 as a producer back in the early Noughties, the Irish DJ breathed fresh energy into an ailing electronic music scene, overseeing a number of breakthrough genres, including dubstep, trap and drill, while continuing to celebrate the house and techno sounds that have defined a generation.

Yet now, at 42, the pioneer has announced she is leaving behind two decades of influence in order to focus on more private ventures, including writing a book and spending time with her family.

There is also the small matter of her podcast work, and of course the return of live gigs – both of which go to show that a DJ cannot spend too long out of the spotlight. That said, we might assume a musical legacy that has educated, informed and inspired is now coming to an end – for now, at least. Annie wrote on her Instagram page that she would be coming back to radio broadcasting when the time was right.

The Dubliner first got her foot in the door at the BBC working as a broadcast assistant on the Steve Lamacq show. By 2004, she had her own slot, Annie Mac's Mashup, and for the past six years has presided over the weeknight Future Sounds show.

Always one to push boundaries and extol the virtues of music across genres well beyond the norm, the famously curly-haired Annie has, among other things, hosted The Culture Show and Top of the Pops. She is also the curator of AMP Lost & Found Festival.

Now, a new set of sounds awaits this airwaves innovator, and no doubt we'll be tuning in.

HOW TO SAFEGUARD YOUR sunglasses

Protecting your eyes from the sun's powerful rays is a must, but don't forget that you also need to safeguard your sunglasses from both accidental damage and general wear and tear.

Protect from scratches

Whether you have plastic or glass lenses, you should always store your sunglasses in a hard case to protect them from scratches. If you do not have a hard case, a microfibre pouch is your next best option.

Remove smudges

Sunglasses are prone to smudges from sun cream, make-up and your skin's natural oils. To smooth away smudges, rinse your glasses under warm water and, using your fingers, apply a few drops of mild washing-up liquid. Rub gently, rinse and dry with a microfibre cloth.

Avoid harmful cleaners

Never use rubbing alcohol, vinegar or any other standard household cleaners on your sunglasses, as these can potentially damage the lenses. Also refrain from breathing on them and wiping, as this can cause deterioration.

Do not leave in the car

Leaving your sunglasses in your car on a hot day can cause the lenses to delaminate, making them less effective in protecting your vision from the sun. Particularly avoid placing them on the dashboard, where heat is more intense.

Don't place on top of your head

Although you may like how this looks, placing your sunglasses on your head can cause the screws to loosen and fall out. Plus, it can damage the nose-pads.

Don't take designer sunnies to the beach

If you have spent a lot of money on designer glasses, you may want to wear them all the time. However, the combination of sand granules and seawater is a major hazard. Sand can scour away at the lenses and delicate hinges, while the salt in seawater can cause lasting damage to metal components and lens coatings.

PROTECT YOUR SKIN from UVA and UVB rays

We all know the importance of using sunscreen, not just when the sun is shining, but all year round. However, do you know what sun protection factor (SPF) you should be using for your skin type? And whether your make-up contains SPF?

Why is SPF so important?

A good sunscreen will block the harmful effects of the sun's UVA and UVB rays, which can wreak havoc on the health of your skin, causing not only premature fine lines and wrinkles but also an increased risk of skin cancer. When buying sunscreen for the body or face, look for two things: the SPF, which protects your skin from UVB rays, and the UVA rating, which ideally should be five stars. In the UK between March and October you should wear at least SPF30 with a four-star UVA rating. However, for maximum protection, wear SPF50 with a five-star UVA rating.

SPF by skin type

OILY SKIN: Many sunscreens that offer a high SPF tend to be thick on the skin, causing already oily skin further issues such as blocked pores and blackheads. Prevent this by opting for an oil-free sunscreen or using a lightweight moisturiser with SPF included.

SENSITIVE/ACNE-PRONE SKIN: Avoid sunscreens that have too many chemicals or unnecessary ingredients, such as fragrances and preservatives. Instead, choose a non-comedogenic sunscreen or a mineral powder sunscreen that feels weightless on the skin.

DRY SKIN: Dry skin sufferers can benefit from an SPF serum which simultaneously protects and hydrates the skin. Alternatively, try a dry oil spray with SPF, although this will need to be applied several times a day for maximum protection.

Does make-up with SPF work?

Skin experts state that you need 1-1.5tsp of sunscreen to adequately protect your face from the sun, so it is highly unlikely you are applying sufficient foundation to use this as your sole form of protection. Plus, most SPF make-up only protects against UVB rays, not against harmful UVA ones, which can cause skin cancer.

BEST SPF MAKE-UP: Charlotte Tilbury Magic Foundation | bareMinerals Original Foundation Broad Spectrum SPF 15 | L'Oréal Paris True Match Super-Blendable Compact Make-up | Neutrogena Healthy Skin Compact Make-up.

Remember, make-up should be worn as a second line of defence against the sun, after your chosen UV protection product.

Time to PLANK

HEALTH & FITNESS

The pursuit of perfect abs can feel like a distant dream - but not anymore. Love it or hate it, planking provides a fast and effective way to strengthen your core, shape your waist and create amazing abs.

Check out these four plank variations that guarantee to deliver.

1. THE REACHER PLANK

Ideal for building control and strengthening your core muscles, take this move slowly for maximum results.

- > Start in the plank position with your palms touching the ground and your arms straight
- > Reach one arm forward until your elbow is straight
- > Bring your arm back down to the ground
- > Repeat with your other arm.

2. THE HIP DROP SIDE PLANK

Work your side muscles, also known as your obliques, as well as your abs with this plank variation.

- > Lie on your side with your elbow directly under your shoulder and your forearm on the ground in front
- > Stack your legs on top of each other and lift your body off the ground
- > Slowly drop your hips towards the ground, as low as you can, and then raise them.

3. THE WALKDOWN PLANK

Great for building up strength to do push-ups, the walkdown plank is like a moving plank.

- > Begin in the plank position with your forearms touching the ground
- > Slide one hand back and place it under your shoulder
- > Push up with that arm and repeat with the other arm
- > Now you are in the push-up position, reverse the steps to lower yourself back into the plank pose.

4. THE REVERSE PLANK

Providing a full body workout, this final plank is a tough one.

- > Sit tall on the floor with your legs extended in front of you
- > Place your hands behind you, either on the floor or on a foam roller
- > Lift your hips, forming a straight line from heels to shoulders
- > Add an optional tricep dip or leg raise if you want more of a challenging move.

Sound baths

Over the past few years, researchers have confirmed that meditation can have several benefits on the mind and body, from stress reduction to reducing chronic pain symptoms. If you've enjoyed the benefits of regular meditation practice, you will love sound baths – an alternative to mindfulness meditation.

WHAT TO EXPECT FROM SOUND BATHS

Sound baths are a meditative experience that involves 'bathing' your mind and body in sound waves. These sound waves are produced by instruments such as singing bowls or gongs, but they can also come from percussion or chimes.

Similar to mindfulness meditation, sound baths have powerful relaxing effects. The sound waves affect the brain, causing it to enter the alpha state – a state of heightened consciousness but deep relaxation. This state of mind is the same one that occurs during meditation and relates to reduced stress, peace of mind, focus and calm.

HOW TO CREATE A SOUND BATH AT HOME

Creating a sound bath at home is easy. Start by creating a relaxing, peaceful nook in your home. Ideally, you should be warm, comfortable and away from distracting noises. You can also improve the atmosphere by lighting a candle, using natural scents and lying on pillows and blankets.

Singing bowls are the most common healing instruments used for sound baths. To create a vibrating, relaxing sound, press a mallet on the outer surface of the bowl's rim and move in a slow, circular motion. To control the sound, create the motion using your entire arm rather than just the wrist. If you have never tried a sound bath before, asking someone else to play the singing bowl for you can help.

Alternatively, if you are alone, you can try a virtual sound bath. To do so, head to your favourite online yoga platform or YouTube, select an expert practitioner and pick your preferred meditation length. Make sure you are comfortable and using high-quality headphones to get the greatest benefits from your meditation practice.

Natural IMMUNITY

THE FOODS YOU SHOULD EAT TO BOOST YOUR NATURAL IMMUNITY

Having a good immune system helps fight off infections and maintain your health, yet it can sometimes be confusing knowing which foods we should be consuming to take our body's natural protection to the next level.

take supplements. Vitamin C is an antioxidant that helps the body grow, develop and repair, maintaining your body's natural defenses.

STEAMED BROCCOLI: Some of us don't like our greens, but a bit of broccoli or spinach as part of a healthy meal or drink (spinach is especially good in smoothies) can really boost immunity. Steaming broccoli (not boiling) is also thought to be the best way of keep the nutrients in. Both of these green options are loaded with vitamins, minerals and nutrients.

YOGHURT: Another good option is yoghurt, which can be added to cereal, shakes or eaten by itself. Look for Greek yoghurts with live and active cultures, and choose natural rather than flavoured. You can also add fruit and a little honey to make it taste even better.

These options might not stop you getting ill, per say, but they will boost general immunity and give you the best chance of warding off seasonal nasties. Start today!

Here are four consumables that will have a positive effect on your immune system as part of a healthy diet and lifestyle.

GARLIC: Highly nutritious, low in calories, full of vitamins, laced with nutrients and perfect for combatting sickness and the common cold, garlic also lowers blood pressure and reduces cholesterol. There's even evidence to suggest the antioxidants it contains can prevent long-term diseases such as Alzheimer's and dementia.

VITAMIN C: Most of us know vitamin C is number one when it comes to fighting off infections, yet we still don't regularly

HOW TO PACK THE

PERFECT PICNIC

Whether you rely too heavily on your local deli or you tend to throw in whatever you can find in the fridge, to help you celebrate National Picnic Month, we are going to show you how to plan the perfect picnic.

PREP YOUR PICNIC

The simplest way to make picnic prep more manageable is by preparing your main dish ahead of the day. Then you can simply divide the dish into portions once seated and ready to eat. Great options for picnic mains include quiches, tarts, tortillas, pies and picnic loaves.

PROVIDE PORTABLE SNACKS

No picnic would be complete without an array of easy-to-carry and fuss-free snacks. As well as all the usual suspects, such as sausage rolls, sandwiches and chicken drumsticks, why not be a bit more adventurous and try empanadas, falafel or smoked salmon scotch eggs?

RUSTLE UP SALADS AND SIDES

When it comes to picnic salads, it is best to focus on more robust dishes, such as potato salad and pasta salad, which will not wilt or become damaged in transit. Dips such as hummus, and even a mackerel pâté, are all great options and can be enjoyed with crudité's or sliced pitta breads. Other delicious sides include boiled eggs sprinkled with chilli powder and garlic salt, or orzo and mozzarella salad.

PICK PICNIC-FRIENDLY PUDDINGS

Puddings for picnics are notoriously tricky, although there are a few tried and tested desserts that will save the day, such as traybakes, loaf cakes, brownies and cookies.

DON'T FORGET DRINKS

Whether you want boozy beverages or virgin varieties, you need to pack something to sip on in the sun. Choose from family-friendly options such as mint iced tea or fruit-infused lemonade. Alternatively, for a tippie that packs a punch, you can't go wrong with a classic Pimm's, a wine-based spritzer or a convenient cocktail in a can.

Unusual veg of the month: Cardoon

Considered a delicacy in Mediterranean countries, the cardoon is a large, stalky vegetable that is closely related to the artichoke. Although it takes some time to prepare, its tender texture and distinctive flavour make it well worth the wait.

- > Gently remove the outer portion of the stalk as you would with celery
- > Cut into ½-inch pieces and soak in water and lemon juice to avoid browning.

HOW TO COOK
Cardoons are typically used in a similar way to artichoke hearts and can be steamed, braised, sautéed, blended into a soup, added to a stew and even eaten raw. Many recipes call for cardoons to be pre-cooked for 15 minutes in boiling water to remove bitterness.

WHERE TO BUY
Cardoons can be found in farmers' markets from midwinter to early spring. Alternatively, choose to grow your own. Cardoons can be planted outside from late April until August/September.

HOW TO STORE
Store whole unwashed cardoons in the vegetable drawer of your fridge for up to one week. Cooked cardoons will last up to three days in an airtight container in the fridge. Brined and canned cardoons can last up to one year.

WHAT DOES IT TASTE LIKE?
With a similar, yet slightly more bitter taste to an artichoke, the exact flavour of a cardoon will be dependent on its growing conditions and maturity. For a sweeter cardoon, opt for the lightest in colour.

IS IT GOOD FOR YOU?
The cardoon is a nutrient-rich vegetable that contains protein, fibre, carbohydrates, calcium, potassium, iron and a whole host of important vitamins. It is also low in calories and boasts high levels of folic acid.

HOW TO PREPARE
> Peel off the spines and thorns on each side of the cardoon using a peeler

MONDAY TO SUNDAY 12PM TO 12AM

Doughnut Week

JULY 10 – 18

Need an excuse to eat more “hole foods”? Whether you favour classic jam, love some sprinkles or can’t get enough of comforting custard, once you learn to make your own doughnuts, there’ll be no going back.

Basic Doughnut Dough — YOU WILL NEED:

500g strong white bread flour | 60g golden caster sugar | 15g fresh yeast | 4 eggs
| Zest ½ lemon | 2 tsp fine sea salt | 125g softened unsalted butter | 2l sunflower oil
(for deep-frying) | Caster sugar (for tossing)

HOW TO MAKE:

- > Mix all the ingredients, minus the butter, with 150g of water in a mixer for 8 minutes
- > Leave the dough to rest for 1 minute
- > Start the mixer again, adding 25g of butter at a time until the dough is smooth and glossy
- > Cover the bowl in cling film and leave until the dough has doubled in size
- > Knock back the dough and chill in the fridge overnight
- > Cut the dough into 50g pieces and roll into tight buns
- > Place on a floured baking tray, cover in clingfilm and leave for 4 hours
- > Fill your deep fat fryer or a heavy-based saucepan halfway with oil and heat to 180 degrees
- > Keep young children away from hot oil and supervise older ones as oil splashes can burn the skin
- > Gently slide the doughnuts into the oil to avoid splatters. Only fry 2–3 at one time to avoid sticking
- > Fry for 2 minutes on each side until golden. You may need to push them down if they keep popping up
- > Make sure the oil remains at the right temperature for each batch to avoid burnt or raw doughnuts
- > Remove from the fryer and place on kitchen paper
- > Toss in sugar while still warm
- > If filling, allow to cool to room temperature, make a hole using a chopstick and gently rotate to create space. Then generously fill using a piping bag.

Filling and Topping ideas:

Cardamon and vanilla custard | Cinnamon and chocolate cream | Raspberry and ginger jam | Salted caramel, toasted coconut and hot fudge | Crème fraiche whipped cream and strawberries

Plastic fuelling

DISCOVER THE NEW TECHNOLOGY THAT IS ABOUT TO CHANGE THE WORLD BY CONVERTING PLASTIC WASTE INTO JET FUEL

More than 10 million tonnes of plastic enter our oceans every year. The aviation industry and air travel account for more than 2.5 per cent of the world's carbon dioxide emissions. Combined, these industries are among the largest polluters in the world. Researchers at Washington State University have been able to develop a new, innovative way to prevent plastic from going to waste – and jet fuel from using up so many precious resources.

Today, the environmental crisis is more imminent and severe than ever, and while scientists are aware of the damage of plastic pollution on the environment, recycling plastic is still challenging.

Most recycling methods today leverage a process that melts and remoulds the discarded plastics or uses extremely high reaction temperatures to create new plastic products. Both methods use up great quantities of energy, time, resources and money. These obstacles make it impossible for these methods to be adopted at a commercial level, which causes more than 90 per cent of plastic to end up in landfill.

Chuhua Jia and Hongfei Lin, researchers at the Gene and Linda Voiland School of Chemical Engineering and Bioengineering, have addressed the costs and extended time frames involved with recycling plastic.

First, a mix of waste plastic products was ground and turned into fragments. The granules were then placed in a tube reactor on top of activated carbon. In the process, the activated carbon acts as a catalyst, which is a substance that facilitates a specific chemical reaction while being immune to the reaction itself. In this case, the carbon breaks down the chemical bonds in the plastic, releasing hydrogen – an essential component of jet fuel.

Thanks to their innovative catalytic process, the researchers were able to convert up to 90 per cent of plastic waste to jet fuel. All this while also shortening reaction times to under one hour and reducing temperatures to 220°C.

This technology is still in development and far from entering the market commercially. However, it does already represent a beacon of hope in the fight to reduce plastic waste, minimise pollution and protect the environment.

HISTORY

State of INDEPENDENCE

CELEBRATING JULY 4 – AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE DAY – AND ITS HISTORY

Independence is a real buzzword at the moment – from Brexit to the failed European Super League to our friends north of the border, everyone appears to want to be free.

Of course, the most famous example of this was undertaken by the Americans on July 4, 1776, when the Yanks broke away from us Brits, who had been resident in North America for more than 200 years.

Back then, people living in the 13 colonies – New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina – had to pay taxes to Britain, even though they had no representatives in Parliament.

Tired of being ruled by a superpower some 4,000 miles away, the rather wordy Colonies' Second Continental Congress in Philadelphia came together to put forward a document – the Declaration of Independence – which was sent to the UK on July 4, 1776.

The British did not want to give up the United States without a fight, and battles ensued.

The war ended on September 3, 1783, with the British Parliament finally granting America's wish to go it alone.

By 1880, Independence Day was recognised as an official holiday, and 60 years later it became a paid holiday, ensuring people could come together to recognise what is effectively regarded as the birth date of the United States of America as we know it today.

In 2021, the day is marked with parades, barbecues, fireworks, concerts, political speeches, and parties. It reinforces the fierce patriotism Americans have, and in troubling times seeks to bind together everyone who lives and works under the stars and stripes in the world's most powerful country.

CREATING THE
GREEN KITCHEN

Using the colour green is one of the biggest kitchen trends at the moment, and here is how you can get it right.

DARK GREEN

If you want to use dark green in your kitchen, it needs to be done carefully. Because it is such a deep colour, it will look dramatic, but it will also not reflect light to make it seem warm and welcoming. Make sure that the room has a lot of light so you can achieve this.

Keep windows plain and undressed to let in as much natural light as possible. You should also use a pale colour for backsplashes as a contrast. Warmer accents like brass, gold and copper for details will help to bring some warmth into the room.

GREY-GREEN

If dark green seems like too much for you, then you might want to go for a lighter grey-green option. This is warmer than some options when it comes to grey and can bring a sense of peace to the space.

Adding wood tones for extra warmth is a good idea. You might also want to pair it with white fittings like cabinets and sinks to bring in even more warmth. For a little bit of contrast, add in black accents to bring it all together.

GREEN ACCENTS

To incorporate green into your kitchen without making it the main aspect, there are many avenues you can take. You can do this by adding green accents or pieces to the decor, such as lampshades, artwork or tableware. If you have a kitchen island, you may want to paint the island green instead of the walls or cabinets.

HOME & DIY

(NOT SO) GROSS DOMESTIC PRODUCT

Six handy products you didn't know you needed

MICROWAVE CLEANER

We've all despaired at the stubborn splashes and stains that linger on the insides of our microwaves. Yet you can banish these with Angry Mama/ Home-X – simply fill with water and white vinegar and set her gradually spinning for seven minutes to effectively steam the stains away.

HERB SCISSORS

While we all believe we can chop herbs with the flourish and finesse of Michel Roux Jr, in truth, having a pair of multi-bladed herb scissors at hand is a much more sensible way of ensuring equal consistency and flavour in our food. Simply chopping into herbs with the scissors will instantly produce a spray of greenery ready for use.

FOOD VACUUM SEALER

It looks like something you'd expect to find in the local stationery superstore, but this natty vacuum sealer will do wonders for preserving the freshness of your food. Using bags that are heat-sealed after oxygen is expelled, vacuum sealers are a quick and sensible option for conserving goods and preventing food waste.

WINDMILL WATERMELON CUTTER

Simple and incredibly satisfying, this watermelon cutter powers through watermelon flesh to produce neat cubes of fruit ready to be enjoyed.

BUTTER SPREADER KNIFE

For so long, spreading hard butter has accounted for the destruction of innocent pieces of bread, yet this three-in-one spreader knife – with holes that sail through even the hardest, most stubborn piece of butter – will bring smoothness and joy back to break times.

ICED COFFEE MAKER

With the warmer days, many of us will be reaching for iced coffees, and this clever gadget from HyperChiller can produce a cooling caffeine drink in minutes without it being watered down.

STEP UP in style

Make the most of your staircase with our top design ideas for summer 2021. From the simple to the elaborate, there is something to suit all spaces, budgets and tastes.

GO DARK AND DRAMATIC

Although you may think that staircases need to be light and airy, if you want to create an imposing and sophisticated area that demands to be seen, then painting your woodwork either black or dark charcoal grey is the way to go. Contrast with white walls for a chic and contemporary look.

CREATE A GALLERY WALL

A gallery wall is a highly popular option when it comes to decorating a staircase. For the best results, choose matching frames and pictures with a clear theme, such as your pampered pooch, your child's artwork, black and white family photos, or art deco pictures.

MAKE A STATEMENT WITH SPINDLES

Often overlooked, your staircase's spindles provide the perfect opportunity to update your staircase. Whether you opt for a bold colour matched with a natural wood handrail, or you go wild and paint each spindle in a different shade, make sure you keep the rest of the staircase white for maximum effect.

WALLPAPER YOUR TREADS

If you don't fancy carpet or it's a bit out of your price range, why not brighten up your staircase treads with some boldly patterned wallpaper? Choose eye-catching graphics and add further pops of colour in the hallway or on the wall, focusing on primary colours for best results.

LAY AN OMBRÉ STAIR RUNNER

Stair runners are a great way to add warmth and colour to your wooden stairs without covering them completely with carpet. If you are not a fan of patterned stair runners, an ombré version is the ideal choice for you, offering a fun and fresh look without being too overpowering.

We're loving LAURA

WHO CELEBRATES A DECADE ON TERRESTRIAL TV

Laura Whitmore is the perfect example of someone who knows when to split. The Irish presenter has worked across multiple TV projects over the past decade or so, preferring to stand up and embrace new challenges rather than playing it safe.

As fresh-faced and dynamic as any of the new wave of TV presenters on the circuit, despite having spent more than 10 years in the spotlight, Whitmore has returned with the new series of Love Island, which began on June 28.

Set in Mallorca, the six-week bounty of dating, dirty dealing and dodgy dalliances has become an institution on British TV. The last series, in 2019, pulled in an audience of more than four million – with viewers keen to take a somewhat voyeuristic glance at the love lives of others.

“It’s escapism, isn’t it?” Laura says. “I think some viewers are living out holiday fantasies; others are just interested in the ins and outs of romance, of flirting and, dare I say it, sex.”

“You certainly have to be a special type of person to be on the show, though it’s been proved time and time again that the rewards are all there for anyone brave enough to take the plunge.”

Having an ability to step into the unknown and risk disappointment is certainly true to who Laura is, so in that sense she is the perfect presenter for the show. The 36-year-old struck gold when she applied for an MTV Pick Me campaign in 2008, with victory securing her a role on MTV News.

“WE ALL NEED TO BE PUSHED AND TESTED FROM TIME TO TIME. YOU GET NOTHING FROM SITTING BACK AND RESTING ON YOUR LAURELS.”

Landing the I’m A Celebrity... Get Me Out of Here! NOW! role in 2011 was Laura’s first introduction to reality TV, one that she held onto through stints on The Hit (on RTÉ Two) and the Eurovision Song Contest Semi-Finals, right through to appearing in the 14th series of Strictly Come Dancing.

“Strictly was a really interesting shift because it was good to put myself back in the firing line,” she says. “I think that’s a good lesson – we all need to be pushed and tested from time to time. You get nothing from sitting back and resting on your laurels.”

Away from the camera, Laura wrote Sunday Times Bestseller No One Can Change Your Life Except For You, a book about fear, hope and inspiration. She also recently had her first child with husband, Iain Stirling, who narrates Love Island.

“What’s a priority right now is ensuring work doesn’t interrupt the time we want to spend with our baby,” Laura commented recently.

First spotted out and about with her new daughter, Stevie Ré, in March, Laura is clearly the proudest of mums: “It is a wonderful next step for us and while we are very public people – it’s the nature of what we do – we do want to be able to grow our family with a sense of privacy.”

That’s certainly more privacy than will be afforded to those Love Island contestants this year.

St Clare Open Gardens returns for 27th year this summer

This summer, gardens in Epping are taking part in St Clare Hospice's Open Gardens event as it returns for its 27th year.

Until mid-July, lovers of flora and fauna will be able to explore some of the best-kept green spaces in the hospice's catchment area over a month-long Open Gardens season.

Michael Chapman, patron for the hospice, said: "Giving support to St Clare through visiting one of the Open Gardens in the scheme is an excellent way to pick up some great gardening ideas and learn from other local gardeners, have a great day out, and give support to your local hospice charity.

"I am delighted to be opening my own garden for the fourth consecutive year for this wonderful event and look forward to people enjoying the beauty of my garden. The garden is registered with the national Quiet Garden Movement and is full of secluded nooks and crannies to sit alone, meditate and enjoy the tranquillity of the surroundings."

A total of 13 locations will be opening their gates to the public in aid of St Clare Hospice during the event, which started on Sunday, June 27, and continues until Sunday, July 18, at venues around Harlow, Thornwood and Epping Forest.

Local security company, Land Sheriffs, is sponsoring the event.

For more information, contact St Clare's fundraising team on 01279 773700 or email fund@stclarehospice.org.uk

Charity founder awarded for community work

LOCAL NEWS EPPING

The founder of a community charity has been awarded a High Sheriff Award for his dedicated volunteering work throughout the COVID-19 pandemic.

Pesh Kapasiawala is the founder of Epping-based 3food4u, a group of community surplus hubs offering free food, home essentials, clothes and toys to those in need. The charity has various locations in Waltham Abbey, Loughton, Chigwell Row and Chipping Ongar.

Pesh was presented with the award by the High Sheriff of Essex, Simon Brice, and his wife, Emma.

Pesh said: "This award is for all the tireless volunteers who have worked day and night to make us the largest emergency food agency in Epping Forest in less than 12 months.

"Our message is treating and supporting people humanely, with dignity and respect. Thank you to all our volunteers, supporters, donors, grant funders and the community for making this possible."

The High Sheriff of Essex added: "The award is in recognition of his outstanding vision and commitment in setting up the 3food4u hubs, which have grown under his leadership and provide vital supplies and support to local communities in Epping Forest and beyond."

Students showcase their talents in outdoor show

Drama students at Epping St John's Church of England School have taken part in a summer talent show.

Members of the school's drama club showcased their talents during the performance, which took place on the school's field earlier this month.

Speaking before the event, Michael Johns, English and drama teacher, said: "The plan is for the show to be outside, with the audience bringing picnic blankets to sit on the grass and the performances happening under the open sky.

"There will be music, theatre and an exhibition space for students' visual art.

"It's been amazing to see the joy with which students have returned to the drama studio after a break of more than a year. A lot of artistic students have been heartened by this opportunity to put their skills on show.

"We are hoping this event will reconnect Epping St John's with the community and serve as a celebration of the work and talent of our students, as well as being a sunny, creative sign-off to a challenging school year."

Footballers pay tribute to former Arsenal goalkeeper

A former student of Epping Forest High School in Loughton, who went on to become a goalkeeper for football clubs including Arsenal and West Brom, died on June 3 at the age of 51.

Alan Miller, who was born in Epping, started his professional career at the Gunners and was the first Arsenal goalkeeper to come on as a substitute in November 1992. He was part of the squad that won the FA Cup and League Cup double in 1993, and went on to make more than 100 appearances for West Brom.

He also played for Middlesbrough, Blackburn and St Johnstone, but was forced to retire from the game in 2003 owing to a back injury.

Former England and Arsenal goalkeeper, David Seaman, posted on Twitter after hearing the news.

He said: "I'm so saddened by the death of my great friend and teammate, Alan Miller. He was such a larger-than-life character and always great fun to be around. I'll really miss you, mate."

Ian Wright, another ex-Arsenal teammate, said: "Going to miss you, Maxi. A great man, and such an important part of a special time at the club. Never once turned down any of the strikers for extra shooting practice, no matter how hard you had been training.

"You always put the team first. Rest in peace, my friend."

Man fined £10k for breaching COVID-19 restrictions

Essex Police have issued a £10,000 fine to a man involved in holding an unlicensed music event in Theydon Bois.

The penalty was given as part of COVID-19 health protection regulations, which are in place to sanction people who police believe have played a part in holding events that breach restrictions.

Police were called to an event, off Forest Drive in Theydon Bois, at around 11pm on Saturday, June 5. Around 200 people were attending the illegal event.

Officers arrested a 38-year-old man, who was playing music to the crowd, on suspicion of breaching COVID-19 restrictions.

The man, from Dunmow, has now been issued with a £10,000 penalty notice for holding or being involved in the holding of a gathering of more than 50 people, the largest number allowed under coronavirus restrictions at the time.

Superintendent Nick Morris, who has led the Essex

Police response to the COVID-19 pandemic, said: "In this case, the individual made a conscious decision to be involved in a blatant breach of the regulations, and therefore it was appropriate for us to take enforcement action.

"This unlicensed event took place at a time when positive coronavirus cases were beginning to rise. Unfortunately, that trend has continued and events such as this are unhelpful given how hard the people of Essex have worked to suppress the virus.

"We have taken a consistent approach to policing the COVID-19 regulations since the beginning of the pandemic and that is to first engage with people, explain the regulations and encourage them to do the right thing.

"Only when those options have been exhausted will we consider enforcement action."

Dangerous pothole fixed following complaints

Following a number of complaints from local residents about the large pothole next to the Tesco parking bays, Theydon Bois Parish Council (TBPC) stepped up to help resolve the problem. The council contacted three parties – Tesco, the Queen Victoria pub and Essex County Council – to find out who owns the piece of land. The pothole had become dangerous and needed to be repaired urgently. After all parties denied owning the land, TBPC contacted solicitors, who discovered that the land is owned by McMullens, the brewery that runs the Queen Victoria. The Land Title documents were submitted to McMullens, who agreed to repair the pothole at their expense. This work was carried out over the weekend of June 12. The council thanked McMullens for completing the work so promptly.

Police search for missing 21-year-old

Police are appealing for information concerning the whereabouts of a man from East London after stating that he could be in Theydon Bois. Hussam Bashraheil was last seen in the Poplar area on Thursday, January 14. The 21-year-old was reported missing in February. Officers from the Central East Missing Persons Unit are carrying out enquiries and believe he could have travelled to Theydon Bois on Saturday, January 30. Hussam's picture (right) shows how he could look now, but he also may have grown facial hair since the photo was taken. Detective Constable Amanda Lloyd said: "Hussam's family is understandably concerned about his disappearance, which is completely out of character. "We are following a number of lines of enquiry and one hypothesis is that Hussam is camping in a tent." If anyone has seen or heard from Hussam, contact the police on 101 and quote reference CAD 5397/13Apr.

Find your perfect GARDEN ROOM

If you are considering building a garden room, it is important to understand the different types and the benefits of each.

POTTING SHED OR GREENHOUSE

If you are into gardening or want to learn more about it, then having a designated potting shed or greenhouse can be helpful. A room like this can help you break into the world of gardening or expand your interest in growing different kinds of plants. If you have a small garden with minimal planting space, this is a good option for you, as you can grow a lot in one area.

PURPOSE-BUILT GARDEN ROOM

A purpose-built garden room is a more expensive option for those looking for some more living space. This style can work with any type of house. It is the most versatile option as it can be used for different purposes, such as a home office, a place to entertain friends, a playroom for children, a home gym, a garden kitchen, a lounge bar area or even a guest room. Also for this option, you may want to consider adding a water and electricity supply, which will allow you to add components such as a sink, fridge/freezer, TV, computer, lighting, electronic gym equipment and so on, depending on your needs. With a purpose-built room, you will have to ensure that you have a strong foundation for more stability; if not, this will need to be created.

POP-UP TENT

A pop-up tent is a great, affordable option for those looking for something quick to assemble that is also easy to remove. They come in many different sizes to suit different gardens. It can be a playroom for children, a place to entertain friends, a place to keep plants safe from the elements, or even for camping. This option is mostly suitable for the summer months.

SHEPHERD'S HUT

A shepherd's hut can be used as a place to entertain guests when you grill or cook outdoors. This type of garden room works best with country-style homes. You could use the hut to create a guest house, a chill-out zone, hobby room or home office. This option also requires a foundation to be added underneath.

DIY TOOLBOX BBQ

HOW TO TURN AN OLD TOOLBOX INTO A BBQ

BBQ season is fast approaching, but if the thought of forking out hundreds for a BBQ that's likely to get about two weekends of usage before the great British summer is over is not appealing, we've got the solution.

WHAT YOU WILL NEED

An old metal toolbox with drawers | Barbecue grills | Metal rivets | Handles to connect to the side of the box | A leather belt | A drill | An angle grinder or hacksaw

1: PREPARE THE TOOLBOX

The first step is to remove any tools, give the toolbox a thorough clean, and mark the bottoms of the drawers for where you wish to make the cuts needed to create the gaps for resting the barbecue grills.

TOP TIP: Drilling holes in each corner will make it easier to create clean cuts.

2: CUT THE DRAWER BASES OUT

Use your angle grinder or hacksaw to cut out the bottom of the drawers. Then sand the edges of the remaining material, using a sanding disc on your grinder.

TOP TIP: Wear the appropriate safety gloves and goggles, and take your time to make accurate cuts.

3: CUT THE BARBECUE GRILLS

Next, you'll want to take your barbecue grills, determine where they will be placed on your toolbox BBQ and then cut them. The angle grinder or hacksaw is your friend once more.

TOP TIP: Sanding the grills after they've been cut will remove any sharp edges.

4: ASSEMBLE THE UNIT

With each drawer of the toolbox now fitted with a barbecue grill, it's time to put them back. Small drawers at the top can store accessories while the bottom drawer will be where the coals are placed. The drawer above will be where cooking occurs.

TOP TIP: You can fit a temperature gauge by drilling a hole and bolting it in place.

5: MAKE THE FINISHING TOUCHES

If you're only planning to use the BBQ at home, you're done. However, if you drill and bolt some handles to the side and then attach the belt, you'll have the perfect portable BBQ.

TOP TIP: Remember that cooking should occur on paving slabs or other materials that do not conduct heat or pose safety risks. Avoid wood and grass at all costs.

Forest Feast

A basic guide to foraging

Not only is foraging a brilliant way to explore and learn about the great outdoors, but the food you pick is also healthy and organic. Plus, chances are you'll be cutting down on your weekly food bill. Here are five tips for food foraging:

ONE: Be brave. From garlic to mushrooms, berries to nettles, dandelion to seaweed, one of the attractions of foraging is appreciating the variety that exists on our doorsteps, so be brave and bold in what you choose.

TWO: Be certain. Everything you pick, however small and seemingly insignificant, is taking away from the flora and fauna, so be absolutely certain that what you're choosing is edible before you take it.

THREE: Be careful. Some parts of nature's rich bounty just won't agree with the human constitution. Mushrooms generally get referenced as the items we should be most careful about foraging, but hemlock, foxgloves and the ominous fool's parsley are all to be swerved.

FOUR: Be sparing. While it's tempting to bask in a spread of tastes, flavours and textures by picking enough to see out the winter, true foraging – as outlined in the Wildlife and Countryside Act of 1981 – is about taking small amounts to satisfy our immediate appetite, always ensuring there is something left for someone else.

FIVE: Be respectful. While it's a day out for us, remember we're actually encroaching on plant and animal habitats. Try to stick to designated routes, abiding by farmland, private property and nature reserve guidelines and designated boundaries to prevent disruption to animals and other people.

KIDS

PAINT YOUR OWN WATER BOTTLE

Keeping your kids hydrated can be a challenge – at least, it was before you helped them create their very own, personalised water bottle.

Cheap and easy to do (depending on the design you choose), this craft requires minimal supervision.

YOU WILL NEED:

1 white stainless steel water bottle | A paint brush | Acrylic paint in their chosen colours | Gloss sealant or varnish

HOW TO MAKE:

1. CHOOSE YOUR DESIGN

Depending on the age of your child and their personal preferences, there is a wide range of different designs you can choose from, some of which are super simple and others that are a bit more complex.

Design ideas for younger kids: Hand prints, flowers, fruits, footballs, princesses, animals, robots or vehicles such as cars, trains or aeroplanes.

Ideas for older kids: Just their name (à la Love Island), their favourite sports team, floral or geometric patterns, or their favourite artist.

2. PENCIL ON YOUR DESIGN

If you have younger children, you may want to do this step for them, although if they want to have a go themselves, why not let them? Lightly draw their chosen design directly onto the water bottle. Don't worry about pencil marks, as the paint will cover them up.

3. PAINT YOUR DESIGN

Starting with the outline of your words or images, carefully start painting. Once you have finished the outline, fill in the rest of the shape. If you are worried about smudging, leave each part to dry before moving on to the next.

4. APPLY GLOSS SEALANT OR VARNISH

Once you have finished painting your entire design, leave your water bottle to dry completely. Then all you need to do is apply a coat of gloss sealant or varnish as per the manufacturer's instructions.

Adopt me!

Whether you are looking to get your first pet or you want to add another furry friend to your household, there are many reasons why you should choose to adopt a pet from a rescue centre or animal shelter.

The chance to save a life

Sadly, even with the best will in the world, some shelters are forced to euthanise animals owing to a lack of space and resources. By adopting a pet from one of these over-stretched facilities, you could be literally saving an animal's life.

To fight against puppy mills

When you buy a puppy from an online seller, or even from a pet store, it is highly likely that this animal came from a puppy mill. In factory-style breeding facilities that always put profit above welfare, puppies from puppy mills are often kept in shockingly bad conditions and tend to have behavioural problems as a result.

You will save money

If you are thinking about approaching a breeder, you should know that this can be a very expensive route to go down. However, when adopting from a shelter, animals are often microchipped, spayed or neutered, and vaccinated already, saving you a pretty penny.

You will get a great animal

Contrary to popular belief, most animals from rescue centres are not damaged or dangerous; they are happy and healthy pets that, through no fault of their own, have been made homeless.

Where can you adopt a pet?

Pet Adoption UK is a great online service that allows you to find a pet by relevant search criteria, such as age, type and location. With thousands of pets looking for homes each day, you can also search for local charities that have specific pets looking to be rehomed, such as Cats Protection and Dogs Trust.

WHAT CAN £250,000

buy you in each region in England?

Have you ever wondered where you can get more bang for your buck when it comes to property investment? With the extension of the stamp duty holiday until September on home purchases below £250,000, let's see what you can buy on or under budget in each region.

NORTH EAST: Asking prices in the North East have increased by 5.4 per cent in the last year, seeing one of the biggest changes across the country. However, you can still purchase a 3-bedroom property for a little more than £150,000.

NORTH WEST: Boasting the biggest price increase, up 7.3 per cent in the last 12 months, the average asking price for a 3-bedroom property in this region is £193,357. Expect to be able to find a 4-bedroom detached new build under the £250,000 threshold.

YORKSHIRE AND THE HUMBER: With prices up a modest 2.8 per cent, the average price of a 3-bedroom property is £188,538. Head to Bradford or Kingston upon Hull for the cheapest homes in the region.

MIDLANDS: The East Midlands is another fast-selling region and you can find some beautiful 3-bedroom detached homes in sought-after, semi-rural areas such as Sutton-on-Sea for around £245,000.

The West Midlands is one of the regions that takes the least amount of time to find a buyer (on average 65 days). You can purchase a 3-bedroom semi-detached house in the popular area of Maypole for £250,000.

EAST OF ENGLAND: The third most expensive region in the UK, you can still find some areas where your budget will stretch that little bit further, such as in Norwich where you can get a 3-bedroom detached home for £250,000.

SOUTH EAST: After London, this is the most expensive region in the UK, with the average asking price of 3-bedroom properties being £372,655. However, we did find a 3-bedroom end-of-terrace house for sale in Deal, Kent, with an asking price of £250,000.

SOUTH WEST: With prices rising by 3.4 per cent in the last 12 months and the average asking price of a 3-bedroom property at £291,861, head to the county of Somerset to find 3-bedroom terraced properties within budget.

LONDON: Surprisingly, London is the only region to experience a drop in prices in the last 12 months. However, the average price of a home is still twice the national average. Barking and Dagenham and Bexley are the cheapest boroughs in London, where you should be able to find a 2-bedroom flat within budget.

Excellent

150 years of the HIGHWAY CODE

MOTORING

The Highway Code is something everyone is familiar with – but only a few know where it comes from and what it first looked like.

Every driver in the UK has looked through the strict set of rules that make up the Highway Code at least once. However, only a few know its history and how it has changed over time. First introduced in April 1931, the original Highway Code looked a lot different from the one we know today.

The one-penny, 24-page-long booklet was the first attempt to reduce the whopping 7,000 fatalities occurring every year on the road – at a time when there were only 2.3 million motor vehicles circulating in Great Britain.

The first edition of the Highway Code contained some advice modern drivers will be familiar with – such as being mindful of others and always putting safety first. However, the original Highway Code did not mention mirrors (as they weren't a requirement for motor vehicles at the time) and recommended drivers sound their horn while overtaking.

Most of the pages of the original booklet were dedicated to describing hand signals to be used by drivers, pedestrians and police officers – recommendations that are today collected on a single page of the 189-page modern Highway Code.

The changes in motor technologies and road design led to the introduction of new colour illustrations, a dedicated section to motorway driving, and road sign diagrams – even if there were only 10 described in the second edition.

Although these facts might sound curious to today's drivers, the modern Highway Code still contains some unusual rules. For example, under the Road Traffic Act 1998, it is illegal for drivers to splash pedestrians with puddles, sleep in their car if drunk, and pay at a drive-through using their phone.

Undoubtedly, the Highway Code will continue to adapt to any future changes in technology and the road environment, but so far, the results of its introduction have been impressive. Today, while the number of cars in the UK has skyrocketed to 33 million, fewer than 1,700 people are killed on the road annually.

THE BRITISH

BRITAIN'S GREATEST SPORTING MOMENTS...

OPEN 1921

HOW THE 1921 BRITISH OPEN PAVED THE WAY FOR ONE OF THE BIGGEST COMPETITIONS IN GOLF

On the face of it, the 1921 British Open was nothing special. Last month marks a century since Jock Hutchison strode onto the immaculately manicured lawns at St Andrews to shoot a final-round 70 and force a play-off. There, he was matched against Roger Wethered, an Oxford student who had to be persuaded to stay for the eliminator as he had a prearranged cricket match to attend. As it was, Hutchison lifted the coveted trophy and won £75 in prize money.

In truth, the most notable player in the tournament was American Bobby Jones. Widely regarded as the best amateur the game ever produced, the then 19-year-old succumbed to his questionable temperament – one that he'd tame in later years – on the final round, causing him to rip up his playing card in disgust. He was instantly disqualified.

What was truly notable about the 1921 British Open wasn't the Open itself, nor a side tournament organised by a local newspaper, the Glasgow Herald Tournament, on June 7. In fact, it was a simple 10-a-side 'warm-up' at Gleneagles the day before that has become so significant. Designed to help visiting Americans shake off the rigours of a long boat trip across the Atlantic – including Hutchison, who had emigrated to the States from Scotland some years before – the visitors were pitted against their British counterparts.

The contest consisted of five foursomes in the morning and 10 singles matches in the afternoon, with the Brits emerging victorious.

The rivalry captured golf enthusiasts' imaginations. Subsequent battles took place in the years that followed, until 1927, when the contest was formalised and given the title of the major sponsor, Samuel Ryder... and the Ryder Cup was born.

That cup that FLOWETH OVER

CELEBRATING 150 YEARS OF THE FINEST DOMESTIC KNOCKOUT COMPETITION OF THEM ALL

Living in the UK, we can end up taking for granted many things that, to us, seem relatively customary, and the FA Cup arguably falls into that category.

Yet when you hear of overseas players having spent a childhood enthralled by the trials and triumphs of our most famous domestic knockout competition, the true status of the cup comes to the fore. We may have grown more complacent about a tournament that welcomes in almost 900 club sides every season, yet the FA Cup is truly a competition we should feel proud to marvel over.

July 20 marks the 150th anniversary of the FA Cup being formed. The competition began in 1871, with 15 teams allowed to enter. The final, which attracted a modest crowd of 2,000 people, saw Wanderers triumph over Royal Engineers.

In the modern game, COVID-19 notwithstanding, the semi-finals and final at Wembley are watched by crowds in excess of 85,000, and while other competitions – notably the Champions League – have wrestled some of the attention away, the competition retains huge importance for clubs of all sizes.

Over the years, it has given us tremendous, defining memories. The famous White Horse (Billie) Final of 1923 was notable for its crowd of an estimated 300,000 people inside Wembley; while the Stanley Matthews showpiece in 1953 saw the legendary footballer lead Blackpool to a 4–3 cup success against Bolton Wanderers.

The 1981 final saw Ricky Villa score a memorable Wembley goal to see off Manchester City, and seven years later the crazy gang defeated the culture club as Wimbledon stunned Liverpool 1–0. Of course, giant-killings on the road to Wembley (think Sutton United, Hereford United, Colchester United, Wrexham and more) are part of the fabric of this great competition.

The FA Cup may have had to evolve over recent years, but its value remains.
