Editor's notes...

Sean Purcell, Editor-in-chief

Hello and welcome to this month's edition of VISIONFrinton-on-Sea.

Many people have predicted the death of print media, and time and time again, the newspaper and magazine industry has proven more resilient than the prophets of doom! VISION is an example of a thriving publication that combines lifestyle articles and stories of local interest. The positive feedback we have received proves to us that hyper-local, high quality publications are a vital square in the patchwork quilt of the community.

As a result, I am excited that we have been able to take VISION to other villages and towns across North Essex and Suffolk by acquiring the established VISIONWoodbridge, and launching VISIONManningtreeMistley in June 2021.

This means over 18,000 homes and businesses will be receiving their own local editions of our magazine.

As a result of our growth, I am assuming the role of editor-in-chief across our business and am delighted to welcome Will Taylor to the role of editor of VISIONFrinton-on-Sea. You will increasingly see Will out and about, so please do say hello to him and offer any feedback. I will occasionally continue to write here, but I just wanted to say thank you to everyone who has supported us in the last year.

Take care, stay safe, see you soon!

Sean Purcell

WILLIAM & KATE:

Ten years on

Looking back to celebrate William and Kate as they reach the milestone of their 10th wedding anniversary.

When asked, Prince William and Kate Middleton, the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge, would doubtless suggest their first decade together as husband and wife has been wonderfully happy, uplifting and rewarding... albeit not without its challenges.

To most couples in the early throes of wedded bliss, the faint cry of babies and the bringing on of previously untapped levels of tiredness is a challenge enough. Yet it is to the couple's unending credit that they have never swayed away from their other royal duties, while having the ambition to pursue new challenges and initiatives. They are every bit the exemplars of people wanting the best for themselves, their family and those around them.

In isolation, those challenges of early parenthood – when we saw the arrival of Prince George in 2013, Princess Charlotte two years later and, most recently, Prince Louis in 2018 – are considerable, yet in recent years family events have compounded further the complications of life. The Prince Harry and Meghan Markle spat, notably, has left a devastating scar across how we perceive the Royal Family; then there's been the controversy of Prince Andrew and his links to Jeffrey Epstein; while the recent passing of William's grandfather, Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, has further shrouded the institution at a time when the rest of the nation is finally managing to pull away from the darkness.

Regardless, the April 29, 2021, anniversary reaffirms the couple as a modern inspiration. The ceremony, 10 years ago, was a typically lavish affair, albeit laced with the style and individuality that William and Kate have wanted to imprint in the way they go about their duties.

Former Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams conducted the ceremony, as 26 million UK viewers watched it live. The Royal Family and the Middletons picked up the bill for almost 2,000 guests, with 300 special invitees going on to an evening dinner hosted by Prince Charles.

Naturally, the day went off without issue, and their work as a couple was only just beginning. Few would disagree now that, during an era when criticism of the royals has been fervent, William and Kate uphold the value and purpose of the Royal Family, even if others in the clan are less proactive.

Over the past decade, the prince has committed huge amounts of time to mental health issues, as well as opening up to a more mainstream audience with his love of sport; while the Duchess of Cambridge's elegant embracing of the mum role model is notable for the familiarity it has with Princess Diana and her boys.

More than anything else, William and Kate speak to the world with the shutters up. Rarely have a royal couple been so close to the people, with honesty, humility and even the ability to laugh at themselves.

It gives all of us hope that not only will the Windsors overcome this recent spate of negative events but, more than that, with William and Kate excellent exemplars, the institution of marriage – itself in decline – once again has those to uphold its values.

"We have always loved being married," says William. "I think we are more in love now than before, and we both truly feel we have found a soulmate who will be there forever."

BETTER THAN Just O-kay

Vernon Kay and 25 years on camera

There's something unmistakable about people from Bolton – think Peter Kay, Paddy McGuinness, Amir Khan. Perhaps it's the accent, perhaps the exuding of confidence, or maybe it's just an ability to look on life with uplifted energy.

Whatever the mechanics are, Vernon Kay, like so many of his Greater Manchester contemporaries, has them in abundance.

The husband of Tess Daly, Kay has just celebrated 25 years on screen – no mean feat for someone once described in the Nineties by Mark Lamarr as “a lanky indie kid with bad taste in clothes”.

That's ironic, given that Kay was actually first spotted at Clothes Show Live when he agreed to strut some clothes in return for free drinks. He went on to model for several years before using the catwalk as a platform to launch a TV career.

One of the many to emerge through the T4 stable, he has gone on to present All Star Family Fortunes, Beat the Star and Splash!, among others. Yet it was his appearance in I'm a Celebrity... Get Me Out of Here last year that truly reacquainted the watching public with someone who has also spread his talent across radio DJing (notably on Radio 1) and even movie cameos (in Shaun of the Dead and Keith Lemon: The Film).

A father of two, Kay famously talks down his talents, but has become one of terrestrial TV's go-to faces. Most recently, his Game of Talents show has allowed him to rediscover some of the spontaneity so associated with those T4 days.

“A lot of entertainment is very sanitised these days and I want to bring energy and unpredictability back to it,” says Kay, who said recently he blames the sterility of autocue for ruining so much live programming.

“Having fun is difficult when you're reading words off a script, so I'd love us to get back to really immersive TV that throws off the shackles.”

The shackles are off, Vernon.

Horse ban overturned as petition hits 4,700 signatures

The ban on horses exercising on beaches at Frinton-on-Sea has been overturned by Tendring District Council after thousands of people signed a petition objecting to the new rule.

The petition was launched by Emma Overton, who regularly rides her horse on the beach, and received more than 4,700 signatures in just two weeks.

Before the decision to overturn the ban was made, Emma told the Daily Mail: "This decision is wrong and has really rubbed the horse community up the wrong way. There are not many places to get this full beach experience.

"The seawater is so good for the horses and it's a safe place. We want the council to rethink its decision and agree that we can all share the beach.

"It's really sad as horse riding along the beach is part of the town's heritage, and the Boxing Day hunt rides took place there for years."

Leader of the council, councillor Neil Stock OBE, confirmed that the decision was the wrong one and that the ban has now been overturned.

He said: "This decision was made by officers without the knowledge or consent of the cabinet at Tendring District Council. This was wrong and for that I can only apologise.

"Furthermore, I have requested the chief executive to ensure a full and thorough investigation be undertaken to find out the events surrounding this and ensure it does not happen again.

"Therefore, on behalf of Tendring District Council, I can confirm that there is no ban in force preventing horses using the district's beaches, including the one at Frinton.

"I am pleased that the local equestrian community are now developing their own code of practice, in consultation with the council, which will minimise the risk to public safety and ensure compliance with local by-laws."

Group's first litter pick is a success with 29 bags filled

The Frinton Frombles had a successful first group litter pick in April, as 25 people armed with sticks and bags struggled against the cold and wind to battle the litter of Frinton-on-Sea.

The Greensward and promenade may look litter-free, but if you are determined, as this group was, you can find it.

Under beach huts, among the bushes and brambles, they rummaged and managed to fill 29 bags, as well as retrieve a barbecue, a deflated dinghy, a sun lounger, several tyres and a parasol.

A post on the group's Facebook page read: "Thank you so much to everyone who gave up their Saturday morning to join us. It was great to meet you all and it really will make a huge difference to our environment.

"Keep watching for the date of the next event and try to join us if you can. Please let us know if there is an area that you think needs to be tackled.

"The litter has all been securely tied and deposited at an agreed location for collection by the council."

For more information, search 'Frinton Frombles' on Facebook.

New retail store opens at shopping centre

The Original Factory Shop opened a new store in Frinton-on-Sea at The Triangle Shopping Centre in April.

The retailer sells groceries and essential items at supermarket prices or cheaper, with leading brands including Coca-Cola, Pedigree, Finish, Walkers and Andrex.

New stores opened in Frinton-on-Sea and Whitby in Yorkshire on April 12, following other recently opened stores in Nailsea, Somerset, and Holsworthy, Devon.

In the past six months, the retailer has also launched its first transactional website, as well as a reserve-and-collect service available at its stores nationwide.

On the day before the grand opening, the store posted an update on Facebook, saying: "Tomorrow is the day we can finally open alongside the rest of The Triangle Shopping Centre. We are adding the finishing touches to the store, and cannot wait to welcome you all in.

"A massive thank you for all the help we have received from other stores in our area. What a team we have."

Residents enjoy special garden party at retirement home

Residents in Frinton were invited to take part in Churchill Retirement Living's garden party at the Cooper Lodge facility as restrictions eased in April.

Guests were encouraged to take along a family member or friend to the event on April 28.

On its website, a spokesperson said: "Spring has arrived and, with brighter days around the corner, it's time to get back to making special memories."

Guests received a treat box and a £20 Marks & Spencer voucher, as well as the opportunity to meet the Cooper Lodge team at the communal gardens.

Churchill's regional marketing executive, Dawn Coster, said: "Traditionally, our garden parties are the perfect opportunity for local people to come and experience first-hand the fun and sociable lifestyle that comes with a new Churchill apartment.

"This year, of course, things are a little different, and we have lots of measures in place to maintain our excellent track record of keeping everyone safe throughout the pandemic."

Lockdown forces charity shop's closure in town

Essex & Herts Air Ambulance Trust (EHAAT) has confirmed that its charity shop in Frinton-on-Sea will not be reopening its doors following the easing of government restrictions on April 12.

During lockdown, a thorough review of EHAAT's retail fundraising was undertaken. The executive team and trustees are supporting the changes recommended in the review in order to ensure the profitability of the charity's shops going forward.

Donna Lee, EHAAT's head of retail, said: "This has been a difficult decision to make. Even before the pandemic, despite all the hard work of our staff and volunteers, it had become clear that the number of people visiting the Frinton shop was lower than we anticipated and therefore projected income targets were not being met.

"I know how much our staff and dedicated shop volunteers will miss seeing their regular customers. We would like to thank all our loyal supporters who have enjoyed shopping with us from when the shop opened back in February 2019.

"I am sure the people of Frinton will understand the reasons behind this closure decision. We very much hope the community will continue supporting the charity in other ways."

For more information, visit www.ehaat.org

Open gardens event edges closer as tickets go on sale

As reported in the February issue of VISION Frinton-on-Sea, later this year will see the first nationally coordinated Royal National Lifeboat Institution (RNLI) Open Gardens initiative.

The town will play a lead role in this new national initiative, with the local event taking place on Saturday, June 26, and benefiting the Walton and Frinton Lifeboat Station Funding Guild.

At least eight diverse Frinton gardens will open to the paying public from 10am to 4pm on the day. Tickets to view all the gardens are £5 per adult, while children under 16 who are accompanied by an adult visit for free.

A spokesperson on behalf of the Walton and Frinton RNLI Fundraising Guild said: "This is always an excellent opportunity to bring our community and visitors together to witness the wonderful results of the hard work and committed dedication carried out to make our Frinton gardens look beautiful."

All gardens are within easy walking distance of each other and are close to shops, restaurants, cafes and coffee shops. There will be the opportunity to partake of simple refreshments in a couple of the gardens.

To pre-order tickets, call 07867 524016 between 8.30am and 5.30pm or email frinton.gardens@gmail.com

MP welcomes improved bus services

Giles Watling, MP for Frinton-on-Sea, has said residents in his constituency will benefit from a new bus strategy.

The strategy will require Essex County Council to work in partnership with bus operators to improve services in order to be eligible for future funding.

Councils and operators will be expected to provide simpler single bus fares with daily price caps, more services in the evenings and at weekends, integrated services and ticketing across all transport modes in the area, and easy-to-access information.

Only councils and operators who work to meet these requirements will continue to receive £100million per month emergency COVID-19 funding for the sector.

Improving services across the country will help ensure more people choose to use buses rather than cars, as the country aims to build a greener future following the pandemic.

Mr Watling MP said: "Good bus services can have a transformational role in places like the Clacton constituency, unlocking job opportunities, boosting businesses and supporting economic growth.

"At the last general election, I stood on a manifesto that promised to level up and improve transport connections across our area, and this boost to our local bus services will help to deliver on that promise."

Reed & BAMBOO interiors

HOW TO INCORPORATE REEDS AND BAMBOO INTO YOUR LIVING SPACES

We're more accustomed to seeing reeds and bamboo in outdoor settings, be they Mediterranean beachscapes, rustic country idylls or even Amazonian environments. And yet, the intensity of the recent trend that celebrates bringing the outdoors indoors has, inevitably, reached these attractive, affordable, hardwearing and versatile materials.

Bamboo, in particular, is en vogue. As a room divider it's smart and flexible; as stair rails it offers definition, detail and strength; while for picture frames and wall panels there is a smoothness and shapeliness that invites other items.

There's even been a move towards bamboo ceiling panels, harking back to thoughts of Asia and the Orient.

The real stepping stone to using bamboo comes in being able to alter our perception of what this evergreen perennial actually looks like. In its raw form it's long, light and stubborn, but breaking down the base material to narrower, or slimmer and shorter strands means embracing devastatingly beautiful decorations, particularly when it comes to lampshades, with bamboo offering excellent delivery of light.

And going back to that idea of strength, consider chairs, headboards and storage furniture, with each piece offering a brightness that pulls into focus echoes of northern territories such as Scandinavia and Canada.

What's more, because bamboo is a sustainable material, it's a green option. And with that comes easy maintenance – cleaning is simple, quick and stress-free.

Reeds are often regarded as more economical than the trusty bamboo. They don't come from the same plant, but can mimic colour, strength and style by being weaved together – often reinforced by wire. The look is great and, if anything, can allow ambitious interior designers to intensify the detail on show.

HOW TO CLEAN YOUR Curtains

Did you know that you should be cleaning your curtains at least once a year and preferably once every three to six months? Although this may not sound like a lot, can you honestly remember the last time you gave yours a good wash? If not, don't worry. Discover below how to clean your curtains in five simple steps.

STEP ONE: Remove all the hooks and curtain weights and loosen the heading tape. If you are worried about the fabric shrinking, you may want to let down the hem. Take outside and shake well to remove any dust.

STEP TWO: Check the washing label of your curtains to see if they are machine washable. If they are made using a lightweight fabric such as cotton, they probably are. However, if they are large and heavy you may want to have them dry cleaned or wash them by hand. This is also the case for curtains made from velvet, wool, silk or chenille.

STEP THREE: If machine washable, place your curtains in your washing machine and add your usual detergent. Set the machine to either a "delicates" cycle or a cool wash with a slow spin to avoid damage.

STEP FOUR: If you want to iron your curtains, you should do this while they are still damp. Work lengthways, on the wrong side, stretching the fabric gently to prevent seams from puckering. If not, simply hang to dry either outside if the weather permits or inside until they are at least 95 per cent dry. Do not rub or wring out your curtains.

STEP FIVE: Thoroughly dust and clean your curtain tracks, windows and sills before hanging your clean curtains back up. You should also try to incorporate a weekly curtain vacuum into your cleaning schedule to keep them in tip-top condition for longer.

WHY BUY A beanbag?

If you are wanting to update the furniture in your home without breaking the bank, you may want to consider investing in bean bag furniture. Synonymous with comfort and cosiness, the benefits of bean bags are numerous.

1. LOOKS STYLISH

Furniture for your home needs to look the part as well as feel it. Luckily, bean bags come in a wide variety of colours and designs, meaning you are guaranteed to be able to find one that complements your home's interior. Plus, you can accessorise your bag with cushions and throws in the same way you would a sofa.

2. OFFERS PORTABILITY

If you have a small home or limited space in your living room, a bean bag is a great option as it can be moved from one room to another with ease, owing to its lightweight nature. It can also be stored away when not in use.

3. EASY TO MAINTAIN

Bean bags come in a wide variety of different fabrics, meaning you can pick the perfect one for your needs. Choose from faux leather that is super-easy to clean, cotton that is long-lasting, and even waterproof and UV resistant material for outdoor use.

4. SAVES YOU MONEY

Even with the seemingly never-ending furniture shop sales, it is still expensive to buy a new three-piece suite for your home, with prices potentially running into the thousands. Fortunately, bean bag furniture is extremely cost efficient and you can choose from single chairs, loungers, three-seaters and more.

5. IMPROVES YOUR HEALTH

If you suffer with either muscle or joint pain, then bean bag chairs can help you by moulding to your individual shape and offering optimal support. They can also help to relieve tension headaches and correct poor posture.

A PRINCE among men

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF HRH PRINCE PHILIP, DUKE OF EDINBURGH

Meticulous, measured, majestic and more than a little eccentric... and that was just the funeral procession – HRH Prince Philip departed these strange shores just two months short of his 100th birthday, leaving behind a partner so hopelessly and publicly bereaved, and a nation of admirers wondering who could live up to the Duke of Edinburgh's lofty lovability.

Rarely is someone's passing met with almost universal solemnity and respect. It appears we all admired Prince Philip for different reasons – his faithful devotion to Queen Elizabeth II; his stolid determination to affect positive change; his humorous tendency to stray over the boundary of political correctness; or perhaps simply because he embodied so wholly that 'grandad' figure. Whatever it is, whatever it was, he had it, and in the stuffy silliness of modern media, he was exactly the antidote so many of us needed.

On Saturday, April 17, Prince Philip was laid to rest. In a ceremony he planned and choreographed himself, his coffin was lifted onto the back of a modified Land Rover Defender. Decorated in a stunning matt bottle green, the hearse was Philip's own creation, while various other touches clearly bore the mark of a man who wanted to slip away with energetic, original reflections of life, not the formal bleakness of most ceremonies.

There was the empty seat on the carriage, decorated with his blanket, flat cap, whip, brown gloves and pot containing a sugar cube for the ponies; then his military cap and sword on a coffin adorned with the most beautiful personal standard flag which referenced his overseas roots, family name and Edinburgh Castle. Meanwhile, various other marine references were present during the ceremony, each a nod to his cherished naval career, which came to an end in 1951.

In truth, there was so much of this special life to be celebrated. He was born on June 10, 1921 in Corfu, his family holding both Greek and Danish royal heritage. Banished from their homeland, he spent parts of his early life in France and Germany before settling in Britain.

It wasn't an easy childhood – his mother was admitted to a psychiatric institution, and he was separated from his family after landing in the UK. He studied at Cheam School before relocating to Scotland. He served in the British Navy during the Second World War, despite members of his family effectively fighting for the opposition as part of the Axis.

He denounced his Greek and Danish titles and adopted the surname Mountbatten – from his mother's side – so he could marry Princess Elizabeth in 1947 at Westminster Abbey, eight years after they had first met.

He was doted on by his four children – Prince Charles, Princess Anne, Prince Andrew and Prince Edward (Prince Edward will now take his title) – and never wavered from his role as the Queen's consort... in fact, the longest in royal history. A passionate supporter of everything she did, he also undertook his own projects, notably the Duke of Edinburgh's Award which, to this day, continues to promote youth achievement across many different disciplines.

He enjoyed polo, boat racing, piloting aeroplanes, painting and antiques, and while deteriorating health in recent years proved concerning, it was supposed he had recovered from a recent stay at St Bartholomew's Hospital; yet he slipped away peacefully on April 9, 2021 at Windsor Castle.

In total, almost 14 million of us watched the Duke of Edinburgh's funeral, and even the staunchest anti-royal must have pitted the senior Windsors being forced to display their grief in public. Such are the realities of a state funeral, and so it is conditioned that the only follow-on from a life played out in the public eye is a memorial on the same terms.

Prince Philip was born of a different time and a different generation of royalty, yet he fit so wonderfully into modern-day society and brought joy to many.

His unique, charismatic, eccentric take on the world is something we just don't see very often these days, with most public figures keeping their cards close to their chests for fear of repercussions.

His truly one-of-a-kind presence will be sorely missed by the Royal Family, the nation and the world.

CHECKING IN

WHY PROTECTING THE YOUNG PEOPLE AROUND YOU MEANS INSISTING ON THE RELEVANT CHECKS

In the past decade or so, Criminal Record Checks (CRCs) have become commonplace in situations where organisations need to safeguard the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults. And this can be the case in everything from 9-5 employers ensuring their staff have been honest in job applications, to volunteers working for charities, right through to local sports teams safeguarding the welfare of young players.

The checks are done by the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) and take the form of a simple and relatively cheap process that takes a couple of weeks. The application can be submitted by the individual or an employee (but only after an offer of employment has been made – in other words, for a successful applicant, not for an interview candidate).

The request goes to the DBS, where a criminal background check will be made. A certificate is subsequently issued that lists any convictions.

The process has become an essential part of verifying people who are in positions of responsibility where young and vulnerable people are concerned, and replaces what was previously a somewhat more convoluted process between the Criminal Records Bureau and the Independent Safeguarding Authority. By merging these two organisations into one entity, the DBS, in 2012, the government was able to streamline welfare checks, which meant not only a safer and more comprehensive system, but also one where people could begin helping and assisting youngsters without having to go through swarms of red tape.

Of course, while a DBS check will list noted convictions, organisations can and do undertake additional protection, welfare and safeguarding training. And as ever, as parents, the most effective reference to those helping our children comes through our own communication with both our loved ones and the organisation – it always pays to be vigilant.

with Enhanced Provision for Hearing-Impaired Pupils

The school has an 18-place Enhanced Provision catering for deaf children with EHCPs from across the whole of North East Essex.

Children can start with us in Nursery aged 3 years.

The Enhanced Provision is staffed by Teachers of the Deaf, teaching assistants who are specifically trained to work with deaf pupils, and a midday assistant. All of these sign to a minimum of BSL 1, most to BSL 2.

Our signing choir is open to children across the school so they can sign too!

A Total Communication approach is used, meaning we use speech, sign, gesture and other visual ways of communicating according to the needs of the individual child. Children have access to regular BSL instruction and Speech and Language Therapy as required.

We can offer support to parents in dealing with any issues that arise in raising a deaf child.

Children wear radio aids in class to give them the best access to the teacher's voice and all mainstream classrooms have sound field systems which enhance the quality of sound.

Children have opportunities to work with a Teacher of the Deaf on a daily basis.

What OFSTED says:

"For pupils in the hearing impaired unit, individual needs are precisely met. Adults provide a language rich environment so pupils build their vocabulary and reading skills. Work demonstrates good progress and pride in their learning." (2018 report)

How Acupuncture Can Help

Acupuncture can improve blood supply to local tissues, increasing removal of waste produced by metabolism from local tissues, solving the congestion and pain caused by local tissue inflammation.

In modern research, it was found that after having acupuncture, the patient's blood circulation was promoted, particularly inside the capillary blood vessels.

Jicama

The jicama, also known as a Mexican yam bean, is a starchy root vegetable that is recognisable by its thick, brown skin and turnip shape. Low in calories and sweet in taste, this veg makes a great alternative to the humble potato.

Jicama plant is safe to eat, as the rest, including the beans and flowers, contain rotenone, a natural insecticide that can be toxic to humans in high doses. You should also remove the brown skin before consuming.

HOW TO USE JICAMA

- > Slice thinly and add raw to a vegetable salad or Mexican fruit salad for added crunch
- > Sauté with other veg such as broccoli and carrots
- > Use as a substitute for water chestnuts in a stir-fry
- > Bake in the oven or place in an air fryer for healthy chips

WHAT DOES JICAMA TASTE LIKE?

The jicama has been described as a cross between a potato and a pear owing to its distinctive flavour which is both nutty and sweet. Its flesh is juicy and crunchy and, because it has a fairly mild taste, it blends well with other flavours.

WHAT ARE THE HEALTH BENEFITS OF JICAMA?

The perfect vegetable for people with diabetes, the jicama is naturally low in sugar but still sweet to taste. It is also high in fibre, a great source of vitamin C and low in fat and calories.

HOW TO STORE JICAMA

The most important thing to remember when storing jicama is that you must keep it dry, as any moisture can cause rot and mould. Store unwrapped at room temperature if still whole or, once cut, wrap tightly in cling film and store in the fridge for up to one week. Alternatively, wrap a whole jicama in foil and freeze for up to one year.

IS JICAMA SAFE TO EAT?

It is worth noting that only the root vegetable of the

RICE, RICE baby

When you rinse rice before cooking, chances are you let the water simply run down the drain. However, you may think twice about wasting this leftover liquid when you discover its many beauty benefits below.

WHAT MAKES RICE WATER BENEFICIAL?

Rice water is packed with vitamins, minerals and amino acids which are all needed for maintaining healthy skin, hair and nails. It contains ferulic acid, an antioxidant that helps to nourish skin and nails, as well as allantoin that has healing properties. For your hair, rice water contains inositol, which strengthens your follicles and reduces surface friction.

BEAUTY USES FOR RICE WATER

Facial cleanser: Give your skin a boost of goodness by pouring rice water onto a cotton pad and massaging over your face, both in the morning and before bed.

Acne treatment: Apply to spots to help reduce redness to act as an astringent and to prevent future breakouts.

Age spot treatment: If you suffer with age spots or skin discolouration, mix 1 tsp of rice water with two drops of fractionated coconut oil and massage into your face and neck.

Hair conditioner: For those with dry or brittle hair, apply rice water and a few drops of lavender essential oil after shampooing, leave for 10 minutes and rinse with cold water.

Nail treatment: To help your nails grow faster, soak them in a bowl of rice water for five minutes once a day. This can also help to reduce the signs of ageing on your hands.

HOW TO MAKE YOUR OWN RICE WATER

- > Rinse ½ cup of uncooked rice to remove any dirt or impurities
- > Place the rinsed rice in a bowl and cover it with two cups of water
- > Swirl and leave to soak for 30 minutes
- > Strain the rice and set aside the water
- > Store the rice water in an airtight container. It will keep for one week in the fridge.

Hello hay, FAREWELL FEVER

As the weather gets warmer and the pollen count grows, hay fever sufferers across the nation lament. If you are already in the throes of a hay fever attack, you don't have to turn to over-the-counter medications. Instead, try one of the below natural remedies.

VITAMIN C

A natural antihistamine, vitamin C can be found in oranges, lemons and grapefruits, as well as red bell peppers. As vitamin C cannot be stored in the body, you need to offer consistent and low doses to support your nasal lining and minimise the effects of hay fever.

HONEY

If you know anyone who sells local honey, then this is the perfect hay fever remedy for you. With the ability to desensitise your body to other pollens, the bee pollen found in honey can help to significantly reduce the most common hay fever symptoms, including a runny nose and persistent sneezing.

GARLIC

Known for boosting your immune system, garlic can also act as a decongestant which can help to alleviate minor hay fever symptoms. This potent plant is also an anti-inflammatory and a good source of quercetin, a natural antihistamine.

PETROLEUM JELLY

Not just a lip saviour when the weather turns cold, petroleum jelly has been praised by hay fever sufferers for its ability to trap pollen before it enters the nose. Simply apply a thin layer inside your lower nostrils to prevent your symptoms from becoming any worse.

CHAMOMILE TEA

High in antioxidants, as well as being a natural antihistamine, chamomile tea can be drunk to act as an anti-inflammatory agent. Alternatively, choose to place cooled teabags on swollen, red eyes for an instant calming effect.

CHILLI PEPPERS

Chilli peppers contain capsaicin which, when eaten, opens up the nasal passages, helping to reduce congestion caused by hay fever.

My Journey as a Belly Dancer" is Elizabeth's true story that delves into the glitz and dangers of a world she found herself caught up in as a professional Belly Dancer. After a broken relationship in Barristers' Chambers she went on holiday to Morocco where she experienced the strong sense of 'déjà vu' whilst watching an Arabic Dancer perform at the Hotel. Returning to London she learnt the dance and Fate led her to a Turkish Cypriot Restaurant where she became professional, but whilst dancing in the Clubs and Restaurants as a Belly Dancer at night she carried on working for Solicitors in London during the day. Many years later, someone from Elizabeth's past tracks her down, saying he has such fond memories of her and wants to get in touch, but he happens to be a famous celebrity.

GARDENING

GARDEN OF LIFE

MOISTURE in the air

In the final part of our series that shows how even the most urban garden can be a haven for the wonders of wildlife and the nurturing of nature, we look at the role of moisture in this wondrous ecosystem.

While we may bemoan the washing getting wet when we forget to bring it indoors, the cycle of moisture in our gardens is perhaps nature's greatest wonder of them all. Consider it – we've all gazed out across our lawns or poked around a plant on a window ledge and known that when nature either dries out or floods, the end is nigh.

On a local level, moisture in our plant soil is the difference between a flowering plant and a wilting one; or perhaps a ripe, juicy tomato and one that fails to develop.

On a national, mass-market scale then, getting the moisture content right means looking after the production of every variety of crop, for both human and animal consumption.

And yet, controlling moisture goes far beyond even that, because the density of water in the soil is vital in regulating the exchange of water and heat energy between plants and the atmosphere, via evaporation. This leads to the production of weather patterns all across the world, and especially determines levels of precipitation.

Even on its way into the atmosphere, moisture is stabilising our climate, plus helping animal life that's dependent on perspiration to regulate internal body temperature – something that's key to survival.

It all adds up to the fact that the humble bit of soil around your petunias is, in the most minute of ways, contributing towards the maintenance and welfare of the flora and fauna and of people's lives in towns, villages and cities all across the world, whether their fear is flash floods, droughts or even potential starvation.

MAY BIRTH FLOWER OF THE MONTH:

Lily

The May birth flower is the delicate and sweetly scented lily. Available in a wide range of vibrant colours, each shade conveys a different meaning. Planted as bulbs, lilies are perfect for containers and flower borders, making them a great choice for small and large gardens alike.

What does the lily symbolise?

As mentioned above, the lily holds many different meanings which are dependent upon its colour:

- > Pink lilies symbolise femininity and admiration
- > Red lilies represent love and passion
- > Orange lilies convey confidence and energy
- > Yellow lilies are used to say thank you
- > White lilies portray purity and rebirth

What does this birth flower say about you?

If your birth flower is the lily, you are said to be practical, with the ability to tackle even the most challenging situations. Contrary to the toxic lily flower, you are sweet, tender and with a huge capacity to love, meaning that others always feel safe in your company.

How to grow lilies

Lilies are planted as bulbs and are ideal for placing in containers or in sunny borders. There are two main types of lily that you can choose from: Oriental lilies and Asiatic lilies. The former give off an intense aroma and are large in stature, whereas the latter are available in a wide variety of vibrant colours but are sadly unscented.

Lily bulbs thrive in moist, acid soils, so if placed in a container, be sure to add ericaceous compost.

Do lilies come back every year?

Lilies are perennial flowers which mean that they will return year after year. Requiring minimal care if planted correctly, make sure you do not overcrowd your bulbs and place in full sun where possible.

Buy or Lease?

The ins and outs of buying versus leasing, and which one you should choose

The trend in modern motoring, certainly where new cars are concerned, is to lease rather than buy. The advantages of leasing speak for themselves – you'll need to put down only a small amount of money upfront, your monthly payments can be configured according to the budget you set out at the start, and you have the option of upgrading the car every few years so you're always rocking about town in the latest model.

There's also the reassurance of knowing that if something goes wrong with the vehicle, you'll be covered by the manufacturer's warranty; and that fear of the unexpected, when you hear that horrible, grinding sound... well, it's someone else's problem!

You'll also find that road tax can be covered, and you may even get the vehicle delivered to your door.

The appeal of what is, in effect, borrowing a vehicle is at odds with the way we view other things in life. Home ownership, for instance, is taken as preferable over renting, yet owning a car outright is fraught with perils.

If you can afford the entire cost of a vehicle upfront you're immediately into the realms of depreciation the moment you turn the key in the ignition – and of course any repair bills fall to you and you only.

That said, you won't have to subscribe to any mileage limitations, nor will you be dealing with broker fees. And while many pay for new cars through PCP (personal contract purchase) or HP (hire purchase) finance, you do have a potentially substantial asset ready to be cashed in when you decide you want to switch to another vehicle.

Buying over leasing very much comes down to personal circumstances – what's right for you will be wrong for someone else. As ever, do the maths and, more than anything else, drive safely!

How to make money back on your online purchases

While the three lockdowns we've endured since March 2020 may not have done much for our mental health, they have at least, as very small consolation, given new energy to consumerism. From shops and online retailers needing to find new ways to connect with a marketplace unable to act in the same way as before, to huge quantities of dormant pre-lockdown stock needing to be shifted, it's a good time to be on the lookout for deals.

Sure enough, in a world that is more driven than ever towards consumerism, online tracking of purchases through cashback sites can provide an additional useful bonus to purchases – they might even determine which retailer you buy from in the first place.

Sites such as Quidco and TopCashBack advertise cashback offers from thousands of retailers. Simply follow the link to Nike, Next, New Look or whoever has a product you desire, and make a purchase, which will be tracked using cookies. You will have been given a percentage cashback level – usually between one and 10 per cent. A few weeks later, that cashback will appear on the platform, ready to be withdrawn into your bank account or converted into a gift card.

There are a couple of operational points worth noting. First, the tracking process isn't 100 per cent fail-safe – you must make sure you link through the cashback site; and even then you will still want to check progress in the days and weeks after your purchase to ensure it's going through. You can always contact the site if any problems arise.

Second, ensure you are selecting the best price for a certain product, not just opting for the site that offers the best cashback percentage, because inadvertently you may be paying more.

Finally, any earned cashback isn't yours until it appears in your bank account, so withdraw it quickly and reinvest it elsewhere... like down the pub.

THERE'S NO BEATING BLACKMORE

How modest but magnificent jockey Rachael Blackmore made history

On April 10, Rachael Blackmore stood aloft Minella Times, triumphant in becoming the first female jockey to have ridden a horse to victory at the Grand National.

In 182 years of the world's most famous horse race, never before has a member of the fairer sex come home victorious, though in Blackmore, who hails from Killenale in County Tipperary, there is a jockey of prolific character, determination and future potential.

Already 10 years on the circuit, having ridden her first winner as an amateur back in February 2011, she truly announced herself at Cheltenham in 2019 when she came home first on A Plus Tard in the Close Brothers Novices' Handicap Chase.

That year she also had her second taste of riding at Aintree and, with each passing iteration, enhanced a game plan that would help her take home the big prize.

"I think as a jockey you are always learning; and although the courses and the horses are different, every race for me has felt like a rehearsal for a big victory."

Cheltenham success this year on favourite Honeysuckle reaffirmed the jockey's status to perform when the pressure was on, though starting out at 11/1 at Aintree in the Grand National left plenty of room for doubt. Those who bet on her to bring home the greatest victory of her career needn't have worried – Blackmore rode an impeccable race as the eight-year-old horse came through in style, winning by six and a half lengths.

"It fell right for me on the day, and that's all you can ask as a jockey," she said with immaculate modesty. "I never at any point thought I had a divine right to win, and nor will I in future – I've always regarded myself as being in the right place at the right time; and I'll hopefully continue to be."

WORD LADDER

THE AIM: Change the word at the top of the ladder one letter at a time to make the word at the bottom.

HOW TO: Change one letter on each step to make a new word. By the time you reach the end, you should have created the new word.

DO NOT rearrange the order of the letters.

TIP: There is usually more than one way to solve this puzzle.
