Editor's notes...

Brett Shohet, Editor

Hello and welcome to this month's edition of VISIONLoughton.

What a strange time we are living in. These are difficult times, but we will get through them. If we look back through history and all the events we have gone through, we are still here and we will get through this too.

I'm looking at this as an inconvenience for now. But also looking forward to who I will be and where VISION can be after this period. It's what we have done in the past that has made us who we are right now, and it's what we do right now that will make us who we are in the future.

I'm making sure I stick to a routine and treat every day as normal within the restrictions that have been laid out. Get a good night's sleep, eat cleanly and healthily and be safe.

But the most important thing is knowing that we are here for one another. Local businesses are going to need us more than ever right now.

Before that next purchase, ask yourself, can I get this from my local business? That one call could change their business' future or their families. Also reach out to me. If you want a chat or need to find a business that is not featured in VISION. I accept the challenge to find someone who can help you and also help their business.

Stay safe and I hope you all enjoy this edition of VISIONLoughton.

Brett

Your safety is our priority.

(not so) SMART MOTORWAYS

ARE SMART MOTORWAYS ONE OF THE TRANSPORT INDUSTRY'S LEAST CLEVER IDEAS?

The concept of the smart motorway is, on initial inspection, a good one... a smart one, in fact. It uses active traffic management to increase the capacity of a motorway, with the main premise being to free up the hard shoulder for regular traffic use.

Also factoring in variable speed limits, the aim is smoother flow of traffic, quicker journey times, a reduction in both noise and air pollution, and fewer road traffic collisions.

On that basis, the concept, first introduced back in 2006 on the M42 in the West Midlands, is a sound one. The vast majority of us will have been in a situation where overhead information boards divert, guide and advise us in smart motorway settings, and we'll have experienced the benefits.

Sure enough, more than £2billion of contracts have so far been issued in order to extend, renovate and convert existing routes into smart motorways, with the M1, M4, M5, M6, M60 and M62 all actioned. In addition, other variations, such as controlled motorways, dynamic hard shoulders, all lane running and through junction running routes – which use the same concept but cannot be fully utilised for hard shoulder use, for instance, because of bridges – have come into effect.

However, in recent years, the effectiveness and safety levels of this traffic management solution have been called into question. Despite a conversion cost of between £5million and £15million per mile, the Campaign for Better Transport has consistently claimed no positive impact on CO<sub>2</sub> emissions.

Most alarmingly, though, is a swell of evidence suggesting that rather than reducing collisions and accidents, smart motorways are actually causing them.

This point was first raised by the RAC, who discovered that motorists' confusion over whether a smart motorway was, effectively, 'in use', led to many driving on the hard shoulder when they were not permitted to.

Then, in January of this year, a Freedom of Information Act revealed a 20-fold increase in near misses on smart motorways, caused when a motorist has broken down and has with no hard shoulder or safe space to retreat to.

The original M42 pilot scheme offered emergency refuge areas (ERAs) 500m apart – that's less than a third of a mile. The logic therefore is that anyone sensing they are breaking down can 'limp' to the next safe space.

However, some stretches of the M25 have these spaces up to 1.6 miles apart, leaving motorists in real danger in the event of mechanical failure or a collision, with no means of removal. In real terms, this has led to 38 deaths on smart motorways across the UK.

To that end, Police Federation of England and Wales chief John Apter said, "I do not like the term 'smart motorways' because it infers they're a good idea. They're anything but, and a recipe for disaster. It's a death trap. It's inherently dangerous and putting lives at risk."

It seems a full-scale review of smart motorways is imminent, and this apparently innovative measure to alleviate the ever-increasing demands we have on our roads could find itself consigned to the annals of road traffic experimentation.

It's a date...

TOP TIPS TO GET YOU BACK IN THE GAME

Are you single, spent too long huddled around your radiator and run out of shows to binge on Netflix? Now's the time to revamp your online dating profile, ready for when you can start getting out there again – hopefully in time for a summer romance...

NAIL THE PROFILE

- ♥ Use recent and unfiltered pictures. Most people who are serious about dating prefer to see the real you as opposed to manipulated images. Don't just post selfies – include pictures with friends too.
- ♥ Be honest. Don't lie about your age or your past, and if you're between jobs, that's fine too.

- ♥ Be open, but don't give it all away – mention that you like travel, for example, but leave it to them to find out what your top five destinations are.

FIRST DATE TIPS

- ♥ Activities such as minigolf or bowling are low-pressure ways of getting to know someone.
- ♥ Avoid the conventional cinema, but an open-air cinema is a fun alternative. And a great excuse to cuddle if the weather turns chilly.
- ♥ Go to a comedy club to see if you share the same sense of humour.

- ♥ If you both listed a love of food on your profiles, then dinner should definitely be on the cards.

- ♥ Stay safe. Let someone know where you are going, and share your location via WhatsApp once you get there. Have someone nearby so they can come to the rescue, if needed.

RED FLAGS

- ♥ Run away if they're a sore loser or an ungracious winner on your activity date.
- ♥ If they spend longer staring at their phone than into your eyes, hit the road.
- ♥ Beware if they have absolutely everything in common with you – they might have stalked your social media.
- ♥ Everyone has a past, but constantly mentioning their ex is not okay.
- ♥ Neither are any of these things: ordering for you, being overly critical of everything, and arriving late with no excuse or apology.

Building a

CAPSULE WARDROBE

With the rise of sustainable fashion and consumers beginning to understand the need for having a conscience in their fashion and style decision making, building a capsule wardrobe makes more sense than ever before. We live in a world where convenience is key, and fast fashion retailers have made it all too easy to buy into new trends every season. Yet so many women still find themselves standing in front of their bulging wardrobes at a loss, with nothing to wear. A capsule wardrobe saves you time and money in the long term, and means less of a headache.

You can build a capsule wardrobe from 20 key items. From these 20 items it is possible to create 30 different outfits (and more) – you just need the know-how to pull the pieces together. All of these pieces will last a lifetime in your wardrobe and are worth investing in. Once you are happy with your reduced wardrobe, you can still add some fresh new pieces in each season, but in a more considered way, knowing what else you already have to work with. Accessories can be a great way to do this, and they are the best way to add some print and colour into your wardrobe.

TOP 20 KEY ITEMS

1. The Leather Biker Jacket
2. The Pleated Midi Skirt
3. The Basic T-shirt with a Twist
4. The Slogan Sweatshirt
5. The Cashmere Sweater
6. The Block Heel Boot
7. The Slip Dress
8. The White Shirt
9. The Buffet Dress
10. The Straight-leg Jeans in a mid-blue wash
11. The Coated Jeggings or Leather Leggings
12. The Lace-up Boot
13. The Blazer
14. The Trainers
15. The Loafers
16. The Breton T-shirt
17. The Denim Shirt
18. The Aviator Jacket

Anti-cosmetic surgery fixes

Following the news that former TOWIE star Amy Childs was among a long list of celebs who openly admitted to having cosmetic surgery regrets, we're going to explore some quick beauty fixes that don't involve going under the knife...

The Quick Nose Job

- > Contouring the side of your nose will instantly make it appear smaller.
- > The first step is to use concealer to highlight the middle of your nose.
- > Then, using a bronzer a few shades darker than your foundation, paint a line on each side of your nose, and blend, blend, blend.

Kylie Jenner Lips

- > The tools to faking big lips without fillers are all in your make-up bag.
- > Using a lip liner just one shade darker than your lipstick, over-outline your lips.
- > Draw an 'X' just above the Cupid's bow, and then complete the lip outline from that point. This creates an exaggerated outline, while still sticking to the natural shape of your lips.
- > After you've applied your lipstick, add a hint of concealer or highlighter to the centre of the lips. This will create an ombré effect, which makes the lips look even bigger. This can also be achieved by using a lipstick in a slightly lighter colour in the centre, for a more subtle and natural effect.
- > Go one step further with ombré lips by playing with more than one shade of liner and lipstick. The internet is filled with helpful tutorials to nail this trick.

Bigger Chest

- > A push-up bra is a girl's best friend if you want that extra lift. However if that still doesn't cut it, a silicone insert can also be used inside each cup.
- > Contour. Contouring isn't just for your face – you can fake a rounder and bigger bust by contouring the top of your chest and creating a fuller, more voluptuous shape.

Fishtail braid UPDO

IF YOU LOVE NOTHING BETTER THAN A CLASSY UPDO ON A NIGHT OUT OR FOR A SPECIAL OCCASION, THEN LOOK NO FURTHER; THE FISHTAIL BRAIDED UPDO IS THE VERY EPITOME OF ELEGANCE.

HOW TO ACHIEVE THIS LOOK:

STEP 1: Pick up a section of hair on the left side of your head and divide into two sections.

STEP 2: Take a small piece of hair from the back right side of your chosen section, cross it over the top and add to the front of your chosen section.

STEP 3: Then take a small piece of hair from the front left side of your chosen section, cross it over the top and add to the back of your chosen section.

STEP 6: Continue step 2 and 3 until your braid reaches the top part of your left ear.

STEP 7: Once you reach the ear, continue braiding your hair down in a standard fishtail braid.

STEP 8: Gently loosen the sides of the braid and tie the end with a hairband.

STEP 9: With the rest of your hair, create a standard fishtail; taking sections from each side and crossing over until the hair is fully braided.

STEP 10: Gently loosen the sides of the braid to create a fuller look and then tie off with a band.

STEP 11: Twist the back braid into a bun and pin securely.

STEP 12: Wrap your first fishtail braid over the top of and around your bun in a clockwise direction and pin in place.

STEP 13: Use your fingers to gently make the fishtail braid fuller to cover the pins.

STEP 14: Add a decorative clip or hairslide for an ultra-glam finish.

GYM RHYTHM

THE SCIENTIFICALLY PROVEN BEST MUSIC FOR YOUR GYM ROUTINE

From stretches to dips, lifts to sprints, turns to curls, our time in the gym is a very personal, private affair.

With that in mind, there's nothing more satisfying or motivating than the feeling of working out. But across warm-ups, nutrition and body conditioning, what if the thing that is stopping us from achieving our full potential in the gym is something as simple as the music being piped out of those little buds that rest in our ears?

Scientists now believe that what we listen to, if anything, when working out can have a dramatic effect on performance. There have been countless studies over the years that all point to the reality that the brain is stimulated by music and converts that motivation into physical energy.

There are other strands. Listening to music can also act as a distraction technique from the pain of exercise, as well as fending off boredom. Indeed, a study in 2018 conducted by the University of Maryland found that having a soundtrack to your workout meant a 28 per cent increase in enjoyment compared with no auditory stimulus.

But what about the genre of music? Typically, we would expect high-energy styles to engage and motivate us most. Dance music, tracks with strong percussion, heavy riffs and even the rather cliched genre of 'driving music' can all work well. Certainly, regular and repetitive rhythm is a big driver to adopting a 'trance-like' state for exercising, taking a level of consciousness out of what we do and ensuring we can compete harder and for longer.

Ultimately, though, scientists found that the music we respond to best is a matter of personal taste. Our own music preferences dictate the positive effects, but those effects are real, given that listening to music we like can expand blood vessels by up to 26 per cent, helping the flow of oxygen-rich blood to improve performance and, with it, PBs.

Keeping children healthy

HEALTH & FITNESS

Are you worried about the amount of sugar your child is getting from the food and drinks they consume every day?

One of the main issues with young children is that some parents use sweets and chocolate as rewards for good behaviour. But do you ask yourself what effect sugar can have on your children?

For children between the ages of 2 and 18, the recommended daily sugar intake is a maximum of 6 teaspoons, which is equivalent to 25 grams or 100 calories. To put this into perspective, an average milk chocolate bar has 23 grams of sugar which is the vast majority of your child's limit for the day. Sugar is also hidden in so many foods and drinks that we would never expect. It's hidden in juices, pasta sauce, rice and even bread.

If you are a parent of a picky eater, you likely cater to what your child wants. As long as they are eating something, you are satisfied. What you may not know is that catering to your child's pickiness can have a negative effect on their behaviour, health and overall well-being. For example, if your child will only eat certain foods such as macaroni cheese and chicken nuggets, each one of their meals is loaded with calories, sugar and carbohydrates. When every meal that your child eats is so high in calories and sugary carbs, it won't be long before they start putting on weight and developing vitamin deficiency from not eating fruit, salad and vegetables.

What can you do about it?

When it comes to reducing your child's sugar intake you need to make the changes gradually, otherwise it will have a negative effect.

Instead, one or two everyday swaps per week can make a huge difference. For example, put a low-sugar (full-fat) yoghurt in their lunch box, swap fruit juice for water infused with chopped-up fruit, or swap a chocolate bar for an apple. A prime example to avoid is Innocent Smoothies for kids. Despite the marketing hype, these "healthy" fruit juices are concentrated sugar, and can contain more sugar than full-sugar (Original) Coke. CoCo Pops is actually a staggering 84 per cent sugar. Frightening.

If you would like more information on this, contact Graham Phillips at Prolongevity, call 07768 275802 visit www.prolongevity.co.uk or email graham.phillips@manorpharmacygroup.co.uk

FULL OF THE JOYS OF spring

Fancy putting a spring back into your step this season? Why not try one of these nourishing and nutritious, not to mention tasty, spring vegetables that are in season this month?

SPRING GREENS

You may not know this, but spring greens are actually the first cabbages of the year, although they do not have a hard core but instead can be recognised by their thick, green leaves. Part of the brassica family, spring greens contain a whole host of essential minerals and vitamins, including vitamins A, C, K and iron.

Spring greens peak from April to June and are best served in a stir-fry or added to a stew or soup.

SPRING ONIONS

Spring onions are incredibly versatile vegetables as they have a milder taste than most other onions, meaning they can be eaten raw or cooked. Often used in Asian cooking, spring onions, or scallions as they are also known, are an excellent source of vitamin

C and calcium.

Add to a spring vegetable omelette, make a pea, mint and spring onion soup, or simply chop up and scatter over a salad.

SPRING PEAS

The spring pea season is short but is definitely worth taking advantage of as fresh spring peas are sweet and delicious. You have two options when it comes to spring peas – garden or sugar snap. Both can be eaten raw or cooked and they have identical nutritional profiles; however, sugar snap peas can be more flavourful.

Peas are surprisingly high in protein compared to other vegetables and are a great source of dietary fibre.

Make a pea pesto with rocket and parmesan, add to a kedgeree or create your own homemade mushy peas.

OTHER VEG IN SEASON IN APRIL INCLUDE:

- Asparagus
- Kale
- Chard
- Spinach

FOOD & DRINK

Fine Foodies

Last month we introduced the first five of our ten finest foods to keep you looking young and healthy, on both the inside and the outside. Here are the final five.

Chocolate

Not only is chocolate a proven mood enhancer, but chocolate that contains at least 70 per cent cocoa is loaded with proteins and vitamin B, meaning just a couple of squares will help burn fat and improve your skin and hair.

Tomatoes

You say: "Tomato;" I say: "Wow, you look fantastic." Tomatoes have proven to be double trouble for ageing. Brimming with those brilliant antioxidants and carotenoids that help fight the oxidation that ages skin cells, they also boost collagen production, keeping skin taut and youthful.

Wild salmon

Wild salmon, though more expensive than farmed, is thought to be better for you as it is lower in fat and there is less chance of contamination from pollutants, but both kinds are loaded with omega-3 fatty acids. These nutrients not only protect your heart by boosting arterial function, but they also help you produce sebum, your skin's natural oil, which keeps hair healthy and skin plump and youthful.

Nuts

These delectable delights are literally small anti-ageing bombs, thanks to their concentrated sources of vitamins, minerals and other phytochemicals, including antioxidants. Though all nuts offer nutritional benefits, walnuts in particular are high in omega-3 and omega-6, which help keep your hair glossy and your brain young, as they are proven to help prevent cognitive decline.

Wine

If you want to age like a fine wine, then start drinking in moderation. Studies have shown that wine protects against heart disease, diabetes and age-related memory loss. Red wine in particular contains resveratrol, a compound that may activate genes that slow cellular ageing.

part 2

JUICER OR BLENDER?

With many health professionals now advising that you eat a whopping 10 portions of fruit and vegetables a day for optimal health, it can be a good idea to drink your recommended daily intake rather than struggle to eat it. However, should you be juicing or blending?

Pros of a juicer:

- ✔ Juices provide the majority of vitamins and minerals found in whole fruits and veg
- ✔ Juices are healthy meal replacement options

Pros of a blender:

- ✔ Smoothies include fibre so leave you feeling fuller for longer
- ✔ No waste – you will drink the whole fruit or veg that you add
- ✔ The fibre helps to aid your digestive system, flushing out any toxins in your body

Cons of a juicer:

- ✘ Juicer removes vital fibre from your produce
- ✘ Juices made from only fruit are high in fructose which is absorbed quickly, leading to a sudden spike in blood sugar
- ✘ Juicing can be expensive – you need a lot of produce to create one glass of juice

Cons of a blender:

- ✘ Messy to clean
- ✘ You need to add liquid, and ice is preferable
- ✘ Can struggle to blend hard fruits and veg

Best health-boosting combinations for juicing

Apples, carrots and parsley | Carrots, oranges and ginger | Beetroot, carrots, lemon, ginger and apple | Spinach, cucumber, celery, lemon, ginger and apple

Best health-boosting combinations for blending

Mango, turmeric, orange, banana and almond milk | Pineapple, coconut water, spinach, ginger and banana | Kiwi, flaxseed, berries, spinach and Greek yogurt

NOW BORIS'S BREXIT IS SECURED, WHAT DOES IT MEAN FOR OUR BRICKS AND MORTAR?

The brazen upward surge of the UK housing market offers cause for both celebration and concern for the nation's population.

A seemingly unerring rise over the past decade sees house prices currently at record highs. For those looking to get on the ladder, the task seems less achievable than ever before, while even property owners find themselves on a runaway train that demands even more from them should they wish to step up.

The only real winners in the housing market are those looking to sell up and drift away from the madness, and in some quarters the uncertainty over Brexit has only exacerbated fears of what may happen with our biggest life investment.

In the first instance, however, the UK experienced a positive surge in the aftermath of the Conservatives' comprehensive General Election victory in December 2019. A stable and growing economy clearly bolsters the housing market, and the 'getting done' of Brexit appeared to release waves of pent-up uncertainty that had stagnated the market for the best part of three and a half years.

It's perhaps no coincidence then that prominent 'remain' UK cities such as Cambridge, Bath, Bristol and York are now top of the tree in terms of an upturn in buyer demand.

Before COVID-19 hit the country, this 'gloves off' idea was great news. With the ability to invest, and continued government house-building programmes, the market was set to be boosted.

That said, with stagnancy comes stability, and in the past few years the market has been fairly steady. The fears from experts were that when sellers got a little carried away, it would rock the property ladder somewhat, and that would mean uncomfortable exchanges for those looking to put down roots.

ASPIRE to Inspire

As we enter a difficult period in our lives, with change happening everyday, could you do with a little motivation? Check out our top four inspirational businessmen and women for 2020. They will activate your ambition in no time.

JUSTINE ROBERTS

Founder and Chief Executive of Mumsnet, an online parenting community that brings mums together, Justine Roberts has campaigned on issues including special educational needs, improvements in miscarriage care, freedom of speech on the internet and, most recently, #PublishParentalLeave.

Motivational quote: "Good enough is good enough" (on juggling parenting and business).

JAMAL EDWARDS

Having begun his love of videoing by filming foxes in his West London council estate garden, Jamal is now the proud owner of SB.TV which has attracted more than 300 million hits globally for its music videos. Arguably his most viral moment was guiding Princes William and Harry through their first Google Hangout.

Motivational quote: "The only failure is not trying."

BETHANY FIRTH

Paralympic swimmer and gold medallist Bethany Firth was all set for Tokyo 2020, which has been postponed to 2021 due to coronavirus sweeping the globe. But this doesn't mean she isn't still dedicated to encouraging people to get in the pool when they re-open following the pandemic. Bethany is a proud supporter of Swimathon, the annual fundraiser for Cancer Research UK and Marie Curie, which has also been postponed.

Motivational quote: "You can achieve anything if you put your mind to it."

TIM COOK

When Tim Cook took over as Apple CEO, critics were unsure about whether he would be able to deliver. However, Apple stock increased by a whopping 480% after he took over in 2011, and in 2018 it became the first publicly traded company to reach a $1trillion market cap. And, with the greatly anticipated AR headsets and glasses launching in the next few years, his reign is only set to strengthen.

Motivational quote: "Let your joy be in your journey, not in some distant goal."

GARDENING

WHAT DOES YOUR

birth flower

SAY ABOUT YOU?

Everyone knows what star sign they are, and most know their birthstone, yet not very many are aware of what their birth flower is.

Starting in our next issue, we will be running a regular feature on each month's birth flower, revealing what your birth flower says about your personality, plus tips on how to grow your flower in your own garden.

WHAT IS A BIRTH FLOWER?

Every month has a flower that symbolises that month, and it is said that the characteristics of this flower may be inherited or passed on to the people who are born during that month. These flowers are known as birth flowers.

WHAT IS THE HISTORY OF THE BIRTH FLOWER?

It was the Romans who first started the concept of flowers as gifts rather than just as decorations, by giving flowers to people on the day of their birth becoming commonplace. It was this act that led to the creation of the birth flower.

WHY DO WE GIVE FLOWERS AS GIFTS?

Today, people tend to give flowers as gifts to convey a certain message, normally of love, congratulations or commiserations. Flowers are a simple and effective way to express emotions without actually saying a word. As gifts, flowers are always warmly welcomed owing to their sweet fragrance and visible beauty, but they are actually so much more than that, with each flower symbolising something different.

WHAT IS THIS MONTH'S BIRTH FLOWER?

Just to give you a little taster of what is to come in next month's first birth flower feature, the birth flower of April is the daisy. This flower is known for conveying innocence, love and purity, with people born in this month being playful and loyal.

USE YOUR noodle in the Garden

FIVE WAYS TO USE A POOL NOODLE IN YOUR GARDEN

If you think the only purpose of a pool noodle is to keep your child afloat, then think again. There are many ingenious and innovative ways that you can use these naturally buoyant and highly water-resistant swimming aids in your garden.

Home-made sprinkler system

Whether you want to regularly water your grass or your flower bed, a sprinkler system is a handy tool to have. However, you don't need to go out and buy one. Simply puncture holes in your noodle, stuff one end with foam and secure with duct tape and then insert your hose into the other end. Place vertically for a kids' fun water toy.

Trampoline springs cover

Improve the safety of your trampoline by using pool noodles. Simply cut a slit down one side and slot over the springs and metal edges.

Plant protector

It wouldn't be spring without the arrival of sunflowers and other big, beautiful blossoms. Unfortunately, the more towering the plant, the more likely they are to bend and snap. However, if you surround each stem with a pool noodle, they will stand tall and proud throughout the summer.

Drinks holder

If you find your cans of fizzy drinks often get knocked over in the garden, then a pool noodle drinks holder is exactly what you need. Glue two pieces of noodle together, then simply cut out a small circle, insert your drink and you can sip safely in the knowledge that your beverage will not be spilled.

Floating mood lights

Lighting is a key component in creating a relaxing and inviting summer garden vibe, but you don't need to spend a fortune on outside lights. Just take a selection of different coloured noodles, cut into rings and insert LED tea lights (don't use real tea lights).

What a

Bees aren't just a summer visitor – they require nectar and pollen across all four seasons and are pivotal to stable, vital food supplies. So many of our varied, colourful and nutritious diets are driven by the work of the simple bee, which boasts more than 20,000 varieties. From helping plants grow and flower – producing everything from almond to vanilla, apples to squashes – to making our wildflower meadows beautiful, bees are understated in their importance.

With all this in mind, the protection of our beautiful and curious bees has really come to the fore in recent years. Their decline across wild spaces has been caused by loss of habitats and food sources as well as exposure to pesticides and the effects of climate change.

The good news is that protecting these little wonders is not just good for the environment, but is also a joy in itself. Several organisations run bee initiatives, from Bee Walks, in which volunteers traverse set routes to map out observations of bee activity, to community and education groups at libraries, stalls and fetes that raise money and awareness.

You can also create a buzz in your own back garden, by...

- 🐝 using bee-friendly plants. Patio pots, herbs in a planter, hanging baskets and crocuses create colour and help bees flourish;
- 🐝 considering fruit and veg as well. Bees will be instantly attracted to these;
- 🐝 planting throughout the seasons to provide food and shelter all year round;
- 🐝 keeping the grass long. This is another way to provide shelter;
- 🐝 removing pesticides. Throw away that 'bug gun' and let nature do its bit;
- 🐝 welcoming in 'beneficial insects'. Hoverflies, beetles and ladybirds will all help your bees flourish.

Why not start a buzz in your community, and help nature in the process

AGED TO perfection

AT 85 YEARS YOUNG, MARY BERRY IS STILL
AT THE PEAK OF HER POWERS

For so long one half of The Great British Bake Off's dynamic judging duo alongside Paul Hollywood, Mary Berry coached amateur bakers through years of soggy bottoms and wheat-free triumphs. Yet in the context of her wider career, the baking doyenne's stint on the hit BBC reality show – which ended when Channel 4 swiped the contract, leaving Mary to mark her loyalty by refusing to move with it – accounts for only a very small part of a baking success story that has seen her rise to prominence with every bit of the beauty of a loaf of bread.

In more than 50 years delighting on screen, at cookery demonstrations and in the pages of countless cookery books, Mary Berry's culinary career has taken her far and wide. Ever since discovering a passion for cooking in her domestic science classes at school in Bath ("the first thing I made was a treacle sponge and everybody seemed to enjoy it"), Berry's career has always revolved around the kitchen in some way, shape or form.

There were home visits to show people how to use their electric ovens in the early days, studies abroad at France's prestigious Le Cordon Bleu, plus cooking for the Egg Council and the Flour Advisory Bureau. She even worked as a magazine food editor while raising her family – it's been a varied but produce-led career.

Berry penned her first culinary tome, The Hamlyn All Colour Cookbook, back in 1970, and since then she's overseen a further 75 tomes of kitchen cleverness.

Like many chefs, her preference for fresh, locally sourced produce shines through. A Royal Horticultural Society Ambassador who proudly tends her own vegetable garden at home in Buckinghamshire, Mary places great importance on the idea of home-grown, seasonal produce. "I think people more and more are wanting to know where their food comes from," she says. "If it comes from your own garden or your allotment, you know all about it, don't you?"

When it comes to home cooking, Mary follows the traditional route, favouring what is available rather than sugar-free or pesticide-ridden fodder. "We grow what we eat," she says.

Famous for her bakes, Mary likes to use "all the natural ingredients", and you won't catch her shaping her recipes to fad diet requirements. "I don't do low fat," she says firmly. "I'd rather have a smaller portion." Perhaps these calorific but micro portions are the answer to Mary's trim figure. "I don't have a slimming secret; I believe in everything in moderation," she says.

That moderation now sees her 85 years young, fit as a fiddle and, inevitably, eyeing up the next project. This year she is fronting BBC show Best Home Cook, and as the weather warms up, she will be seen around the country at a number of food events.

"The great thing about food is it keeps on evolving," she says. "It's so rich, so diverse and, more than anything else, so tasty. It keeps us all coming back for more and I'll never tire of sharing my passion with other people."

CORONAVIRUS

Advice on how to combat Coronavirus (COVID-19) Supplied by GOV.UK

THE ADVICE FOR ANYONE IN ANY SETTING IS TO FOLLOW THESE MAIN GUIDELINES.

The most common symptoms of coronavirus (COVID-19) are recent onset of a new continuous cough and/or high temperature. If you have these symptoms, however mild, stay at home and do not leave your house for 7 days from when your symptoms started. You do not need to call NHS 111 to go into self-isolation. If your symptoms worsen during home isolation or are no better after 7 days, contact NHS 111 online. If you have no internet access, you should call NHS 111. For a medical emergency dial 999.

Wash your hands more often than usual, for 20 seconds using soap and hot water, particularly after coughing, sneezing and blowing your nose, or after being in public areas where other people are doing so. Use hand sanitiser if that's all you have access to.

To reduce the spread of germs when you cough or sneeze, cover your mouth and nose with a tissue, or your sleeve (not your hands) if you don't have a tissue, and throw the tissue away immediately. Then wash your hands or use a hand sanitising gel.

Clean and disinfect regularly touched objects and surfaces using your regular cleaning products to reduce the risk of passing the infection on to other people.

At the current time and based on our understanding of what is known of COVID-19 and other similar respiratory viruses, it is likely that older people and those with chronic medical conditions may be vulnerable to severe disease. As more information emerges, recommendations may change.

PREVENTION:

wash hands often with soap

avoid touching your face

disinfect objects and surfaces

avoid close contact with people

stay home

Avoid contact with sick people

TREATMENT:

no vaccine to prevent 2019-nCoV

no specific treatment for 2019-nCoV

drink plenty of liquids

take pain and fever medications

Woman takes on marathon to help dementia-stricken uncle

A woman from Loughton has decided to take on the London Marathon to help raise money for Alzheimer's Research UK in the hope of helping her uncle who suffers from dementia.

First-time marathon runner Kerry Boyne was inspired to run the 26.2-mile race after her uncle was diagnosed with the illness and she discovered it was one of the top ten causes of death in the UK.

She said: "I have always been keen to set myself a target each year and accomplish it to prove that anything you set your mind to and train for is possible.

"As I gradually saw my uncle's condition getting worse I knew I needed to raise as much money and awareness as possible, and I thought the best way to do that would be to set myself a challenge that would be difficult but so rewarding.

"Both him and my auntie Peggy are my inspiration to run the marathon 2020: with every step I take I will be thinking about both of them."

Alzheimer's Research UK is the UK's leading dementia research charity dedicated to diagnosis, prevention, treatment and cure.

Kerry said: "I am fundraising to raise as much money as possible for this incredible charity, and together we can make the life-changing breakthroughs possible.

"I wanted to help share stories and make as many people aware of how they can help fund vital research."

Owing to the recent coronavirus outbreak, London Marathon Events issued a statement that highlighted the global pandemic of COVID-19 and that public health is the main priority.

This means the marathon that was scheduled to take place on Sunday, April 26 has now been postponed until Sunday, October 4.

Kerry added: "I can't lie; I was absolutely gutted when I heard the news of the marathon being postponed. I cried, but I totally understand it's for the best and everyone's safety.

"I know loads of other marathon runners who are going through a feeling of 'runners low', where they can't get the motivation back.

"My charity group sent me a lovely message about how we are all inspirations each day, and these blows happen in the life of someone living with dementia: they have good days and bad days so it is all part of our marathon journey."

Coronavirus sufferer warns young to take virus seriously

Young people are being warned to take the coronavirus outbreak seriously by a mother from Loughton who was struck down with the disease.

Jamie Baggett, 28, who suffers from asthma, found herself hooked up to an oxygen tank in an isolation room in the Princess Alexandra hospital in Harlow (pictured) just days after she picked up a chest infection.

She shared her experiences with The Sun.

Jamie said: "I didn't travel abroad or even come into contact with anyone I knew to have the virus. I'm generally fit, I go to the gym quite a lot, I eat healthily and I enjoy my spin classes. But the symptoms escalated quickly."

After she went to her doctor, she was prescribed antibiotics and her condition began to improve – but she still had a continuous cough.

She revealed: "I developed pneumonia and I was diagnosed with COVID-19. It was horrific pain. I was sick three times when I was coughing. I had a constant pain and aches all over. My chest was the worst. It was like a stabbing pain every time I took a breath. It felt like it was piercing my inside and lasted a while."

Jamie's now recovering at home with her eight-year-old son Rylan and urged people to isolate to protect themselves and other people.

She told The Sun: "I cannot stress enough how this has made me feel. And I urge everyone to please isolate and protect yourself and others. Unfortunately, it's out there and it's spreading fast – so think of your loved ones and your community."

There are increasing reports of younger victims developing the virus.

Methodist Church celebrates makeover

It was a successful service for Loughton Methodist Church on High Road as it held a celebration in honour of the building's makeover.

On Sunday, March 1, the congregation gathered for the 10.30am service to honour the church's new look.

The revamp included a smart new crest with the mission statement "Life, Mission, Community", and the new signage was also unveiled.

As part of the church's development plan, a number of focus groups were set up last year to design the new logo, website, branded mugs, cups, saucers and aprons for the cafe.

Foundation donates to four charitable causes

A foundation based in Loughton that aims to prevent or relieve property and financial hardship has recently donated nearly £3,000 to four causes.

The Haslers Foundation donated money to Strongbones, Freedom2, the Police Community Clubs of Great Britain and CHES Homeless.

More than 20 children with serious bone conditions will benefit from a day trip to the Science Museum, following a £700 donation to Strongbones. The charity helps families and children with scoliosis, spina bifida, brittle bone disease and other serious conditions of the bones, by providing support and fun days out.

Haslers Foundation also donated £1,000 to help Freedom2 to fund one of its art programmes. This will be run with six girls and will also help to fund an art exhibition to showcase their work.

Freedom2's vision is that all girls will be free from exploitation, that they will have a voice, know their worth and significance, reach their potential and go on to empower others.

Meanwhile, the Police Community Clubs of Great Britain hopes to use a £700 donation to fund its Barney & Echo anti-bullying workshop at a local school near Loughton. The workshops do many things, all of which are aimed at providing a safer, more educated life for the most disadvantaged children and young people.

Haslers Foundation's final donation of £562 to CHES Homeless will buy two beds and mattresses for its housing refurbishment project in Essex.

Jon O'Shea, chairman of Haslers Chartered Accountants and the Foundation, said: "We are delighted to have supported so many wonderful causes in the last few months.

"Each of these charities does amazing, essential work within local communities and I hope the money we have donated will go some way to helping them reach more people."

School presented with Young Carers Award

Thomas Willingale School and Nursery received a National Young Carers in Schools Award recently.

The school in Loughton was presented with a bronze plaque of achievement at a ceremony held at County Hall in Chelmsford in recognition of the nationwide Young Carers Awareness Day.

The National Young Carers in Schools Award is accredited by the Children's Society and Carers Trust and was designed to help schools implement good practice in supporting young carers in schools and to ensure that young carers have the same opportunities as their peers throughout their education.

The school's family school coordinator, Michele Hinton, said: "The award recognises the fantastic work we are doing in school to support and improve the lives of our young carers."

News from THE ROTARY CLUB

of Loughton, Buckhurst Hill & Chigwell

We hosted a very successful Youth Makes Music in aid of local charities on Friday, March 6.

There were amazing performances by Avon House School, Chigwell School, Loyola Preparatory School, St Aubyn's Preparatory School, West Hatch High School and Woodford Green Preparatory School. A huge thanks to all the schools who participated.

Owing to the uncertainty and risks involved with the coronavirus, we have taken the unprecedented step of cancelling all our meetings and events for the next two months (March/April), including our very popular Memory Café. We will be reviewing the situation considering all government directives.

Please contact Pesh if you would like to get involved with Rotary in any capacity. Email pesh@londonresidential.co.uk or call 07973 166940.

Volunteer service to help those self-isolating

A volunteer service has been set up to provide help to anyone having to self-isolate during the coronavirus outbreak.

Within 48 hours of the initiative first being highlighted on Everything Epping Forest's social feeds, more than 120 people had asked to be added to the volunteers' database.

Everything Epping Forest owner David Jackman said: "The response has been amazing, with many people offering themselves to help in not just their own village or town but also further out around the district. "Going by the national news, this situation is set to get a lot worse before it gets better, and I wanted to do something to help by reaching out through the 25,000 social media connections already involved with Everything Epping Forest.

"I really hope that no requests for help are received but it is good to know, and for the wider community to know, that there are community-minded people out there ready to help if required."

The scheme has already received contact from a woman in Norfolk who said she would pass on the details to her relatives living in Epping who would not have known about it via social media.

To be added to the coronavirus volunteers' database, email everythingeppingforest@gmail.com with the following information, which will be given to people requesting assistance: name, contact number and which areas you can cover.

If you need assistance with shopping, email everythingeppingforest@gmail.com or text 07710 447868 with REQUEST at the start of your email or text message and state your location and what assistance you require.

LOCAL NEWS

Council completes second phase of housebuilding programme

The second phase of a housebuilding programme, in which 300 new homes across the district will be built by 2024, has been completed.

Epping Forest District Council is one of the first local authorities to launch a new-build programme of council homes for rent after many years of stagnation in the sector.

It is also investing £6.37million in 18 homes for sale on the open market across the district, to boost its stock of homes for rent.

The development comprises three blocks.

Davis Court is named after former Loughton Broadway Councillor Joan Davis, as a tribute to her decades of service to the local community. Churchill Court is named after the former Winston Churchill pub that was located on Loughton Broadway, and Burton Road is a terrace of houses numbered 1-33.

A one-bedroom flat in Davis Court is the first home for Jason Falco and fiancée Jodie Hyams, after living with parents for several years. They are delighted with their brand-new council home.

Jason said: "We were gobsmacked when we went to view the new property. It is quite big for a flat and the layout is spacious. We couldn't be happier in our first home together."

These homes are built on a former underused garage site. They homes are the latest completions in the district-wide council housebuilding programme, which will see more than 300 new affordable homes built by 2024.

Phase One was completed in 2017 with 23 new affordable homes built in Waltham Abbey, all let to local residents in housing need.

Phase Three will deliver a total of 34 new affordable homes over eight sites in Epping, North Weald and Coopersale and is on schedule for completion by August 2020. This information was correct at the time of going to print.

Children take part in interfaith morning

Children at Hereward Primary School on Colebrook Lane in Loughton all took part in an interfaith morning last month.

The classes were split into groups and the children had the opportunity to work with their peers from other year groups.

A range of activities were completed that aimed to teach the children that, although they have different faiths and beliefs, they all share common values such as being kind to one another, respecting each other and being helpful to others.

RE coordinator Tersia de Jongh said: "It was a fantastic morning enjoyed by all, with the children talking about their different faiths and beliefs."

Braeside School proves it is moving with the times

A school in Buckhurst Hill has revealed some of its plans for the future.

From September 2020, Braeside School's current junior site in Palmerston Road and the current senior site on the High Road will come together into one school. All children will be taught together on the much larger High Road site adjacent to the cricket ground on which many of the school's PE lessons take place.

For the first time in Braeside's history, this will create a seamless all-through school on one site for children from two and a half to 16.

Currently known as one of the area's most prominent all-girls independent schools, Braeside will be extending its provision to boys from September 2021. This forms part of a phased plan that will see the introduction of boys into Kindergarten and Reception and then through the school year by year.

Headmistress Chloe Moon said: "There has been growing demand among parents over many years for boys and girls to learn side by side and the time is now right to make these changes. This will not only be academically, as all children will be able to live and work together. The decision to move to co-education is a natural development that reflects the realities of today's world. The staff and I are very excited to prepare for this next phase of Braeside's development."

The move to co-education is a nod to Braeside's roots, as the school's first two pupils back in 1944 were the founder's godson and his twin brother. The school says it has already received registrations for boys to join from September 2021.

Police appeal after teenage girl was grabbed

Essex Police are appealing for information following an incident in Loughton in which a teenage girl was grabbed by a man.

It was reported that a 16-year-old girl was walking along Torrington Drive at around 5.45pm on Friday, March 6, when she was approached by a man who tried to engage her in conversation.

As the girl continued to walk away, the man, who is described as white and in his mid-40s, grabbed her around the waist.

She pushed him away and threatened to call the police, at which point the man ran off.

A spokesperson for Essex Police said: "Incidents like this are rare and our enquiries are ongoing.

"If you saw anything, have any CCTV or dashcam footage or have any other information, please call us on 101 quoting the crime reference number 42/36113/20 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111."

THE WORLD IN YOUR LIVING ROOM

HOME & DIY

Recreating the idea of interior discovery from one of the UK's most dynamic brands

The fact that interior designer Andrew Martin delivers his brand of playful, adventurous, multifaceted design from a showroom in Chelsea is perhaps at odds with the area's formal, stuffy, rather bland feel.

Sure, SW3 presents arguably London's finest exemplar of posh, polished, Victorian and Georgian wealth, but its look jars slightly with the bright, breathless brilliance of a designer who recently celebrated 40 years at the front of a mode that celebrates intrepid spirit, hidden cultures and the world's kaleidoscope of customs and crafts.

Consider wallpaper that displays excerpts from Pride and Prejudice, or takes the form of old maps or sheets of stamps; think of stools, coffee tables, seats and sofas inspired by 1960s and 1970s looks, but that retain a cheeky modern-day irreverence; or what about Muhammad Ali, Kate Moss or Britain-themed cushions...?

From statement pieces to one-offs, Andrew Martin's position as an interiors visionary is exemplified in the sense that its flagship store in London has the feel of a mid-level nightclub. There is warmth, variety, detail and depth at every turn, but even the most playful of items has quality at its heart.

Founded by Martin Waller in 1978, the brand trod carefully through the somewhat cheap sheen of the 1980s, then flourished in the decade that followed as multiculturalism became a buzzword for style. Bolstered by the exposure of more than 20 books on the subject and a celebration of travel, in 2020 the Andrew Martin brand is now a platform for discovery in our own homes. And whether you've got a stool made to look like a petrified log is irrelevant.

"What we are about is detail, culture and the ability to have fun," says the founder. "It is about turning away from the formal and having fun – it is about injecting humour and philosophy into our surroundings, and this is something anyone is capable of."

WILD LIFE

biophilic design

BIOPHILIC DESIGN CAN BRIGHTEN YOUR MOOD, YOUR OUTLOOK ON LIFE AND YOUR HOME

For many years, people have been saying that feeling glum can be countered by getting outside and being at one with nature. But with wet, long winters, and given that many of us live in concrete jungles, spending time outdoors is neither practical nor desirable. The solution is to bring the outside in... biophilic design.

Of course, no one is suggesting you start knocking down any of the walls of your home or take inspiration from the set of the film Jumanji as far as interiors go; this is a subtle trend in which nature leads the way. And the best part? You get all the benefits of the great outdoors – calm, clarity, peace of mind – without having to go near a campsite.

HOW TO CREATE YOUR BIOPHILIC HAVEN...

Let the light in

Pull back the curtains, wash the windows and let the natural light flood in. If your home is naturally gloomy, use large mirrors to create the illusion of space and brightness, and don't forget to fill the place with fresh air too.

Go green

Not only does the colour green bring life and vigour to your home décor, it also possesses meditative qualities which quieten and soothe the mind.

Plant life

Possibly the most obvious way to bring nature into your home: is to buy a plant. Hanging baskets with vines that adorn your walls, potted herbs on your windowsill and a gorgeous succulent on your coffee table. Beautiful, oxygen-giving and living works of art.

Texturise

Reclaimed wood is very popular in interior design right now, and this characterful, evolving material also adds an earthy warmth to your home. Any natural material, in fact, is ideal for the biophilic trend, from wool blankets to granite countertops and stone ornaments – just be ambitious, and let the outdoors flow in.

Dishwasher

NO-NOS

A dishwasher is designed to make your life easier. That being said, there is nothing easy about trying to salvage your kitchen treasures.

Therefore, it is a good idea to know exactly what you can and can't put in your dishwasher.

1 SHARP KNIVES: If you have invested in a set of self-sharpening knives or the one that claims to be the sharpest knife in the world, don't go and ruin its reputation by putting it in the dishwasher, as the cycle can warp the metal and cause the blade to become dull.

2 CAST IRON PANS: Although cast iron is known for its durability, put it in the dishwasher and all that changes, causing rust and stripping its non-stick properties.

3 CRYSTAL: If you have a set of expensive crystal glasses, you will want to avoid cleaning them in the dishwasher as the high temperatures can cause them to chip and become cloudy.

4 ALUMINIUM PANS: Even if you have old aluminium pans that you are not worried about staining or damaging, putting these pans in the dishwasher can lead to other items becoming marked. Always check to see if your pans are dishwasher safe before adding them to the cycle because harsh dishwasher detergents can dull the finish.

5 WOODEN UTENSILS OR KITCHENWARE: Your wooden spoons or bowls, should never be put in the dishwasher as the very hot water can cause the wood to crack or become warped.

Hone your health with HOUSE PLANTS

House plants have become increasingly popular in recent years, along with a sudden shift in focus on sustainability and the natural world around us. With the ability to not only brighten up your home and increase your productivity, these versatile plants can also boost your physical and mental health.

SPIDER PLANTS

These attractive plants are ideal for people who want a low-maintenance house plant that has the ability to improve the air quality within their home. Specifically, spider plants are great at removing formaldehyde from the home, which is known for causing eye, throat and nose irritations.

ALOE VERA

Chances are you have a moisturiser or other skincare product in your bathroom cabinet that contains this anti-inflammatory substance. So, why not have your own natural source of aloe vera in your home? Use the gel-like matter from the inner leaf to treat burns, sunburn, psoriasis and cold sores.

LAVENDER

The ideal plant for your bedroom, lavender is known for its calming and stress-relieving aroma. If you suffer from insomnia or find it difficult to switch off in the evening, a lavender plant can help soothe any restlessness, anxiety or feelings of nervousness that you are experiencing.

PEACE LILY

Not only will this beautiful plant lift your home this spring, it will also help to remove a whole host of toxins, including ammonia, benzene, xylene, formaldehyde and trichloroethylene. However, these plants produce pollen so should be avoided if you suffer with hay fever.

SNAKE PLANT

These clever plants are amazing at improving indoor air quality, but be warned, you need several plants for the job to be done properly, so this is a good choice if you are happy with an abundance of greenery in your home.

LOVE YOUR LEFTOVERS:

Easter Eggs

With the average child set to receive eight Easter eggs over the Easter weekend, worth a whopping £56, it can be a good idea to find out some interesting and fun ways to use up any leftover chocolate to avoid unnecessary waste.

CREATE A CHOCOLATE FONDUE

What could be more fun than making your own chocolate fondue? You could even ask your little ones to make a selection of tasty and nutritious fruit kebabs to dip in the decadent dish. Simply melt your leftover chocolate in a bowl and then get dipping.

MAKE A CHOCOLATE FACE MASK

If you have girls who love a pampering session, why not make your own chocolate face masks? They can even lick them off after. All you need to do is melt a quarter of a cup of chocolate (preferably dark), add one tablespoon of cream and a few drops of honey, and then apply to the face.

CONCOCT A CHOCOLATEY DRINK

Everyone loves hot chocolate with a few marshmallows thrown in for good measure, and thankfully, now you have all this leftover chocolate, you can make your very own version. Simply heat 150ml milk and 50ml double cream in a pan and then add 50g chocolate. Optional: add the zest of half an orange.

CHOCOLATE MUG CAKE

If your kids love baking but you hate the mess, then this is the perfect idea for you. Start by cracking an egg into a cup, then mix in 4 tablespoons of flour and 2 tablespoons of cocoa. Finally add 3 tablespoons of milk, 3 tablespoons of oil, ¼ teaspoon of vanilla extract and a tablespoon of broken-up chocolate Easter egg. Mix well and pop in the microwave for 3 minutes.

Still got some chocolate left? Why not donate it to your nearest food bank or homeless shelter?

THE BENEFITS OF HAVING A PET FISH FOR CHILDREN WITH AUTISM

You'd need to have a heart of stone to not feel a sense of joy when watching a fish perform its underwater ballet. Graceful, quiet and strangely hypnotic, the simple, soothing sight is one of life's simple pleasures, and one that can be appreciated in your very own home.

It makes perfect sense, then, that fish make ideal pets for autistic children. Studies have shown that gazing at aquariums, whether small or large, can lower blood pressure and heart rate. This also makes our marine life an effective antidote to highly emotional outbursts, which can be so severe in some with autism that they can physically endanger the child. Better still, an aquarium in the home can prevent fits of rage by offering a soothing constant for the highly sensitive.

Pets in general have been found to benefit those with autism, and while cats and dogs have many wonderful attributes, they aren't quite as easily attainable or maintainable as our finned friends. For starters, fish are low maintenance, requiring very little from their owner other than a daily sprinkle of food and the occasional tank clean. They are also very unlikely to respond when a child is emotionally charged, unlike their four-legged counterparts who are armed with claws and teeth.

Another benefit of investing in an aquarium is that it helps development and social skills. Fish don't judge; they are patient listeners and offer unconditional love. They also teach empathy and a sense of responsibility for your child. A fish cannot feed itself; it has needs that must be met by its caregiver, and such obligations can lay the foundation for helping your little one lead an independent life in the future.

And finally, there is that bond, for there is very little that can come between a child and their fish.

Happy Fish

TRAIN TRIPS To remember

If you're dreaming of a holiday with a difference when the coronavirus epidemic has been brought under control, check out some of these truly memorable train trips.

KOBLENZ TO MAINZ

For so long, the prospect of the Rhine Valley would bring about notions of wartime in arrowing a route through West Germany. These days, however, there is nothing but houses, vineyards, castles and a stunning river to transport passengers into a slightly grand, slightly gothic adventure.

THE ROCKY MOUNTAINEER

Often the go-to train ride in the world, the excursions up through the Canadian Rockies are the stuff of adventurer folklore. From glacier-fed lakes to green forests, rivers, snow and an incredible array of wildlife, the Rocky Mountaineer is one of many trains transporting passengers into an icy wonderland straight out of Narnia.

THE DANUBE EXPRESS

If you want to splash out and spend a few days in absolute luxury, the Danube Express – with its stops at Prague, Vienna, Berlin, Sarajevo and more – is a five-star step back in time to a glorious age of European opulence; and given there are only 65 passengers on board, you'll most likely make some friends too.

THE GHAN

One for those with the stamina of a camel, the Ghan route extends almost 1,900 miles across Australia, offering an awe-inspiring if, at times, somewhat monotonous trek through the outback wilderness of deserts, wide-open spaces and solitude.

FORT WILLIAM TO MALLAIG

Finally, if you're looking for something a little closer to home, consider this spectacular 42-mile trip that features, among other stunning sights, the long viaduct seen in the Harry Potter films. Mixing mountains, glens, slopes and lochs, Scotland provides quite the most stunning panoramas on this memorable journey.

Everything you wanted to know about leasing but were afraid to ask!

Leasing a new car used to be something that businesses did, and if an individual wanted a new car it would mean going to a main dealer. Times have changed along with buying habits, it is not unusual for people to shop for vehicles online without actually test driving the vehicle or speaking with a salesperson.

At Planet Leasing in Loughton, we adopt a unique approach. Internet pricing but with the ability to come into our office and actually talk with someone who knows what they are doing!

Acquiring your next vehicle through a brokerage has many advantages, we are not owned by any manufacturer which means you can talk to us about any make and model of brand new car, truck or van. We utilise fleet terms which, coupled with our panel of specialist lenders, enable us to provide the very best pricing.

For businesses, we can advise not only on the most appropriate vehicle for your needs but working alongside your accountant, if required, we can recommend the correct type of funding. For example, if you want to be able to claim your full annual investment allowance a lease purchase would be the correct finance type. If you have a limited company and you are considering a car for yourself, we can advise you on the tax costs to help you decide on whether to finance a car through a business or not and whether an alternative fuel vehicle is the right choice. For your commercial vehicle requirements, we can supply and finance anything up to 3.5 tonnes and we can also arrange for specific bespoke modifications such as racking, water tanks, drop-sides, etc... to be added as required.

So whatever your questions are, we have the experience and knowledge to help you get the right vehicle, at the right price.

- service over sales EVERY TIME
- vehicles on time, at a competitive PRICE!
- our customer service is LEGENDARY
- new vehicles for less GUARANTEED!
- we offer impartial and honest ADVICE

Changes to the driving

OUTLINING RECENT CHANGES MADE TO THE DRIVING THEORY TEST

The safety of drivers and pedestrians on our roads has rarely been a hotter topic, particularly with car ownership now at a record high in the UK.

And with the ongoing evolution of the motorcar, so too has the driving theory test developed to suit the times, as well as to keep prospective drivers on their toes... or is that pedals?

What is changing?

The theory test is moving with the times and will now be using video clips instead of written case studies. It follows that visualisation is a common-sense route to take, given the nature of driving itself, and the government expects this linear delivery – whereby the user will then have to answer multiple-choice questions on what they see – to be a more realistic representation of our roads.

The new format also compensates for reading, learning and developmental difficulties that, while disadvantaging someone on a written theory test, wouldn't necessarily have any adverse effect on their ability to drive a car or 'read' the road.

What's not changing?

Remaining the same is the process by which those taking their theory test will revise: they will use the same books and software as before. In addition, users will still have to answer 50 multiple-choice questions in 57 minutes, with a requirement to answer at least 43 correctly.

The hazard perception part of the test also remains the same as before.

These changes to the driving theory test will not apply to those looking to qualify for motorcycle, lorry, bus or coach licences.

The changes come into effect from April 14.

BECKHAM'S MIAMI VICE

DAVID BECKHAM IS SETTING HIS SIGHTS ON NEW SUCCESS, ALBEIT FROM THE DIRECTOR'S BOX

Almost 20 years after the Miami Fusion franchise folded, the Miami Beckham United group bid was successful in purchasing an expansion team and, with it, giving top-level soccer its own name again in the area.

For Becks, it's the latest indelible imprint in a career of firsts. His love of the US is only secondary to his love of football, and stepping up from the changing room to the boardroom was a pathway the former Manchester United, Real Madrid and AC Milan star was always going to tread.

Just a month after the official founding date of Inter Miami – January 28, 2020 – the team played their first match. It came away at Los Angeles – a trip of some 2,700 miles – and ended in a narrow 1–0 defeat, with former Arsenal man Carlos Vela scoring the only goal of the game. However, head coach Diego Alonso, the ex-Uruguay striker who played for five Spanish clubs across two divisions, won't be dismayed.

In fact, a squad that should already be decent enough to compete for minor honours could soon be bolstered by the arrival of some big names from the European football scene.

Giants of the game Lionel Messi and Cristiano Ronaldo – who have won 11 of the last 12 Ballon d'Or trophies between them – plus other big names, have been linked with future moves to the club, so you could say that the future looks bright for the Herons.

There's also a new stadium to look forward to in the form of a purpose-built, 25,000-seater stadium at Miami Freedom Park in Fort Lauderdale, at a construction cost of $60million.

The facility will offer restaurants, retail outlets and hotels, as well as a training centre.

By now, the team were expecting to be playing home matches at the temporary ground of Inter Miami CF Stadium, which is on the former site of Lockhart Stadium – the home of the Fort Lauderdale Strikers. However, the blanket postponements of sporting events, almost globally, has delayed the early days of this football revolution.

When live action does return, Inter Miami have said they will be entering a reserve side into the third tier of US Soccer, USL League One. That will allow them to keep their match-day squad in the MLS competitive, while also giving those players fitness and game time.

Another impressive marker in an incredible sporting legacy, Beckham made just short of a century of appearances for LA Galaxy in the MLS and scored 18 goals, in the process becoming the first Englishman to win league titles in four countries (having also achieved the feat with Manchester United, Real Madrid and PSG).

Ten league titles in England, Spain, France and the United States, 100 Champions League appearances, the first English player to score at three World Cup Finals tournaments and the fourth-highest number of games as captain of the national team – Beckham's place in football folklore, as a player at least, is assured.

If he can achieve even 10 per cent as owner of a football club as he did as a player, he will be adored on both sides of the Atlantic Ocean – watch this space.

TOKYO 2021

THE NEW SPORTS

SPORT

4. SURFING

In the latest instalment showcasing sports set to debut or return at the Olympics in Tokyo, which has been postponed until 2021 due to coronavirus, we take a look at surfing.

The sport of surfing has had a choppy ride with Olympic chiefs over the years. It was more than half a century ago that the pioneer wave rider Duke Kahanamoku encouraged the IOC to make it an official Olympic sport.

He passed away in 1968 at the age of 77, and it has taken until now for the decision-makers to agree to the Hawaiian's proposal. His name will no doubt be mentioned this summer.

Shida Beach, around 40 miles from the Japanese capital, will be the venue for the surfing event, which begins on July 24.

Ocean-based, rather than in a wave pool, heats will be 20-25 minutes long, with four people going at a time. The best two from each will advance.

There will be the usual rules of surfing protocol to adhere to, with penalties and possible points deductions given to those who infringe, such as interfering with the competitor closest to the wave.

Speed and power, plus the difficulty of each manoeuvre attempted and completed, will impact the judges' scores.

As a sport, surfing pays less attention than most to age. It is possible that an athlete approaching their fifties could compete in the event, but that would still be some distance short of the age of the oldest Olympian, Oscar Swahn, who was 72 in the 1920 Antwerp Olympics when he triumphed in shooting.

Kelly Slater, who is probably the most famous surfer ever, said that he could be convinced to come out of retirement to compete, although that's yet to be confirmed. Regardless, it will be one of the more entertaining art forms on show at this year's games.

WORD LADDER

THE AIM: Change the word at the top of the ladder one letter at a time to make the word at the bottom.

HOW TO: Change one letter on each step to make a new word. By the time you reach the end, you should have created the new word.

DO NOT rearrange the order of the letters.

TIP: There is usually more than one way to solve this puzzle.
