Editor's notes...

SEPTEMBER 2021

Brett Shohet, Editor

Hello and welcome to this month's edition of VISIONLoughton. The end of lockdown has given us all chance to make changes to our routines. I've certainly noticed a difference when out and about on the high street, with more people feeling confident enough to step out and explore their local area.

I've made an effort to frequent local businesses, particularly those that have supported VISION, and to keep my pound local. It's more important than ever to ensure businesses have our support.

I've been making up for months of inactivity and am now averaging 14,000 steps a day. After three lockdowns spent sitting on the sofa and eating junk food, I've made a conscious effort to be healthier. As a result, I feel more focussed and ready to take on whatever life throws at me.

There's certainly a sense that we are now coming out of the other side of this dark time. A weight has been lifted, and with this, a renewed sense of optimism as new bookings and enquiries from local businesses flood my inbox. It seems everyone is ready to get back out there and prepare for better times ahead.

As for VISION, we're looking to expand into new areas in the future, so watch this space...

DOWN ON THE FARM

“I’VE SWAPPED SUPERCARS FOR TRACTORS, AND I DARE SAY I’VE LEARNED SOMETHING ALONG THE WAY.”

FROM MASERATIS TO MASSEY FERGUSONS, JEREMY CLARKSON’S NEW LIFE IN RURAL COTSWOLDS IS PROVING A RATINGS WINNER

Consider the image of the traditional British farmer – working the land, toiling with crops, taking care of animals. He would be loud, brash, rugged, stubborn and most probably confrontational (certainly if you were to stray onto his land).

It’s quite fitting, then, that all those adjectives have been used to describe former Top Gear host, Jeremy Clarkson, at various points in the past.

The popular presenter, who has excelled as Chris Tarrant’s successor as host of Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, is in the second phase of a new existence, tending to his meadows in the scenic idylls of the Cotswolds. His TV show, Clarkson’s Farm, has proved to be one of Amazon Prime’s most successful original series following its launch in June.

The concept is a simple one – a city boy, Clarkson, decides to take up farming when a local villager gives up existing rights to farmland in 2019. Whilst embarking on a life in the country, a film crew follows Clarkson’s every move, documenting a layman’s painfully slow elevation into the farming fraternity.

Naturally, any series that showcases ‘Jezza’s’ calming charisma should find itself onto a winner, and reviews have been good. One journalist described the presenter as “a grown man playing Farming Simulator in real life”, and that pretty much captures what’s going on.

The fields Clarkson tends to have been rotated between barley, rapeseed and wheat, although getting to the point of making money from the land has proved a huge undertaking – it was revealed that at the end of series one, Clarkson had made a total profit for the year of just £144.

“Some people will say it’s about the money; for others, it’s the experience,” says the 61-year-old. “This has certainly been an interesting experience where I’ve stepped out of my comfort zone. I’ve swapped supercars for tractors, and I dare say I’ve learned something along the way.”

Such has been the success of the experiment – in TV terms, if not financially for the forlorn farmer – that Amazon Prime is backing a second series.

Clarkson hopes to have sorted a few teething problems that arose during his first year in charge – not least the opening of his farm shop in Chadlington, which created a three-mile queue and necessitated police intervention to disperse the crowds.

He added: “Farming, from the outside, seems to be such a gentle, serene existence; but it’s safe to say it’s anything but.”

And while Clarkson’s foray into agriculture has more than enough to do with making good TV, he has gleaned unexpected praise from the farming world, in the way the series lifts the lid on the tough realities of the industry.

“It’s worth remembering, if we didn’t have farming and agriculture in this country, we’d have nothing. It is the staple of everything around us. I always respected what those men and women do out in the field, but now my admiration is even greater.”

REMEMBERING

20 YEARS OF 9/11

September 11 marks two decades since the largest modern-day assault on the Western world

Many people will be able to recall the events of 9/11 – a day in September 2001 when the world changed forever. It was at 8.45am that the first flight, hijacked by terrorists working for Islamic group, al Qaeda, struck the side of the north World Trade Center in New York City.

As the eyes of the world focussed in on the event, supposing a freak accident had caused the first plane to smash into the 80th floor of the 110-storey skyscraper, a second plane hit the south tower 18 minutes later. A plume of fire engulfed the area, as the aircraft's 20,000 gallons of fuel ignited.

It suddenly became clear that this was no accident. As the hours went by and the collapsing towers claimed almost 3,000 lives, President George W. Bush confirmed al Qaeda's Osama bin Laden as the organiser of the attacks. He promised retaliation would be swift.

A separate attack on the Pentagon claimed more lives, while a fourth plane crashed in a field in Shanksville, Pennsylvania, killing all 44 on board, despite a brave passenger revolt that attempted to overpower the hijackers.

In the aftermath, the US began the so-called War on Terror and immediately launched Operation Enduring Freedom, which removed the Taliban regime from power in Afghanistan and effectively destroyed bin Laden's terrorist network; although the war of fundamentalists continues to this day.

Air travel was transformed globally to ensure that terrorists should never again be able to gain power of an aircraft while in the air – previously, the threat had been from bombs smuggled onto flights. Meanwhile, anti-Muslim violence increased globally, and a new era of surveillance began.

Bin Laden remained at large for another decade before finally being tracked down to a hideout in Abbottabad in Pakistan. He was killed by US Navy SEALs in 2011.

How to repair damaged hair

BEAUTY

Do you know your sprays from your serums? Your oils from your creams? If not, we are here to help. Leave-in conditioners are the ideal haircare products for sun-damaged hair, but which one is best for your hair type?

Why use leave-in conditioner?

Leave-in conditioner is essentially a barrier, protecting your hair from drying out, becoming tangled and getting stripped of its nutrients.

Which type of leave-in conditioner should I use for my sun-damaged hair?

Conditioning hair milk

Conditioner in the form of milk is designed to be extremely lightweight and therefore is best suited to those with fine or flat hair. Hair milk is also good for adding body, shine and silkiness to your hair.

Conditioning hair oil

Oil is ideal for dry and damaged hair. You may be worried that leave-in hair oils will make your hair appear greasy. Fortunately, you can now find some great lightweight hair oils that can be applied to the roots to banish frizz and moisturise each strand of hair.

Conditioning hair serum

If your hair needs a lift, then a volumising leave-in serum is exactly what you need. Unlike other volumising haircare products, a conditioning serum won't dry out your hair, but instead will leave it feeling bouncy, light and hydrated.

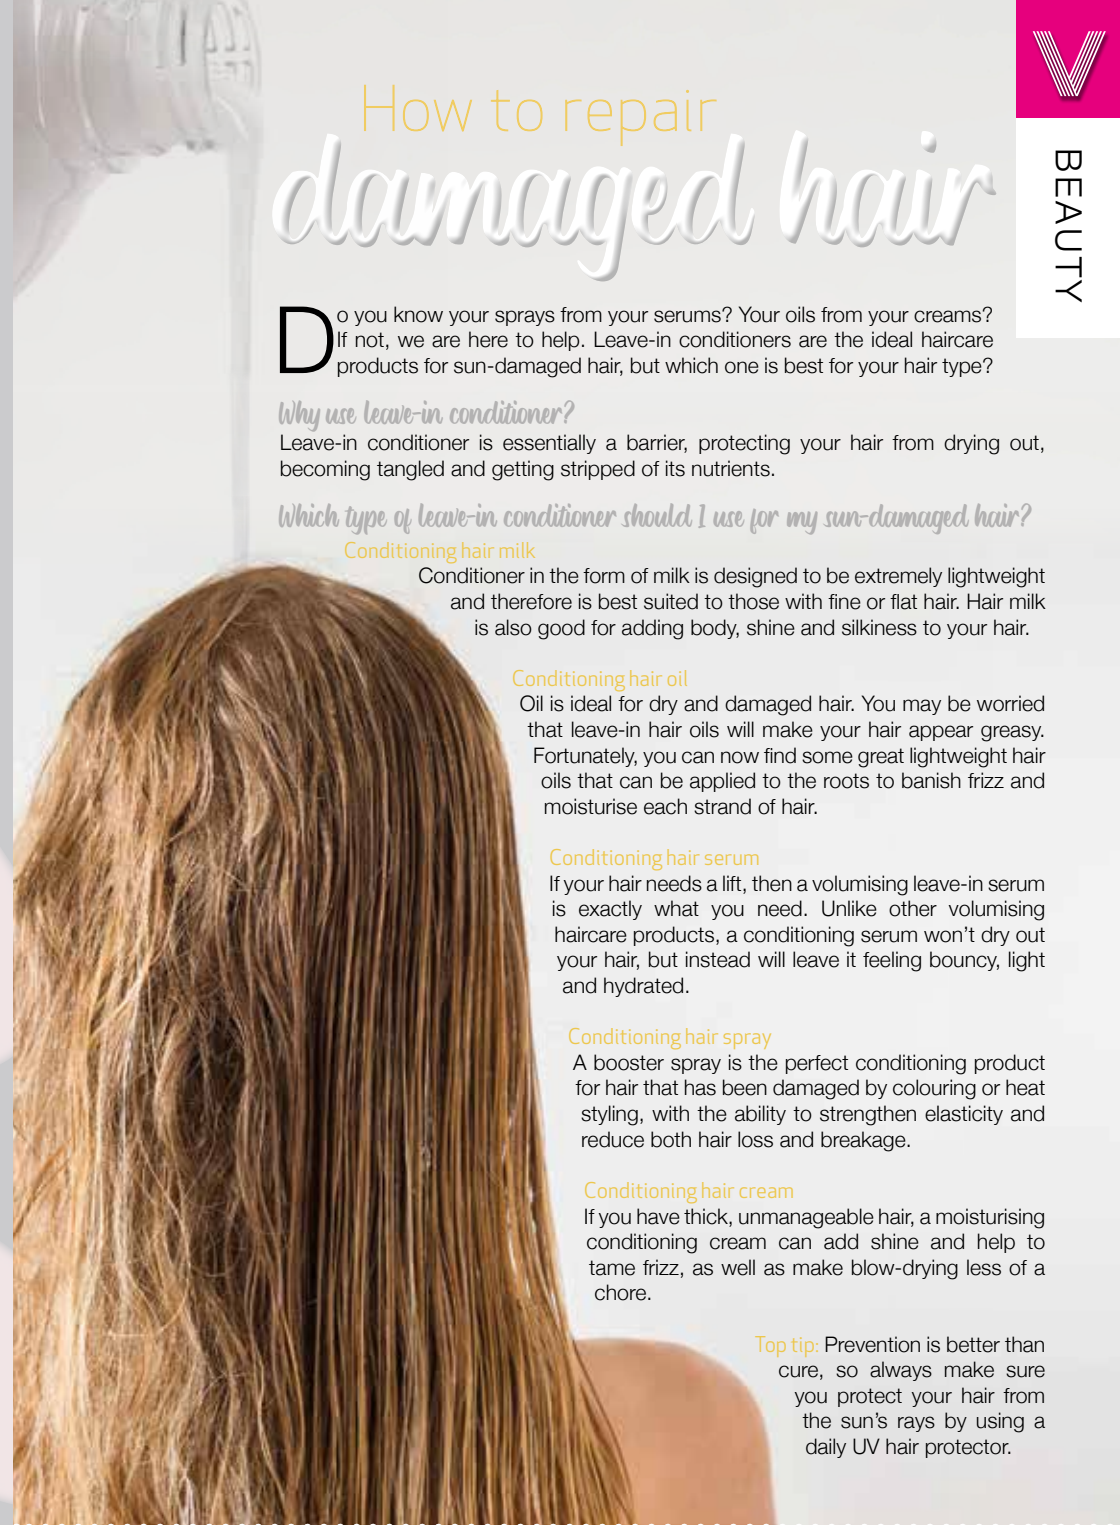

Conditioning hair spray

A booster spray is the perfect conditioning product for hair that has been damaged by colouring or heat styling, with the ability to strengthen elasticity and reduce both hair loss and breakage.

Conditioning hair cream

If you have thick, unmanageable hair, a moisturising conditioning cream can add shine and help to tame frizz, as well as make blow-drying less of a chore.

Top tip: Prevention is better than cure, so always make sure you protect your hair from the sun's rays by using a daily UV hair protector.

FASHION

Brighten YOUR whites

Get your whites white again without the need for bleach with these tried and tested whitening techniques, which can be achieved using only a handful of storecupboard staples.

Soak in citrus juices

If your white items have developed a yellowy tinge from sweat, you can restore them to their original glory by boiling them with lemons or lemon juice. Simply add cut lemons or lemon juice to a pan of water with your whites, turn up the heat until bubbles appear and then leave to soak for an hour. Alternatively, add lemon juice to your regular wash cycle.

Add white vinegar

If you want brighter whites that are also super soft against your skin, simply add a small cup of white vinegar to your usual whites cycle and wait for the magic to happen. Don't worry about the smell; it will dissipate after drying. Vinegar can also be sprayed on spot stains and collar/underarm stains.

Use baking soda

If you don't have any white vinegar to hand, baking soda can be just as effective at whitening your whites. Just combine four litres of water with one cup of baking soda and drop in all your white laundry. Leave to soak and then thoroughly rinse.

Soak in dissolved aspirin

Not just for banishing headaches, aspirin is also great at breaking down stains on your whites. To get the chemical process started, dissolve five white (not coloured) aspirin pills in a bucket of water and then add your items. Leave to soak and then wash as usual.

Lay in the sun

After your whites have been washed, rather than put them in the tumble dryer, use the natural lightening properties of the sun to whiten them. Aim to hang them out during the hottest part of the day to enjoy bright whites and fresh-smelling laundry.

Know Your Numbers!

Week 2021

Do you know your blood pressure numbers? High blood pressure usually has no symptoms, but it can cause heart attacks, strokes, kidney disease, dementia and several other serious illnesses.

Know Your Numbers! Week 2021 aims to seek out those with undiagnosed and uncontrolled high blood pressure and promote the importance of home monitoring.

How to check your blood pressure

In previous years, Blood Pressure UK set up free checks across the country, but owing to social distancing measures, this year it is promoting home monitoring. This allows you to have complete control over your blood pressure and can help put your mind at ease.

How to choose the right blood pressure monitor

There is a wide range of home blood pressure monitors available and you need to pick one that will deliver accuracy and reliability. Look for a monitor that is:

- Clinically validated. This means that it has been tested and gives results you can trust
- Automatic. A digital monitor with an upper arm cuff is easy to use and offers the most reliability
- Within your budget. You don't need to select the most expensive machine on the market.

Why you need to Know Your Numbers!

- 1 in 2 strokes and heart attacks are the result of high blood pressure
- 1 in 3 adults in the UK have high blood pressure
- 1 in 2 adults with high blood pressure don't know they have it or aren't receiving treatment
- High blood pressure costs the NHS £2.1billion every year.

You can find a list of clinically validated home blood pressure monitors on the British and Irish Hypertension Society website.

What is the ideal blood pressure?

An ideal blood pressure is under 120/80mmHg. High blood pressure is considered to be 140/90mmHG or higher. Seek immediate medical help if your blood pressure is 180/120mmHG or higher or you are experiencing severe headaches or blurry vision that you think is being caused by your blood pressure.

Is your smile ready for that SPECIAL OCCASION?

We'll help you look and feel your very best. Call us now!

Wild WORKOUTS

SWAP TRADITIONAL INDOOR GYMS FOR AN OUTDOOR FITNESS EXTRAVAGANZA

Actor and all-round muscle mountain, Jason Momoa, recently admitted to being bored by the same old gym routine, proclaiming that he'd rather embark on some spontaneous rock climbing, surfing and hiking in order to keep himself in shape.

Of course, unlike the star of Aquaman, not many of us have made a living from staying in shape, nor do we reside in Los Angeles. Yet there are a number of fitness-enhancing outdoor exercises that use the world around us... Jason would approve.

RUNNING AND CYCLING: The simplest of them all – pounding the pavements or getting on our bikes are the most popular outdoor workouts.

HIKING: Endurance exercise such as hiking is great for both limbs and lungs, with inclines providing the perfect platform for you to hone your physical prowess while inhaling that fresh, replenishing outdoor air.

LOG-LIFTING: Weightlifting using logs? Why not? Not only can you work on your Rambo impression, but getting to and from the forest setting can provide a workout in itself.

WOODCUTTING: How much wood would a woodcutter cut, etc. It's time to find out – take a saw with you on an everyday country walk and build arm and chest muscles by driving that serrated edge into some fallen logs or branches.

WILD SWIMMING: There is no better form of exercise than swimming, and there is nothing more invigorating than being surrounded by nature's wild waters. However, you must always ensure you are taking a dip in a designated and safe spot, preferably as part of a group.

HANGING TIGHT: A forested area will provide ample opportunities to test upper body strength with lifts, pull-ups, chin presses and other hanging practices that enable you to sample the serenity of nature around you... for as long as you can hold on, that is.

How to RUN SAFELY at night

There is something magical about running at night when the roads are quieter, there are fewer people on the pavements, and the moon is glowing. However, if you are a late-night (or early morning) jogger, you need to make sure you are keeping yourself safe.

CHOOSE A WELL-LIT ROUTE
If possible, pick a well-lit route for your night-time runs, or invest in a running head torch so that you can see any tripping hazards.

DON'T LISTEN TO LOUD MUSIC
Although your running playlist may help keep you motivated, listening to loud music while running at night is extremely dangerous. Instead, leave your headphones at home or use a low-volume setting and stay alert to what is happening around you.

RUN AGAINST THE TRAFFIC
If you prefer to run on the roads rather than in the park at night, make sure you run against the traffic so that you can see any vehicles heading towards you. Always be careful when crossing the road and wait for vehicles to pass before attempting to cross.

TRUST YOUR INSTINCTS
If you feel unsafe, head for a well-lit area or go home. It is always better to be overly cautious than a little reckless.

TELL SOMEONE WHERE YOU ARE GOING
Before you set off on your evening run, be sure to tell a family member or friend where you are going and how long you are going to be.

RUN WITH SOMEONE ELSE
If you are nervous about running at night, ask a friend to come running with you or join a local running group. Remember, there is safety in numbers.

WEAR HIGH-VIS CLOTHING
You should always wear high-vis clothing when running at night so that both drivers and pedestrians can clearly see you. Make sure you are visible from the front and the back.

UNUSUAL VEG OF THE MONTH:

black radish

If you overindulged during the summer months, then this lesser-known vegetable is exactly what you need to get you feeling fighting fit again. Commonly used to support the liver and aid digestion, the black radish is sharper than other radish varieties and offers a kick of spice that is perfect for winter salads.

What does a black radish taste like?

When raw, black radishes are known for their spicy, bitter and pungent flavour. However, when cooked, their crunchy flesh softens and their flavour mellows and develops sweet, peppery undertones.

What are the health benefits of black radish?

Black radish has high levels of a phytonutrient called glucosinolate, which makes it useful as a healing food that is particularly good at supporting the liver, gall bladder and digestive system. It is also an antioxidant booster.

How to prepare and cook black radish

You do not need to peel a black radish unless it is old and the skin is very tough. Instead, scrub well and carve out any holes or cracks that may harbour dirt. When used fresh, the flesh can be thinly sliced, chopped or shredded and added to salads, stirred into grain bowls or used as a topping for tacos. When cooked, black radishes can be roasted, braised, fried and sautéed. They can also be pickled and added as a spicy element to kimchi.

Black radish perfect pairings

Thyme | Parsley | Chives | Mint | Apples | Pomegranates | Carrots | Roasted meats

How to store black radish

Black radishes can be stored long after harvest by submerging the roots in a box of moist sand and placing them in a cool, dark place. Shop-bought black radishes can last up to two months in a perforated plastic bag in the fridge.

FOR GOODNESS'

WHY THE JAPANESE RICE DRINK IS BECOMING POPULAR IN THE UK

If the beverage sake conjures up memories of a warm boozy elixir, washing down a mouthful of sticky, salty noodles – not unpleasant, but decidedly unrefined – you may struggle with the concept of this ancient Japanese rice drink becoming a celebrated spirit among bartenders and liquor connoisseurs.

Made in much the same way as beer – polished rice is washed and steamed, then cooled before the addition of koji (a mould culture) breaks down the enzymes into fermentable sugars – sake has an umami flavour profile that makes it compatible with almost every kind of meal, or, as the Japanese proverb states: “Sake never fights with food.”

As with most things, you get what you pay for, and in the case of sake, it is the polishing ratio of the rice – the more milled it is with the husk and outer portion of the rice kernel removed – that determines how refined the finished product is. The more highly polished the grain, the better the quality and the higher the price, with high-end sakes reaching the same price points as certain top-shelf whiskies.

That neatly brings us to the notion that sake ought to be served warm, which is true if it is made from low-polished rice. However, the more refined the sake, the more its floral, fruity and rich flavours sing, and the more delicious it becomes when served chilled... sticky noodles optional.

TYPES OF SAKE:

- > Daiginjo: A super-premium sake with minimum 50 per cent polishing ratio. Best served chilled.
- > Ginjo: A premium fragrant sake with minimum 40 per cent polishing ratio. Best served chilled.
- > Honjozo: A light, premium sake polished to a minimum of 70 per cent (unlike most premium sake, honjozo is best served heated gently to 45–50°C).
- > Junmai: Sake made with no minimum polishing ratio (heat gently to 45–50°C).

FOOD & DRINK

ORGANIC September

PROS AND CONS OF CHOOSING ORGANIC

Organic September is a month-long campaign to raise awareness of the benefits of organic food and farming, but is organic food really as good as it's made out to be?

WHAT DOES 'ORGANIC' MEAN?
The term 'organic' refers to the way agricultural products are grown and processed. Standards vary worldwide but, as a general rule, organic produce must be grown without the use of synthetic herbicides, pesticides and fertilisers or bioengineered genes.

PROS FOR BUYING ORGANIC FOOD:
> Organic farming is friendlier to the environment
> Organic processed food contains no hydrogenated fat
> Organic food is often fresher
> Organic farming ensures that animals are fed a natural diet and kept in free-range conditions
> Genetically modified (GM) crops are not permitted under organic farming standards
> Organic food contains lower levels of pesticide residues.

CONS FOR BUYING ORGANIC FOOD:
> Organic food tends to go off quicker than non-organic food as it does not contain artificial preservatives
> Organic food is more expensive
> Organic food production does allow a limited number of chemicals to be used
> Some research suggests that organic food is no safer or more nutritious than non-organic food.

ORGANIC FOOD BUYING TIPS:
1. Buy in season as this is when fruits and vegetables are freshest and most affordable.
2. Prioritise meat, eggs and dairy if your budget can stretch to this.
3. Know your produce pesticide levels. Some types of conventionally grown produce are higher in pesticides than others.
4. Shop around. You can find organic produce at your local grocer, farmer's market, online and even in the freezer section of your supermarket.
5. Remember that organic food doesn't always mean healthy. Organic baked goods, desserts and snacks can still be high in sugar, salt and fat.

A CLEAN night's sleep?

HOW TO CLEAN A MATTRESS IN FIVE SIMPLE STEPS

From dust mites to dead skin, dirt to dog hair, your mattress could be harbouring a whole host of unpleasant debris, especially if you fail to clean it once every six months as recommended by cleaning experts.

Fortunately, cleaning a mattress is much easier than you might think...

STEP 1: GATHER YOUR CLEANING SUPPLIES

To deep clean your mattress, you will need:

- > A vacuum cleaner with an upholstery attachment
- > An enzyme-based cleaner
- > Baking soda
- > Cloths
- > Cold water

STEP 2: VACUUM THE MATTRESS

Go over the entire surface of your mattress using the upholstery attachment on your vacuum cleaner. Don't forget to do the sides, and pay special attention to the seams.

STEP 3: SPOT CLEAN THE MATTRESS

You should never soak your mattress or apply water directly to it, especially if you have a memory foam one, so you need to spot clean any stains instead using an enzyme-based cleaner. Spray the cleaner on to a cloth and blot the affected area. Then apply cold water to a different cloth and blot again.

STEP 4: SPRINKLE BAKING SODA

If you can't put your mattress outside for some fresh air, baking soda is the next best thing. Simply sprinkle a layer over your whole mattress, leave for several hours, or ideally overnight, and the baking soda will break down any acid and absorb any remaining moisture or odours. Vacuum again.

STEP 5: FLIP THE MATTRESS

Now that one side is spotless, flip your mattress over and repeat all of the above steps on the other side.

HOW TO PROTECT YOUR MATTRESS

- > Invest in a mattress protector
- > Use fitted sheets that are washed regularly
- > Give your pets their own designated beds
- > Rotate every two to six months
- > Strip your mattress, open the windows and let your mattress air once a month

Fix up your FRONT DOOR

As they say, first impressions are everything, and this is particularly true when it comes to your home. Whether you are looking to sell or you simply want your property to look its best, these front door ideas promise to boost your kerb appeal and make your neighbours green with envy.

WONDERFUL WOOD: If you are looking to invest in a completely new front door, you can't go wrong with good old, reliable wood. Offering warmth and visual appeal, wooden doors can be easily refreshed and updated and, when looked after properly, can last a lifetime.

CLEVER COMPOSITE: A slightly more luxurious option to uPVC, composite doors are made using a variety of different materials, such as timber, reinforced plastic and, occasionally, steel. Offering durability and longevity, composite doors will not warp, rot or crack, so there will never be a need to sand, strip or paint them.

COLOUR CONSIDERATION: Although white remains the most popular choice for front doors, bold colours, such as vibrant reds and deep blues, are becoming increasingly popular for properties in cities. If you have a brick house, look for shades that sit opposite on the colour wheel. Red bricks suit blue or green tones, whereas sandstone looks great with yellow or red.

DOUBLE UP: If your property boasts a wide entrance, you are in the fortunate position to be able to select a double door. Perfect for homeowners who are looking for the wow factor, double doors come in a range of different styles and colours, with options to suit both traditional and contemporary homes.

ADDED TOUCHES: If you don't want to invest in a new front door, why not update your current one?

- > Add a seasonal wreath
- > Invest in new hardware, such as door handles and a letterbox
- > Upgrade your lighting with lanterns or a hanging door pendant

SHAPE YOUR DAY WITH fragrance zoning

Fragrance zoning, also known as scent-scaping, is the process of differentiating spaces in your home using the power of fragrance. Allowing you to create zones for productivity, relaxation and invigoration, scent-scaping is one wellness trend we can definitely get on board with.

KITCHEN
You want this pivotal room in your home to smell fresh and bright, but you also need to consider scents that neutralise unsavoury odours. Opt for citrus-based aromas, such as lemon, lime, tangerine and grapefruit, and avoid spicy or overly sweet scents that will clash with food smells.

LIVING ROOM
A place to relax and unwind after a hard day, your living room should be your sanctuary for downtime. Choose scents that evoke feelings of calm, such as jasmine, cinnamon, rosemary and ambergris. Alternatively, if you are looking to create a lively, social atmosphere, herbs such as basil and sage and fruits including green apple and pomegranate are best.

BEDROOM
As you would expect, lavender is the perfect aroma for inducing sleep, so is ideal for using in the bedroom. However, a bedroom is not just a place to rest; you may also want to feel invigorated in the morning, which citrus, mint and eucalyptus can help with. Alternatively, set the scene for romance with amber, vanilla, sandalwood and cedarwood.

OFFICE SPACE
If you are working from home, you need to be able to create a clear boundary between your work space and other areas of your home. Opt for uplifting aromas that will keep your motivation levels high, such as sweet mandarin, white grapefruit and aromatic herbs such as basil and mint.

LOVE CHIC LIVING...

...inspiring home style with Jen Stanbrook

With so much home design inspiration out there, it's easy to get lost in a sea of ideas. But when you're looking for classic ideas, or you need some style advice, there's only one place to go – Jen Stanbrook.

Jen is the friendly face behind Love Chic Living, a lifestyle blog that aims to "inspire with achievable home decor ideas, tips and makeovers". The blog is a great place to find home inspiration, as well as all kinds of tutorials and guides. Want to style your home the Love Chic Living way? Learn more about Jen's incredible home style.

WHO IS JEN?

Jen is the first person to admit she's an interiors addict. Her love for all things interiors led to the creation of her blog, where she showcases "inspirational yet achievable home interiors". Jen also works as a freelance blogger, writing blogs for other clients. Jen is a mum-of-two and lives in a gorgeous Victorian terrace, which goes to show that family homes don't have to be boring.

EMBRACE LOVE CHIC LIVING IN YOUR HOME

Jen's style makes the most of classic details, but also uses a lot of colour and quirky details that make her home stand out. There are some great colour blocks to enjoy in Jen's home, which show that even traditional homes can sparkle with some bold choices.

What's great about Jen's style is that it is very accessible and easy to recreate yourself. Jen uses prints and wallpaper to brighten living room spaces or to create details such as fake panelling, something that can easily be done to transform a room without much effort.

Even more classically styled areas, like the kitchen, bring in some subtle details that draw the eye, such as hexagon tiles and pops of yellow. Taking small risks with your styling can create a look that's unique to you, which is why Jen's home style is so adored.

If you want to embrace the Love Chic Living look in your home, the following tips can help you create some standout looks:

- > Don't be afraid to use patterns in your home to add some interest. Jen layers contrasting rugs to create some unique and vibrant looks.
- > Mix up your colour scheme by using muted wall colours against bold accessories. to create a look that's modern and on trend.
- > Look to your high street, local independant shops or boutiques to find some amazing items.

ALTERNATIVE USES FOR

VODKA

HOME & DIY

Have you got a near-empty bottle of vodka gathering dust in your cupboard? If your answer is yes, you will be pleased to know that there are countless ways to use this odourless spirit around your home.

TO DEODORISE CLOTHES: Fallen behind on your washing? Simply spritz your blazer or suit jacket with vodka and marvel as the spirit eliminates smelly bacteria and leaves your clothes odour-free.

TO CLEAN WINDOWS: Getting your windows streak-free can be a challenge, but not anymore. All you need to do is create your own homemade window cleaner using one cup of water, half a cup of vodka and ¼ teaspoon baking soda. Spray directly onto the glass and wipe with a microfibre cloth.

TO REMOVE GREASE: Both straight vodka and a one-to-one vodka-water mix can be used to degrease range hoods, backsplashes and countertops. You can also add a few tablespoons of vodka to your washing-up bowl to cut through the grease on oily dishes.

TO PROLONG THE LIFE OF RAZORS: Banish dull razors for good by cleaning the blade and then soaking in a glass of vodka for 10-15 minutes. Not only does this completely disinfect your razor, but it also helps to remove rust.

TO REMOVE MOULD: Vodka can be used to quickly and effectively clean mouldy spots around your home. Just pour some vodka directly onto the affected area and then scrub with a sturdy brush.

TO PRESERVE PLANTS: Vodka has the ability to inhibit ethylene production, so add a few drops of undiluted vodka to cut flowers or plants to extend their lifespan.

TO REMOVE VOMIT STAINS: Spray diluted vodka directly on to a vomit stain, scrub and then blot dry. Voilà! No more nasty stain.

GREAT SCOTT

Whether playing or presenting, the brilliant Alex Scott MBE has always kept the football in focus, and now her biggest challenge has begun.

Conducting a career in the public eye is undoubtedly difficult enough, but doing so always in the sneering shadow of those who diminish women in sport must be doubly challenging. For that reason, Alex Scott – former England defender, BBC Sport matchday host and summariser, and the new face of Football Focus – is one of the very best in the game.

The 36-year-old has had to endure her fair share of criticism since she started appearing on our screens a decade ago. In a new era of media personalities who don't subscribe to the stereotype of white middle-aged men, the London-born ex-Arsenal full-back stands out for her purposeful delivery, adept understanding of the tactical and psychological intricacies of the game, and an ability to mix expert comment with light-hearted banter.

Scott's duties as Tokyo Olympics host opposite Clare Balding further proved her versatility – even if the BBC was panned for some of its coverage – and the logical progression has been for her to step into the Saturday lunchtime Football Focus hotseat, recently vacated by Dan Walker.

"The show has become a real lunchtime football institution and it's such an honour to be taking over from Dan, who is one of the very best on our screens," she says.

"It's a lot of pressure and I won't pretend I'm not nervous about the opportunity, but I'm discussing my favourite subject in the world, so I'm sure I'll be fine."

Scott first discovered a passion for sport growing up around the busy streets of Poplar, East London. At the age of eight, she signed for Arsenal, playing as a striker and right-winger before being converted into a full-back. After a solitary season at Birmingham City, she moved back to the Gunners in 2005, helping win a Women's Premier League and FA Cup double. Further success followed – including clinching all domestic trophies and the UEFA Women's Cup in the 'quadruple' season – though never one to rest on her laurels, she took the opportunity to explore soccer in the United States in 2009, signing for the Boston Breakers.

She returned for a third spell at Arsenal in 2011, before finally hanging up her boots in 2018. Along the way, she became the second-most capped women's England footballer of all time. She competed for the Three Lions at seven major tournaments, winning a silver at the 2009 Women's Euros and a bronze at the 2015 Women's World Cup.

Her first TV appearances came while still playing – she was a guest on Soccer AM, had minor roles with the BBC, BT Sport and Sky Sports, and also appeared in Bear Grylls' ITV show Mission Survive, which she won.

By then she had already founded The Alex Scott Academy, in partnership with Kingston College and Puma, designed to help develop female footballers aged 16–19. It was the first such academy to promote the women's game in the UK. Scott was awarded an MBE for services to football in 2017.

As well as hosting Football Focus, this year will see Scott present daytime quiz show The Tournament.

She says: "In TV work just as in my days playing football, I am one of those people who just wants to go out there and grab as many opportunities as possible, so I'm thrilled to have new challenges in front of me."

The impact crater of the asteroid widely believed to have led to the extinction of most of the dinosaurs is buried beneath which country?

- A: Ethiopia
- B: Mexico
- C: Kyrgyzstan
- D: Paraguay

Teacher makes TV history before winning £125k

A teacher from Loughton made television history before winning £125,000.

Jerome Singh appeared on an episode of Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? on August 14, and he remarkably got exactly the same time as another contestant in the fastest finger round, meaning the pair needed another round to separate them.

Jerome came out on top, with a time of 3.64 seconds, to earn a spot in the hot seat.

He then raced through the early rounds before telling the host, Jeremy Clarkson, that he had been inspired by another teacher, Donald Fear, who won the top prize on the show in 2020.

The question that made Jerome smile the biggest was the £64,000 question: "The impact crater of the asteroid widely believed to have led to the extinction of most of the dinosaurs is believed to be buried under which country?"

He correctly answered Mexico, and took to social media to explain why the question made him so happy.

He said: "I had read about it almost 20 years ago to the day, in a book that my parents had bought me as a young child.

"Pursue knowledge for knowledge's sake. Reading is one of the best investments you can make in yourself."

Ultimately, the teacher was caught out by a question about snooker world championship title winners and took the £125,000 on offer.

Former school pupils both left with Olympic regret

Two former Loughton pupils both narrowly missed out on Olympic finals last month.

Daniel Rowden and Reece Prescod, both former students at Davenant Foundation School, competed in the 800m and 100m respectively, and both exited at the semi-final stage.

For Rowden, it was devastatingly close, as he missed out on qualification by just five one-hundredths of a second, while for Prescod it was regret of a different kind, as he was disqualified for a false start.

Rowden, who left the Loughton school in 2016, broke records in every year group while he was a pupil and most recently became British champion, winning the 800m event at the 2020 British Athletics Championships.

Prescod, who left Davenant in 2012, also holds various school records.

Both couldn't hide their disappointment at their semi-final exits.

Prescod said: "To be honest, it's just my fault. I'm not going to shy away from it, not going to blame anything, or make an excuse for it."

Rowden said: "I felt like I was finishing quick and there was a bit of a gap as I was coming through. In 800m running, if there's no space, it means you've put yourself in the wrong position.

"It's disappointing because I knew what my potential was; I knew that I had potential to get a medal."

Man arrested on suspicion of woman's murder

A man has been arrested on suspicion of murder following the death of a woman in Loughton.

Essex Police were called to Grosvenor Drive shortly before 12.15am on Friday, August 20, to reports that a woman in her 50s had been involved in a collision with a vehicle. She was pronounced dead at the scene.

An area of the road was cordoned off while police investigated.

A 61-year-old man from Loughton was arrested on suspicion of murder and has been bailed until September 16.

Detective Chief Inspector Scott Egerton, from the Kent and Essex Serious Crime Directorate, said: "I know this will be a concerning incident for people living in and around this part of Loughton, but we do not believe there is a wider risk to the public.

"We are making enquiries to establish the circumstances around this incident, but at this stage we believe all those involved knew each other and we're not looking for anyone else.

"I need anyone who saw anything, has CCTV, dashcam or doorbell footage to contact us."

If you have any information, please call 101 quoting incident 13 of 20 August.

Group invites residents to games afternoons

LOCAL NEWS

A voluntary group from Loughton is encouraging people in the community to take part in its games afternoons.

Loughton Voluntary Care (LVC) holds games afternoons at Loughton Methodist Church on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 12pm to 3pm.

The events offer people a chance to socialise while enjoying a range of games, including Scrabble, dominoes, backgammon and cards.

LVC guarantees a warm welcome and volunteers will be there to play if you need an opponent. It is free to attend, so there is no need to book.

LVC, which has been active in the community for more than 40 years, also provides transport for older or less mobile residents to medical appointments, and good neighbour services, such as visiting and shopping services for housebound clients.

For more information on the group, visit www.loughtonvoluntarycare.org.uk

Appeal for witnesses after three injured in collision

Police are appealing for witnesses after a serious collision in Loughton in which three people were injured.

A black Honda Civic and a black Mercedes were reported to have been seen driving at speed on the M11 southbound between junctions 5 and 4, near Loughton and Woodford, shortly before 11.35pm on August 8.

The Honda was then involved in collision with a black and grey moped.

A Toyota Prius that attempted to avoid the vehicles then collided with a Vauxhall Crosslander.

The moped rider, a 32-year-old man from north London, was taken to hospital with multiple injuries and remains in a stable condition.

Two women inside the Toyota, who were both from east London, were injured. A 38-year-old woman suffered whiplash and a 48-year-old woman suffered a fractured wrist.

The drivers of the Honda, Mercedes and Vauxhall were not hurt.

An Essex Police spokesperson said: "The Honda driver, a 25-year-old man from Edmonton, was arrested on suspicion of causing serious injury by dangerous driving, drink-driving and racing on a highway.

"Two people connected to the Mercedes were also arrested.

"A 28-year-old man from Edmonton was arrested on suspicion of causing serious injury by dangerous driving, drink-driving, obstruction of a police officer and racing on a highway.

"A 26-year-old woman from Finchley in London was arrested on suspicion of dangerous driving and racing on a highway.

"They have all been released under investigation."

Anyone with information should call 101.

Difficult year ends in GCSE and A Level success

Two schools from Loughton say they are "delighted" after exceptional GCSE and A Level results.

Despite a disrupted year because of the pandemic, both Debden Park and Roding Valley High Schools enjoyed success on results day.

At Debden Park High School, 72 per cent of students achieved outstanding GCSE Grade 4 or above in both English and maths, and 50 per cent of students achieved a Grade 5 or above in both English and maths.

In total, across all subjects, 87 entries were awarded the highest possible grade.

At the Sixth Form, 35 per cent of grades were A* and A, 60 per cent were A* to B, and 86 per cent of students attained A* to C grades.

Students at Roding Valley High School also enjoyed success, with several achieving impressive results.

Roding Valley High School headteacher, Sharon Jenner, said: "We are immensely proud of all the work and achievements of our students, especially after such a difficult and disrupted year."

Council reviews consultation

Essex County Council (ECC) has reassured Loughton residents that "the voice of the local community is vital" as it reviews responses to public consultations on a new library.

The library would be part of a new development including at least 38 flats if plans are approved, though residents have reportedly expressed concerns about the proposal.

Councillor Stephen Murray, from Loughton Town Council, said: "I have spoken to absolutely no one living in Loughton who agrees the right solution is to knock down the existing library, provide a much smaller library and build approximately 38 highly-priced flats for sale.

"I am an optimist by nature, but throughout this whole consultation process, I couldn't help thinking that this whole scheme is a done deal with ECC, which gives its own planning permission."

In response, councillor Louise McKinlay, cabinet member for community, equality, partnerships and performance at ECC, said: "The redevelopment of Loughton Library is an exciting project that will create a modern community asset and support our ambition to improve the library service in the area.

"The consultation process marked a key milestone in the project and gave residents the opportunity to provide comments and feedback.

"The voice of the local community is vital in these projects, and we are now reviewing the responses received to inform the next design iteration, which we hope to submit later this year."

Reality TV star to appear in court over revenge porn allegations

A reality TV star from Loughton has been given a trial date following allegations against him of voyeurism and revenge porn.

Stephen Bear (pictured inset), 31, who won Celebrity Big Brother in 2016, thanked the judge at Chelmsford Crown Court on July 30 as he was told he will face trial on February 7, 2022, for one count of voyeurism and two counts of disclosing private, sexual photographs or films with intent to cause distress.

The TV star pleaded not guilty to all the offences and said: "It's nice to finally set a date when I can hopefully get my life back."

It is alleged he secretly filmed himself having sex with a woman at his home on August 2, 2020, before sharing the footage without her consent.

It is claimed he shared the sexual images by uploading them to porn sites, OnlyFans and Pornhub, on August 2 and November 8 last year.

Outside the court, he gave photographers a thumbs-up and shouted the words: "Not guilty."

Police appeal after man charged with stabbing

A man has been charged after a stabbing in Loughton which left the victim hospitalised.

Junior Lawrence, 22, of New North Road, Ilford, has been charged with grievous bodily harm with intent and possession of a bladed article in a public place.

Meanwhile, a woman, aged 19, was also arrested, but remains on police bail.

This follows a stabbing in Langston Road, at the junction with Chigwell Lane (A1168), shortly after 7.25pm on August 4, which was reported to have followed an altercation between the occupants of a white van and a red Ford Fiesta.

Both vehicles left the scene, but the injured man was later located in Church Hill before being taken to hospital for treatment.

Following the incident, police issued an appeal.

An Essex Police spokesperson said: "The junction of Langston Road and Chigwell Lane is a busy one and we believe there will be people who saw what happened or have dashcam footage of it.

"Go online or call 101 quoting incident 1136 of August 4."

Firm raises more than £100,000 for good causes

A foundation set up by a Loughton-based accounting firm has managed to raise more than £180,000 for good causes in Essex and London.

Haslers Chartered Accountants founded the Haslers Foundation almost a decade ago to prevent or relieve financial hardship, poverty and to assist those with disabilities or life-limiting illnesses.

Over the years, a number of fundraising events and donations from clients and contacts of the firm have helped them provide support to local groups and communities.

Among those to benefit was Oak View School in Loughton, with the foundation matching pupils' donations to raise £1,392.04. The Dream Factory, High Beech Primary School and Chess Homeless also benefited from the firm's generosity.

Jon O'Shea, chairman of Haslers Chartered Accountants, praised the fantastic causes supported by the foundation.

He said: "We are delighted to be supporting these wonderful local causes and organisations. Both Oak View School and The Dream Factory do incredible work, often under very challenging circumstances.

"We also hope that High Beech Primary School and Chess Homeless can make good use of our funds."

Warning given to motorists after scam reports

Loughton motorists are being urged to be cautious when using car parks after reports of attempted scams.

Epping Forest District Council (EFDC) issued the warning after attempted scams in two of its car parks in recent weeks.

Drivers were approached by a man offering assistance with using the pay and display ticket machine.

The suspect told the motorists to pay by card and then claimed the credit card had been captured by the machine.

It is believed that in one of the incidents, a female accomplice distracted the motorists while the scammer made off with the card.

The two incidents have been reported to police.

An EFDC spokesperson informed motorists how they can spot car park workers.

They said: "Enforcement officers who work in our car parks all wear uniforms with an NSL logo on them and carry ID and equipment for issuing parking tickets.

"We urge all EFDC car park users not to engage with anyone who offers to assist with paying for parking. If you are approached by someone, even if they have some form of ID, do not give them your card.

"No parking attendant will ever ask you for your credit card to pay for parking. Call the police immediately or ask someone to help you call the police."

5 Gardens TO VISIT THIS AUTUMN

Make the most of the last of the warmer days before winter sets in with a relaxing stroll around some of the finest gardens the country has to offer.

HERGEST CROFT GARDENS – Kington, Herefordshire, HR5 3EG

Covering more than 70 acres in the Welsh Marches and boasting spectacular views of the Black Mountains, this gem of a garden is a tree-lover's paradise. Home to more than 5,000 rare trees, including the National Collections of maples and birches, the more formal gardens include roses, irises and herbaceous borders.

EXBURY GARDENS – Exbury, near Southampton, SO45 1AZ

Famous worldwide for its Rothschild collections of rhododendrons and azaleas, when exploring these 200 acres of woodland gardens, look out for the viburnum and cotoneaster, which are particularly stunning at this time of year.

KNOLL GARDENS – Hampreston, Dorset, BH21 7ND

If you prefer a more intimate garden, Knoll Gardens is the perfect choice. A natural garden that exudes peace and tranquillity, it offers a handsome collection of woody plants and some of the best grasses around. Don't leave without snapping some inspirational photos for your own autumn garden.

THE SAVILL GARDEN – Englefield Green, Surrey, TW20 0UU

At this popular garden, each season brings something new, with autumn signalling the arrival of maples and cherries, as well as breath-taking displays of fungi. A great day out for horticultural enthusiasts and families alike.

SHEFFIELD PARK AND GARDEN – Haywards Heath, East Sussex, TN22 3QX

Although famous for its displays of spring flowers, this park is actually at its best in autumn, when its collection of exotic trees and shrubs comes alive in an abundance of vibrant oranges and rich reds. Ideal for anyone who loves to be surrounded by open water, enjoy the striking reflections in the lake and see all your stresses ebb away.

MANOJ MALDE

FROM THE RUNWAY TO ROSES

As far as creative design is concerned, there's a fair amount of crossover between the artistic sensibilities of fashion and home design. After all, dealing with shapes, styles and moods should be pretty ubiquitous, right?

Proving the concept in recent times has been Manoj Malde. These days, the London-based landscape designer is widely admired at the RHS Chelsea Flower Show and recently appeared on our TV screens on BBC2's Your Garden Made Perfect.

The craft and creativity he offers now see his eponymous Manoj Malde Garden Design company operating as a renowned entity, engaged by clients with outdoor spaces of all sizes.

Yet for many years, the affable Kenya-born 54-year-old regularly traded outdoor space for the hubbub of retail outlets, the relentless nature of catwalks and the studios of fashion designers. Throughout his two-decade tenure in the fashion world, he worked in Italy, Germany, the United States, India and Hong Kong, though he was always swayed by flora and fauna. In a spectacular career switch, he began studying garden design at The English Gardening School.

The Your Garden Made Perfect host explained: "The thought process behind garden design is not unlike fashion design – the concept still begins with themes, mood boards, colour palettes and textures.

"Designing a planting scheme is like creating a beautiful silk print. I've gone from haute couture to 'hort' couture," he laughs.

As for what we can look forward to in the coming months, Manoj says more rugged, even unkempt gardens are en vogue. He also promotes the idea that creating closer synergy between the home and the garden is vital.

"Gardens are now seen as another room and an extension of our homes. This is really driving garden furniture, and there is such an excellent selection out there, while outdoor kitchens are really on trend."

GET OFF MY

Cloud

Our reliance on the cloud – that is, remote storage of everything from music to personal documents to photos – has transformed our lives, not to mention the speed of our computers and devices.

Gone are the days when our life's memories were held on hard drives or burned onto CDs. Yet there are growing fears that what we are gaining in terms of convenience, we may be losing as far as security goes, following a spate of data breaches.

With that in mind, here are five ways to keep your cloud storage safe:

PASSWORD STRENGTH

Using a strong password is a must, whether protecting your data or simply logging into something as mundane as a parking app. Long, unique passwords with a combination of upper- and lowercase letters, with numbers and symbols, are best.

FILE SHARING FOIBLES

Sharing via the cloud is one of its best features, but this 'foot in the door' also provides a route for others to potentially sneak in. It's therefore advised you regularly audit who you're sharing with.

TWO FACTOR AUTHENTICATION

It's a phrase that's becoming embedded in our subconscious, and plays itself out usually by having to enter a six-digit code when logging into a platform or system. In the moment, it feels like a hassle, but by doubling your protection, you're doubling your security.

CONFLICTED CONNECTIONS

While hackers may not be able to access your cloud storage via the conventional route, it could be that they can gain entry through connected apps or programmes (such as calendar or email), so regular checks and removal of any third-party apps you're not using is a great way of keeping your information secure.

NOTIFICATIONS

Finally, if the worst thing happens and you do have someone sniffing around where they shouldn't be, by activating notifications, you'll quickly be made aware of a foreign body and can take action.

CBD

FOR PETS:

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

The global CBD pet market size was valued at a whopping £20.2million in 2019 and is expected to grow at a compound annual rate of 40.3 per cent between 2020 and 2027.

From tinctures to topicals to treats, there is a whole host of CBD products that are specifically designed for pets. However, do they work and, most importantly, are they safe?

WHAT IS CBD?

CBD stands for cannabidiol and is the second most prevalent active ingredient of cannabis. Derived from the hemp plant, unlike tetrahydrocannabinol (THC), CBD does not have any psychoactive properties and will therefore not make you or your pet feel 'high'.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF CBD FOR PETS?

Although research is still ongoing, there are several potential benefits of CBD for pets, including:

- ★ Reducing stress and/or anxiety, including separation anxiety
- ★ Acting as a natural pain reliever, especially for inflammatory conditions such as arthritis

- ★ Enhancing appetite
- ★ Reducing nausea and/or vomiting
- ★ Treating skin conditions
- ★ Helping wounds to heal faster

IS CBD SAFE FOR PETS?

There is no evidence to suggest that CBD is toxic to dogs or cats, as long as it is given in the right doses and is purchased from a trusted manufacturer. In terms of potential side effects, there is currently no scientific data on CBD usage in pets but, based on humans, they could possibly experience:

- ★ Dry mouth
- ★ Lowered blood pressure
- ★ Drowsiness

IS CBD FOR PETS LEGAL IN THE UK?

CBD oil has not yet been approved by the Veterinary Medicines Directorate or the Food Standards Agency (FDA) as an official medicine. If you think that CBD could help your pet, you need to speak to your vet first, as only they can legally prescribe CBD to your animal.

KIDS

HOW TO

PERFORM CPR

ON CHILDREN AND BABIES

HOW TO DO CPR ON A CHILD OR A BABY UNDER ONE-YEAR-OLD:

- > Check if the child is responsive. If they do not speak, gesture or open their eyes when you communicate with or gently shake them, they are unresponsive.
- > Check that their airway is open and clear by placing one hand on their forehead to tilt their head back and using two fingers from your other hand to lift their chin.
- > See if the child is breathing normally by listening for sounds of breathing and watching to see if their chest moves.
- > If they are unresponsive and not breathing, ask a helper to call 999/112 for emergency help and start CPR immediately. Do not leave the child or baby to make the call.
- > If you are alone, give one minute of CPR as detailed below before calling 999 on speakerphone.
- > To start CPR, place the child on a firm surface and open their airway as explained above.
- > Take your hand from the forehead and pinch the soft part of the nose closed, allowing the mouth to fall open.
- > Take a breath and put your mouth around the child's to make a seal.
- > Blow gently into the mouth for up to one second until the chest rises.
- > Remove your mouth, watch the chest fall and repeat five times.
- > It is vital that you perform rescue breaths, as cardiac arrest in both babies and children is most likely caused by a respiratory problem.
- > Next, kneel by them and put one hand in the centre of their chest.
- > Push down one-third of the depth of the chest, then release pressure so the chest comes back up.
- > For babies under 12 months, place two fingers in the centre of the baby's chest instead of your whole hand.
- > Repeat this 30 times at a rate of 100-120 compressions per minute.
- > Alternate two breaths and 30 compressions until help arrives, the child starts to breathe normally, or a defibrillator is ready to be used.

A new take on property

When you select a premium service, you usually expect to pay more. Kingsmarq Real Estate are not your typical estate agents, and like everything we do, we challenge the notion of what good property services look like. Our philosophy is centred on having a small portfolio of customers at any one time, treating them with excellent customer service, driving a bespoke and strategic marketing campaign and providing sound advice to make the process as smooth as possible.

Whether you are looking to sell or let your property, by taking great care of the process, our approach helps you to achieve a better outcome, faster. This allows us to keep our costs competitive compared to other local agents. Kingsmarq Real Estate; premium property services that work.

GET YOUR HEAD IN THE

Cloud

An estimated 84 per cent of businesses in the UK are taking advantage of the cloud. In its simplest terms, when something is stored in the cloud, it is kept on internet servers rather than a computer's hard drive. If you are not using this technology, here are the advantages your business is missing out on.

have an internet connection.

INCREASED SECURITY: Protecting your data is paramount in this day and age, and cloud computing is far safer than storing your data on a physical server or data centre. Not only can you delete any confidential information remotely, but clouding platforms are also incredibly difficult to hack.

COST-EFFECTIVENESS: If you are trying to reduce your operational costs, shifting to cloud computing can help you save a significant amount of money. Running a data centre is expensive, yet cloud providers offer storage options to suit all budgets.

BOOSTED SCALABILITY: Traditionally, if you experience growth, you need to invest in additional servers and storage. However, with the cloud, you can easily increase your storage space or add new features by simply upgrading your package.

ENHANCED FLEXIBILITY: Allowing your employees to access the information they need wherever they are, cloud computing is ideal for remote working. Plus, you can monitor the operations of your business much more effectively.

IMPROVED COLLABORATION: As already mentioned, cloud computing is perfect for remote workers, as employees can complete projects from different locations. However, it is also great for improving team performance, as staff members can easily share real-time data and updates with those both in and outside the office.

NO NEED FOR A DISASTER RECOVERY PLAN: When you store data in the cloud, you do not need to worry about permanent data loss. Your data will always be available as long as you

Does your home qualify for a green mortgage?

Green mortgages are becoming increasingly popular across the UK, with banks keen to offer sustainable lending and homebuyers embracing more eco-friendly lifestyles.

WHAT IS A GREEN MORTGAGE?

Green mortgages are mortgage deals that are offered specifically to people who are looking to buy an environmentally friendly home or make energy-efficient improvements to a property. Typically, green mortgage deals offer cheaper rates when you buy a home that conforms to a specific energy standard. Green mortgages are more commonly available for new builds, but they can also be offered for older properties that have been renovated to meet high energy-efficiency standards.

you may be eligible for a green mortgage.

That being said, you should always compare the whole market before committing to a mortgage to ensure you are getting the best deal to suit your financial situation.

WHICH LENDERS ARE CURRENTLY OFFERING GREEN MORTGAGES?

There are currently 26 lenders offering green mortgage deals, including Barclays, NatWest, Nationwide and Virgin Money, as well as specialist lender, Foundation Home Loans.

CAN LANDLORDS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF GREEN MORTGAGE DEALS?

Yes, landlords are also eligible for cheaper deals if they can show their properties have improved energy efficiency.

HOW DO GREEN MORTGAGES WORK?

There are currently three main types of green mortgage:

- > Lower rates for people who buy energy-efficient properties
- > Standard mortgages that offer cashback to people who buy energy-efficient properties
- > Mortgages that offer cheaper rates or cashback when people make green home improvements.

SHOULD I APPLY FOR A GREEN MORTGAGE?

If you are thinking about making green home improvements and you want to raise funding to do so, a green mortgage could help you. Alternatively, if you are buying a new build or an existing property with an energy rating of A or B,

MOTORING

How CAR-THARTIC!

HOW HEALTH, WELLNESS AND WELLBEING IS BEING INTRODUCED INTO OUR EVERYDAY CAR JOURNEYS

Perhaps it's only right, as we spend significant time stuck behind our steering wheels, that our trusty automobiles should be leading the way in wellbeing ideas that can refresh and enrich the mind, body and soul.

The motoring industry is currently researching secondary health functions in our motors. Indeed, the so-called HWW (health, wellness and wellbeing) initiative is now being accelerated in the wake of COVID-19, which has brought greater awareness to ways to improve our health, as well as the need to protect others, whether indoors or out.

Here are some of the ingenuities that could be introduced and enhanced inside our cars in the near future:

FOR THE MIND:

- > Fatigue and monitoring of stress levels, drink-driving prevention, comfort monitoring, driver workload estimation.

FOR THE BODY:

- > Heart-rate, blood pressure, breathing and glucose-level monitoring; drowsiness detection; pollen/allergen monitoring; palm and facial temperature monitoring; muscle therapy; inside and ambient temperature monitoring.

FOR THE SOUL:

- > Erratic driving pattern recognition.

These initiatives can arrive in one of three ways – built-in, brought-in or beamed-in. So while hardware accounts for two of those, the latter gives tech giants such as Apple a route into a market they've perhaps not been able to access in the past.

And having major brands behind the input may well mean that something seemingly niche in 2021, could become mainstream within five years. Your humble car could, very soon, become a vehicle not just for travel, but for health preservation as well.

TIMEX®

FLORA LONDON MARATHON 2003

BRITAIN'S GREATEST SPORTING MOMENTS...

KEEP ON RUNNING

DETERMINATION AND DRIVE – THE GREATEST RUN OF MANY FOR PAULA RADCLIFFE MBE

She is the runner whose contorted expressions suggested every stride was an exercise in attrition, whose thin yet powerful figure made her look much taller than her five-foot eight-inch frame, and whose competitive potential came despite being diagnosed with asthma at the age of 14.

Yet the record books do not list discomfort, disappointment or struggle – for Britain's Paula Radcliffe, they note the Cheshire-born runner as the most successful we have ever produced.

On April 13, 2003, years of preparation came together to create what remains one of the finest performances of any long-distance runner.

Radcliffe stepped up to the start line of the London Marathon knowing that victory should be hers, having won the previous year's race by a colossal three-and-a-half minutes.

As it materialised, her winning margin was almost exactly the same, yet the time of 2:15:25 was something superhuman. It took two minutes off the world record that she herself already held, and meant she had run the distance three minutes quicker than anyone else, ever.

The scale of Radcliffe's achievement only really became evident in the years that followed, during which no female athlete could get anywhere near her time. Even her rivals were clamouring to praise her.

American record holder Deena Kastor said: "Fans of this sport will continue viewing her 2:15 performance as iconic, heroic and a stunning sprint of 26.2 miles."

It took 16 years for the record to finally be broken, by Kenyan Brigid Kosgei at the 2019 Chicago Marathon.

Radcliffe, who made two comebacks in the sport after having children, retired in 2015. She was awarded an MBE for services to running, and now works regularly for sports media around the world.

TOKYO 2020

TEAM GB'S BRILLIANCE SHINES THROUGH AGAIN

There is perhaps a feeling that we were hard done by where the 2020 Tokyo Olympics were concerned, with a lack of spectators and the fact that the whole event seemed so detached from what is an amazing host city... yet try telling that to our swashbuckling Olympians.

In competitive terms, Team GB exceeded expectations yet again, bringing home a total of 22 gold, 21 silver and 22 bronze medals, to finish an extraordinary fourth in the medal table, behind only the US, China and Japan.

There were incredible successes all across the board, kickstarted with Adam Peaty charging home in the 100m breaststroke. Also in the pool, Tom Daley finally got the reward for his years of dedication, producing the performance of a lifetime alongside Matty Lee on the synchronised 10m platform.

We excelled in cycling across all disciplines, saw triathlon golds in the post-Brownlees era, exerted all our usual excellence in equestrian, and powered to pentathlon, boxing and sailing honours.

And what about Max Whitlock? His Tokyo gold saw him become the most successful gymnast ever on the pommel horse, with two Olympic and three world titles.

And while Skye Brown's medal was bronze, it was arguably the young star who courted the greatest quantity of headlines. At just 13-years-old, she confirmed in Tokyo what we all knew: That at such a tender age, the youngest ever British Olympian has the world at her feet - with her trusty skateboard close by.

Yet it's difficult to look beyond Jason and Laura Kenny. The married track cyclists became our greatest Olympians ever in claiming keirin and madison golds - the literal flagbearers for the sport's sensational ascent in the modern era.

DID YOU KNOW?

- ▶ According to National Geographic, beaver homes, called lodges, are usually constructed of branches and mud
- ▶ The giant ground pangolin can grow to more than four-feet long. It is the largest species of pangolin alive today
- ▶ The colour and foreheads of beluga whales makes them easy to identify. They are sociable mammals and usually live together in small groups, known as pods
- ▶ Tigers live alone and scent-mark their territories to keep their rivals away. Females raise their young, usually with little or no help from males
- ▶ Flying squirrels are able to make an 18-degree turn in the air to avoid predators
- ▶ Giant pandas have vertical slits for pupils, just like domestic cats

WORD LADDER

THE AIM: Change the word at the top of the ladder one letter at a time to make the word at the bottom.

HOW TO: Change one letter on each step to make a new word. By the time you reach the end, you should have created the new word.

DO NOT rearrange the order of the letters.

TIP: There is usually more than one way to solve this puzzle.
